County of Corn- } Robert Lovell Gwatkin, of Kilwall, } liow, Esq;

Carlton House, February 9.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales has been pleased to appoint Mr. John Young, of New Store-Street, Bedford-Square, to be his Engraver in Mezzotinto.

Dublin Castle, February 5, 1789.

THIS Day the Parliament having met according to Prorogation, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Scrope Bernard, Esq; Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Excellency to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend his Excellency in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Excellency made the following Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WITH the deepest Concern I find myself obliged; on opening the present Session of Parliament, to communicate to you the painful Information that His Majesty has been for some Time afflicted by a severe Malady, in consequence of which He has not honoured me with His Commands upon the Measures to be recommended to His Parliament.

I have directed such Documents as I have received respecting His Majesty's Health to be laid before you; and I shall also communicate to you, so soon as I shall be enabled, such further Information as may assist your Deliberations on that melancholy Subject:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons;

Deeming it at all Times my indispensable Duty to call your Attention to the Security of the Public Credit, and to the Maintenance of the Civil and Military Establishments, I have ordered the Public Accounts to be laid before you.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is unnecessary for me to express to you my earnest Wishes for the Welfare and Prosperity of Ireland; which, in every Situation, I shall always be anxious to promote; nor need I declare my Confidence in that affectionate Attachment to His Majesty, and in that zealous Concern for the united Interests of both Kingdoms, which have manifested themselves in all your Proceedings.

Dublin Castle, February 7.

The Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon Addresses to the Lord Lieutenant, the same were this Day presented to his Excellency; and, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow.

To his Excellency George Grenville Nugent Temple, Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency cellency our sincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We learn from your Excellency, with the most deep and unfeigned Sorrow, that our beloved Sovereign has been for some Time afflicted by a severe Malady, which has prevented your receiving His Royal Commands upon the Affairs of this Kingdom. Under this fore Calamity, we cannot but remember, with the warmest Gratitude, that His Majesty's Paternal Care has ever been directed to the Happiness and Prosperity of His Subjects: And our Hearts, thus deeply impressed, offer up the most fervent Prayers to the Divine Providence, that our Gracious Monarch may soon be restored to the anxious Wishes of His People.

We return your Excellency our sincere Acknowledgments for having ordered to be laid before us such Documents as you have received respecting His Majesty's Health, as well as for your Intention of communicating to us, so soon as you shall be enabled, such further Information as may assist our Proceedings on this painful Exigency.

We entreat your Excellency to accept our warmest Thanks for your unwearied Endeavors for the Welfare of this Kingdom; and we hope to confirm your Excellency's favorable Sentiments of us by the strongest Proofs of affectionate Attachment to our Gracious Sovereign, and by a Continuance of our zealous Concern for the united Interests of Great Britain and Ireland.

W. Watts Gayer, } Cler. Parliamentor.
Edw. Gayer, }

His Excellency's Answer.

I Request you to accept my sincere Thanks for this obliging Address. It is a Matter of great Satisfaction to me to receive these warm Expressions of your Loyalty to the King, and this kind Mark of your Regard to me. I shall never cease to entertain the most earnest Zeal for the Welfare and Prosperity of Ireland.

To his Excellency George Grenville Nugent Temple, Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant-General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our most humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We cannot adequately express the Poignancy of our Sorrow, in being informed by your Excellency that His Majesty has been for some Time afflicted with a severe Malady, in consequence of which your Excellency has not received His Royal Commands upon the Measures to be recommended to His Parliament.

We return your Excellency our sincere Thanks (however we must lament the Necessity of such a Circumstance) for ordering the Communication of such Documents, as you have received respecting His Majesty's Health, as well as for your Intention of laying before us such further Information as may assist our Deliberations on that melancholy Subject.

Nor can we withhold our Tribute of Acknowledgment to your Excellency for pointing our Attention to the Support of our Public Credit and the Maintenance of the Civil and Military Establishments, as well as for your Solitude to prepare us for those Subjects, by ordering the Public Accounts to be laid before us. On these great Objects of general Importance we shall endeavour to act with a becoming Care of the National Interests and the Honor of His Majesty's Crown.

We are duly impressed with a lively and grateful Sense of the many and numerous Blessings this Country has received during His Majesty's Reign, and, under the Pressure of the present Calamity, shall manifest the most genuine and cordial Loyalty and Attachment to our beloved Sovereign, and our most zealous Regard for the united Strength and common Interests of both Kingdoms; and we return our sincere Thanks to your Excellency for the earnest Wishes that your Excellency is pleased to express for the Welfare and Prosperity of Ireland, which you have always been anxious to promote.

E. Cooke, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Answer.

Gentlemen,

I Return you my most sincere Thanks for this Address. Your Declarations of Duty and Attachment to His Majesty are particularly pleasing to me at this melancholy Crisis. I am happy in the favourable Opinion you are pleased to express of my Endeavours for the Welfare and Prosperity of this Kingdom.

Vienna, January 24.

Letters from Jassy of the 10th Instant, mention that a Detachment from the Army, commanded by Marshal Romanzow, had succeeded in their Attempt to dislodge a Body of Turks, consisting of 900 Men, from Gangura, pursued them to Kainar, and, having driven from thence 700 Tartars, proceeded to the Attack of Salkutza, and obtained a complete Victory. The Enemy lost in these several Actions 390 Men killed, 77 Prisoners, four Pieces of Artillery, and six Colours, whilst the Russians had only one Ensign and four Men killed, and twenty-four wounded. General Kamenkoy was at the Head of the Detachment.

Manchester, February 2, 1789.

THE Creditors of William Allen and Co. Bankers (heretofore carrying on Business at the Manchester Bank) are hereby informed that Attendance will be given at No. 40, in Dean's-gate-street, Manchester, for the full Discharge of the Debts owing by William Allen and Co. every Monday and Wednesday, between the Hours of Ten and One o'Clock, from the 4th Day of February instant to the 4th Day of March inclusive. All Securities held by the Creditors are to be delivered up at the Time of the Discharge of their respective Debts.

LOST, on Wednesday the 21st Day of January last, a Bank Note for One Thousand Pounds, No. 487, dated December 5, 1788. If the Person possessed of it will bring it to Mess. Hankeys Bankers, in Fenchurch-street, on or before Saturday next, the 20th instant, the Reward of Fifty Pounds already offered by Public Advertisement will be paid upon the Delivery of it.

But as from the peculiar Circumstances of the Case there is too much Reason to believe that the Loss of the Note cannot be imputed to Accident, Notice is hereby given, That if it is not brought to Mess. Hankeys, on or before Saturday next, no Reward will be given, unless to the Person who may furnish the Means of discovering the Note, and such Person will be liberally rewarded for his Trouble.

SOCIETY.—NEWBURY, BERKS.

THE Members, Annuitants and Claimants of the Laudable Annuity Society lately held at the Three Tuns, in Newbury, in the County of Berks, are desired to take Notice, That in consequence of the Powers and Authorities given to the Treasurers and Committee by the General Meeting of the Members, held the 4th Day of June, 1787, and by the Advice and Direction of Counsel consulted on the Occasion, they have agreed to apportion to each Person an equitable Share of the present Capital; the Particulars of which will be communicated to them by applying to John Blagrave, Attorney at Law, in Speenhamland, near Newbury, with whom a Consent or Approbation of such intended Division is now left to be signed; and that as soon as every Member, Annuitant and Claimant have, by themselves or their Attornies lawfully authorized, signed the same, they will immediately make the intended Division: And unless every Member, Annuitant and Claimant shall as aforesaid sign such Consent or Approbation, on before the 25th Day of March next coming, the said Treasurers and Committee intend to apply to a Court of Equity for their Indemnity.

By Order of the Treasurers and Committee,

Speenhamland,
