To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Sentiments of the utmost Affection, Veneration and Duty, and humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the joyful Event of your Majesty's Recovery from your late severe and afflictive Illness.

We beg your Majesty to believe, that no Part of your Subjects could reflect with a more deep and anxious Concern than we have done on the heavy Calamity of your lamented Indisposition; and that we feel with proportionate Sensations of Gratitude and Exaltation your Majesty's happy Restoration to your Health and to your Government.

[ Price Ten-pence Halfpenny: ]

We acknowledge, with every Impression of the most fervent Thankfulness, the Goodness of Divine Providence in thus graciously restoring your Majesty to the Wishes of your faithful Subjects, and humbly supplicate, that the Continuance of your Majesty's Health may long secure to us the full Possession of those Blessings which, under your Majesty's Government, we derive from the unimpaired Energy of our excellent Constitution.

By Order of the General Meeting;
Harry House, Chairman.

Crown and Anchor,
Wednesday, March 18, 1789.

[ Delivered by Harry House, Esq; accompanied by the Right Honourable Charles James Fox and Lord John Townshend, Representatives in Parliament for that City. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Kent, now assembled at the Lent Assizes at Maidstone.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Kent, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt Congratulations on your happy Recovery from the alarming Illness with which you have been lately afflicted; an Event which fills us, in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, with the sincerest Joy; and to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

That your Majesty, so happily restored by the Blessing of Divine Providence to the Exercise of your Royal Authority, may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free and loyal People, is our most sincere and fervent Prayer.

[ Delivered by James Bond, Esq; Sheriff, attended by the Honourable Charles Marsham and Fiimor Honeywood, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that County. ]

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and of a very numerous and most respectable Body of Gentlemen assembled at the Assizes at Thetford the 19th of March, 1789.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave, with Hearts filled with Joy, to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Illness; an Event which, at the same Instant, hath dissipated the general Gloom which had pervaded all Ranks of People, and hath also restored Energy to our Laws, and Activity to the various Branches of the Legislature of these Kingdoms.

You have tasted of the bitter Cup of Adversity, Sir! on a sick Bed undismayed; a salutary Draught to truly great Men offered by Heaven to its Favourites as a Trial of their Constancy and Resignation to its immutable Decrees. May you henceforward (and it is the sincere Wish of our Hearts) continue to enjoy uninterrupted Health during a Series of happy Years: Your serious Hours employed (as heretofore) in promoting the Welfare of your Subjects, and in planning wise Regulations for the general Prosperity of the Realm. May your domestick Occupations be enlivened by the affectionate Endearments of your beloved Consort, our Gracious Queen! The Example and Ornament of her Sex, surrounded by a splendid Train of Princes, your joint Offspring, whose Virtues and eminent Qualities justly entitle them to the Applause and Admiration of the British Nation; and when it shall please the Divine Providence to call you hence, after a long and glorious Reign, may you enjoy that Beatitude which is reserved for those who, in exalted Stations, have, like your Majesty, passed their Lives in uninterrupted Exertions for the Benefit of those entrusted to their Care.

[ Delivered by the Honourable Henry Hobart, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the City of Norwich. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Judges, Advocates and Proctors of your Majesty's Ecclesiastical and Admiralty Courts, humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations on the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

Fully sensible of the Importance of a Life, during which all the Blessings of a mild and equal Government have been uniformly enjoyed by every Description of your Majesty's Subjects, we cannot but ardently rejoice, that the Providence of God has averted a Calamity which threatened the Security of our publick Happiness; and we at the same Time feel the most cordial Satisfaction in reflecting, that the same Event which assures to your Subjects the Stability of their national Welfare, restores your Majesty to the Possession of that domestick Felicity, to which your Majesty's many private and personal Virtues have given you so distinguished a Title.

That your Majesty's publick Conduct may long continue to protect, and that your private Conduct may long continue to adorn this Country, is the ardent prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

[ Delivered by Sir William Wynne, Dean of the Arches, &c. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton.

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery.

We bless the Divine Providence for giving Success to the Means made Use of to effect this happy Event; happy to our Gracious Queen and Royal Family: Happy to a grateful and affectionate People: Happy to every Foreign State in Alliance with these Kingdoms.

The Influence of your Majesty's just and mild Government extends beyond your own Dominions, and is of powerful Effect to conciliate the Animosities of contending Nations.

May the same Providence, which hath hitherto guided and protected your Sacred Majesty, continue its Blessings on your Health and Government. Long may you reign over an obedient and faithful People, studious to demonstrate their Zeal and Attachment to their Sovereign, in the steady Support of a glorious Constitution, revered by all wise and good Subjects, who are anxious for the Preservation of their Monarch's Life, and for the personal Exercise of His Power, and firm in a manly Defence of the established Government of this Country.

[ Delivered by John Fleming, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor and Burgesſes of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council aſſembled, impreſſed with a lively Senſe of your Maſteſty's paternal Care for all your loving Subjects, cannot fail to offer up our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty for your Maſteſty's Recovery from your late Indispoſition. That you are, through His gracious Mercy, enabled to reſume the Reins of Government; under which we have ever been ſo mildly and auſpiciously protected, is an Event which muſt excite in every Heart both Joy and Gratitude; in Proportion to the Concern we felt at your Affliction; the greater our Joy is at your happy Reſtoration. And, without Flattery, or the Semblance of it, we may venture to pronounce, that not only in this Nation, but in every other to which your Maſteſty's Name hath extended, Joy and Congratulation will univerſally prevail. The many and repeated Bleſſings we have enjoyed ſince your Maſteſty's Acceſſion to the Throne lead us beyond Hope; they lead us to a full Assurance (under God's Providence) of a Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings to the End of your Reign. We preſume too, with the moſt fervent Reſpect, to congratulate our moſt Gracious Queen, and your Royal Houſe, on this important Occaſion; aſſuring them, that our Hearts were overwhelmed with Sorrow at their unhappy and afflicted Situation. May the King of Kings continue to your Maſteſty the Eſtabliſhment of Health, the Love of your Subjects, and the Enjoyment of all temporal Bleſſings; and may theſe Bleſſings be for ever perpetuated to your Illuſtrious Family.

May your Maſteſty long continue to reign in the Hearts of a loyal and affectionate People, the Sovereign and the Subjects mutually reſpoſing Confidence in each other.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guild-hall of the Town of Nottingham, this 18th Day of March, 1789.

Robert Seagrave, Town Clerk.

WE, your Maſteſty's loyal Subjects, the Heritors, Freeholders and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Berwick, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne in the preſent Hour of univerſal Joy, and to join in the heart-felt Congratulations of our Fellow-Subjects on your Maſteſty's Recovery.

We are deſirous of teſtifying to your Maſteſty, that, deeply as we have at all Times been impreſſed with a Senſe of the manifold Advantages enjoyed under your paternal Government, theſe have been ſtill more thoroughly brought Home to our Breſts, by the awful Diſpenſation of Providence, which alarmed the Empire for your Royal Life and Safety. And thus taught, we now enter your Maſteſty's Preſence with Sentiments of increaſing Veneration, ſtill more attached (if poſſible) to your Perſon, and more devoted to your Service.

Nor have we, at this diſtreſſing Conjunction, been intereſted only for ourſelves. While we deeply felt our own Calamity, we lamented and ſympathiſed with the Affliction of your Gracious Conſort, the Queen's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty, and the other Members of the Royal Family. And, as we humbly joined in the Prayers of thoſe Auguſt Perſons for the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Maſteſty's Health, ſo now, when Heaven has heard thoſe Prayers, we preſume to join in their Tribute of Gratitude to the Almighty, who hath reſtored Comfort and Happineſs to the Royal Houſe, and to theſe Kingdoms a Sovereign; distinguished as the Father and Guardian of His People.

Signed by our Praeſes, in our Preſence; and by our Appointment, at Greenlaw, Head Burgh of the County of Berwick, within the Court-Houſe there, the 16th Day of March, 1789 Years.

We are gratefully ſenſible of your Maſteſty's conſtant Attention in preſerving the juſt Prerogative of the Crown and Conſtitution, the encouraging of Arts, Commerce, Agriculture, and every Thing which may tend to the Advantage of your Empire.

We thank God for preſerving your Maſteſty's valuable Life, and pray He may grant your Maſteſty a long Continuance of Health and Happineſs, as the greateſt Bleſſing to your faithful Subjects.

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Maſteſty, that theſe are the ſincere Wiſhes of this populous and loyal County, faithfully attached to and anxious for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Royal Family.

Signed by Appointment of the Meeting,

Banff, March 13, 1789.

[ Delivered by James Fergusſon, Eſq; Representative in Parliament for the ſaid County. ]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Fif.

WE, your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Fif, under the deepeſt Impreſſions of the Magnitude of that Calamity with which theſe Kingdoms were lately afflicted; join with correſponding Zeal in the general Joy inſpired by that ſignal Deliverance which the Almighty has granted to the Prayers of your People.

And now we mix our warmeſt Congratulations with thoſe of every good Citizen, and humbly lay them before your Maſteſty's Throne.

We congratulate your Maſteſty, that with returning Health you receive your domeſtic Comforts; not only unimpaired but endeared by the Diſplay of Virtues which only Adverſity calls forth.

We congratulate your Maſteſty, that with returning Health you receive your Kingdoms in Safety, Proſperity and Peace.

We congratulate your Maſteſty, that the Proſpect is now reſtored to your Dominions of long enjoying a Government, which, for Nine and Twenty Years, has conferred on them every Bleſſing that the Father of His Country could beſtow.

We congratulate your Maſteſty, that, melancholy as the late Proſpect was, it has afforded your Maſteſty the ſingular Felicity of knowing with Certainty, that although Adulation ſhall be mute, and Intereſt no more, your Fame and your Virtues are conſigned to the Veneration of Poſterity, in the Gratitude and Loyalty of a great and enlightened People.

And in fine we congratulate your Majesty on the Glory of having taught the World, that the Crown you wear is secured against the Calamities of human Life, by the Freedom of that Constitution which you have cherished, and by the unalterable Attachment of your faithful Subjects, in whose Hearts and Affections you reign.

Indisposition with which you have lately been afflicted.

We cannot but feel ourselves particularly thankful to the Omnipotent Disposer of all Events for His benign Condescension and Goodness in thus timely listening to the ardent Prayers of a free and grateful People, and restoring, in perfect Health, to your Royal and Amiable Consort and Family the best of Husbands and Fathers, and, above all, to a now happy Nation, the best of Monarchs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of Dumfries.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Dumfries, beg Leave to approach your Throne, in the most respectful Manner, to congratulate your Majesty, and to express our Joy on your being now restored to Health, and enabled to discharge personally the Duties of your exalted Station.

Animated with a Spirit of Loyalty to your Government, and of Attachment to your Majesty and the the Royal Family, it was impossible for us not to feel the most sincere Concern during your Majesty's late Indisposition. The Experience we have long had of your Majesty's virtuous and paternal Care for the Happiness of your Subjects, recurred frequently to our Remembrance; and we deprecated the Dispensation that might have deprived us of a Monarch, whom we had every Reason to revere as the Father of His People. Happily we can now acknowledge the Goodness of Divine Providence, in dispelling our Apprehensions, and in restoring your Majesty to the Prayers of an anxious and affectionate People.

That your Majesty's Health may be soon perfectly confirmed; that it may please God to preserve, for many years, a Life justly dear and valuable to your Subjects; and that, after a long Course of Tranquility and Glory, your Majesty may transmit your Crown, with undiminished Lustre, to a Line of Princes inheriting all the Virtues of the House of Brunswick, is, and ever shall be, the Prayer of your Majesty's most devoted and most faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Dumfries.

Participating, in the fullest Manner, the Blessings of Peace, of Civil and Religious Liberty, under your mild Administration, and placed by the unremitting Vigilance of your Royal and paternal Care in a state of Security and Happiness, which make our Constitution the Admiration of surrounding Nations, we should feel ourselves deficient in Duty to your Majesty, and undeserving of the Blessings we enjoy, if we failed to embrace the earliest Opportunity of avowing our Obligations and devout Reverence towards the Almighty Disposer of all Events, for restoring our Gracious Sovereign to the ardent Prayers and unwearied Supplications of a loyal and affectionate People.

That the Divine Power may long continue to protect your Majesty, direct your Councils, and prosper your Administration; that He may bestow His choicest Blessings on your Royal Consort the Queen, and all the Royal Family; and that your Royal Offspring may flourish and sway the British Sceptre to the latest Posterity, over a free, happy and united People, is the sincere, the ardent Wish of,

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Provost, Fellows and Masters of the Royal College of Eton, presume to hope that your Majesty will graciously accept our sincere Congratulations upon an Event as providential as ever yet marked the Annals of this Country.

From the general and unbounded Joy of the People, greater than was ever felt, or expressed, upon the most brilliant Success, your Majesty perceives what must have been our Anxiety during that awful Period, when the best of Kings, and the best of Men, lay upon the Bed of Sickness, and of Sorrow. If ever the Hand of the Almighty was visible in the Relief of both domestic and national Calamity, surely we may say without Presumption that it is upon the present Occasion, when it has restored a most excellent Husband and Father to His afflicted Family, and a most beloved King to His affectionate Subjects.

That the God of Mercies may long preserve our Gracious Sovereign in Health and Prosperity, and that your Majesty may ever enjoy all those Blessings which, from your many eminent Virtues, and more particularly from your late exemplary Conduct under the severest Trial, you so justly deserve, is the hearty Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful, the Provost, Fellows and Masters of Eton College.

Your Majesty's amiable and excellent Virtues, most particularly displayed in an uniform Tenderness and Affection for your Royal Consort, have long afforded a bright Example to your own Sex, and excited universal Praise and Admiration; but, called forth on the late anxious and trying Occasion, these Virtues have appeared with additional Lustre, and secured to your Majesty an honourable Fame to the latest Posterity.
