

the Throne in so eminent a Degree as the present, which has enabled them to dwell with such heartfelt Emphasis on an Event so propitious to their Country, so peculiarly interesting and effectually consolatory to the best of Queens.

Signed by Order of Court.

William Rix.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this Mark of Duty to the King and Attention to Me. I receive your Congratulations with a sincere and heartfelt Pleasure on the present joyful Occasion; and I can assure you, that the City of London will ever have My best Wishes for its Prosperity and Happiness.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

Whitehall, March 21.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, receive with Joy the Intelligence announced to us by the Addressees of both Houses of Parliament, and present ourselves, among the foremost of your Subjects, to congratulate with your Majesty on the Re-establishment of your Health.

The gloomy Interval of your Majesty's Indisposition had led us prematurely to entertain the most serious Apprehensions; and the universal Affliction which they occasioned, declares, in a Language which Flattery cannot dare to imitate, but which we repeat with Pride and Satisfaction, that your Majesty possesses entirely the Confidence and the Affection of your People.

Impressed with a Conviction that your Endeavours are uniformly designed for the Welfare of your Kingdoms, and that the possessing the Affection of your People is a Glory at which you aim, we implore the Almighty to continue to your Majesty a long and happy Life, a prosperous and early Reign.

Given under our Common Seal this Fourteenth Day of March, in the Twenty-ninth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Delivered by William Hussy, Esq; and the Honourable William Henry Bouverie, Representatives in Parliament for that City.]

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, in Great Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late severe indisposition. We, in common with the rest of your faithful Subjects, with deep Regret felt the Want of your Royal Protection, and fervently offered up our Prayers to the Almighty Disposer of all Things to bless your Majesty with the Return of Health; and we now, with equal Fervor, return our Thanksgiving for His great Mercy in restoring to your Majesty sufficient Strength to undertake the Fatigue of the Executive Government, which we earnestly pray your Majesty may long continue to exercise over a free, prosperous and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal the Eleventh Day of March, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-nine.

[Transmitted by Charles Alexander Crickitt, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff and Grand Jury, assembled at the Lent Assizes held at Chelmsford, for the County of Essex, feel an Emulation to express our early and most hearty Congratulations to your Majesty upon your Majesty's happy and perfect Recovery from your late Illness. This Event hath diffused a general Joy amongst all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, and it gives particular Pleasure and Satisfaction to us, who revere with Gratitude that Divine Providence by which your Majesty is restored to the Exercise of your Royal Functions.

We are truly sensible of the Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Government, and most ardently pray, That your Majesty's Reign may be long, prosperous and happy.

Chelmsford, March 12, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord Howard of Walden, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotularum of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Corporation of Saffron Walden, in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to offer our most unfeigned and warmest Congratulations to your Majesty, and to participate in the general Joy and Happiness which pervade the whole Kingdom upon your Majesty's perfect Recovery from your late Illness.

We implore the Divine Providence to continue to your Majesty a long Life, with uninterrupted Health; and that, for the further Comfort of your Majesty and the Nation, Length of Days may be granted to our most Gracious and justly beloved Queen.

Suffer us also to acknowledge the Obligations we lay under to your Majesty for having made Choice of a Minister in the Person of Mr. Pitt, whose Talents are not less distinguished than his Integrity, and who, in his Care to preserve your Majesty's Rights, has been equally attentive to those of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Sixteenth Day of March, One Thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord Howard of Walden, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotularum of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of your ancient City of Bristol, with Minds deeply sensible of Gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of Life
