And We do strictly charge and command that the said Public Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Punishment as We can justly inflict upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The unanimous and humble Address of the the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots Seamen, of the Trinity-House of Kingston upon Hull.

That it may please the Great Disposer of human Events to establish and continue to your Majesty the ineffimable Blessing of Health, and that your Majesty may long, very long, reign over a happy and grateful People, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Guild, the 20th Day of March, 1789.

John Huntington, Warden.

The following Address of the Nobility, Ladies and Gentlewomen of the County and Town of Banff, having been transmitted to her Grace the Duchefs of Gordon, has been presented to the Queen: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Nobility, Ladies and Gentlewomen of the County and Town of Banff, dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects to our most Gracious Sovereign, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our warmest Expressions of Joy for the happy Recovery of the best of Kings; an Event, under God, the greatest Blessing to His attached and faithful People.

We congratulate your Majesty on this joyful Occasion, and pray to God that He may long preserve His Majesty's Life, and the Life of His Royal Consort, whom we look up to as the Patroness of Piety, Virtue and exemplary Religious Duties.

We have long known, and shall always admire, your amiable Character, and your eminent Wisdom, as we wish to imitate your wise and unrivalled Conduct.

We pray to God that Happiness may be continued to your Majesty and the Royal Family; and that those Virtues, which we revere with the utmost Gratitude, may be remembered and imitated to the latest Age.

This humble Address, unanimously resolved on at a numerous and respectable Assembly met in Banff, the 13th Day of March, 1789, is appointed to be sent to the Duchefs of Gordon, that her Grace may have the Honor of signing it in our Names, and presenting it to Her Majesty.

J. Gordon.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Archbishop and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Saint Peter in York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbishop and Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Saint Peter in York, feel ourselves impelled by every Sentiment of Zeal and Duty, to join our Voice in the Acclamation of general Joy upon your Majesty's happy Restoration to Health. We have before uttered it in fervent Thanksgivings to the Throne of Grace, and are now performing our Duty as Citizens, by making a more public Expression of those grateful Feelings by which we acknowledge the Divine Protection.

The Remembrance of former Times presents to us many Occasions on which we cannot help believing, that this Country owed its Deliverance to an interfering Providence, but we cannot recollect any Situation in which these Nations were rescued from a deeper Distress, or from more accumulated Terrors.

May the same Divine Goodness continue to protect your Majesty as the best Guardian of our National Welfare, and may you continue to exercise the genuine Effusions of Gratitude and Affection from an honest and manly People, who have the Sense to know, and the Virtue to proclaim the ineffimable Benefits which they have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's just and gracious Government.

In Testimony whereof, we, the Archbishop aforesaid, have hereunto set our Hand, and caused to be affixed our Seal, and we, the Dean and Chapter aforesaid, have caused our Common Seal to be put, the 30th Day of March, in the Twenty-ninth Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

[Delivered by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Llandaff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Llandaff, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, humbly, and with hearty Thanksgivings to Almighty God, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Recovery, which He in His Mercy hath vouchsafed to you, from a long and singularly afflicting Indisposition.

We are persuaded, that no Congratulations, on any Occasion, were ever offered to any of your Majesty's Predecessors with more cordial Sincerity, and more perfect Unanimity, than those will be which a free, a loyal and an affectionate People will present to your Majesty on this Event: It is an Event highly interesting to every Branch of your Majesty's Family, and to every Friend of the House of Brunswick.

The Happiness of Men, who have the Misfortune to live under despotic Governments, depends more on the good Disposition of their Ruler, than than on the Nature of their Civil Constitution: Whilst that of Men, who live under free Governments, is more dependent on the Principles their of Constitution, than on the Virtues of their Prince. How happy, then, may our Situation justly be esteemed! we certainly live under the best Form of Civil Government that was ever established in the World; and we have the Comfort of knowing that it is administered by a King, whose Virtues, public and private, would render even Despotism itself not destructive of the Happiness of Human Kind.

May God, in His good Providence, long continue to us the Blessing of your Majesty's Life and Health, and preserve to our latest Posterity the Blessing of the British Constitution.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Llandaff]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Worcester, humbly beg Leave to testify the Part we take in the general Joy on the Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

Next to your Majesty's most amiable and ever faithful Consort, and the several Branches of the Royal Family, it is hard, Sir, to say, which of your Majesty's other Subjects have Reason to exult most on this great Event.

But, as our Ministry is ordained for the Service of All, we feel the extensive Influence it derives from your Majesty's special Protection of us, and known Zeal for the Interests of our Holy Religion. We cannot, therefore, but express the peculiar Satisfaction we take in finding ourselves again under the Care of your Majesty's wise and salutary Government. And, as the all gracious Father of the universe mixes His severest Dispensations with Mercy, we observe further, that the late Interruption of our Happiness has served to give a fresh Value to the Blessings so long enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Reign; and, if possible, to augment the Trust and Confidence which your Majesty had ever, with so much Reason, reposed in the ardent Loyalty and Affection of your People.

We omit other Considerations; but we cannot forget the signal Marks of Grace and Bounty conferred upon us in the Course of the last Summer, when your Majesty was pleased to visit that Part of your Kingdom, in which we are placed: And we shall be allowed to profess, that this late Experience of your Majesty's Goodness, enlivens the Sense, we have in common with all our Fellow Subjects, of the great Mercy vouchsafed to us in your Majesty's perfect Recovery.

[Delivered by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in the City of Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of Westminster, actuated by the purest Motives of Loyalty and Gratitude, most humbly beg Leave to represent to your Majesty the sincere Part we take in that universal Joy and Satisfaction which has been most signally displayed by all Ranks and Orders of your Subjects on your Majesty's Recovery from a severe Visitation of the Almighty, who, in His good Time has been pleased to manifest His Mercy, and favourably to hear the Prayers and Supplications of a much afflicted People.

We ourselves receive this national Blessing with a grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness; and it will ever be our Duty to impress upon the Minds of others those sound Principles of Religion and Loyalty which will best entitle us to the Favour of Heaven, and a long Enjoyment of your Majesty's mild and constitutional Government.

Given at our Chapter House at Westminster, under our Common Seal, the 2d Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

J. Rochester, Dean of Westminster.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Rochester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Council and Keys of the Isle of Mann.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Keys of your Island of Mann, in Tynwald assembled, beg Leave to present our sincere Congratulations on the Recovery of your Majesty's Health, the Value and Importance of which may be justly estimated by that universal Joy which has succeeded the anxious Solitude lately felt, not only throughout but beyond your Majesty's Dominions.

Sensible of the Happiness we have derived from your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, (under the immediate Protection of which it is our highest Ambition to remain) we can only express our Gratitude by our pious Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may be long continued, and that the Blessings of it may be transmitted through your Illustrious Family to our latest Posterity.

By Order of the House of Keys,

John Taubman, Speaker.

Castle Rushen, March 26, 1789.

[Transmitted by the Lieutenant-Governor.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the ancient Society of the Middle Temple, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty your warmest Congratulations upon your Recovery from your late Indisposition, and to express our most ardent Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the Blessing of perfect Health, a Blessing which cannot more add to your Majesty's Happiness, than we are persuaded, from our Experience of your Government, it will contribute to the Satisfaction of all your Majesty's Subjects.

As a Society set apart for the Study and Practice of the Law, we cannot but be conscious that nothing ought to be more ardently prayed for by all your Subjects than the Continuance of a Reign in which they have possessed, without Interruption, the invaluable Benefits which that Law is calculated to secure to them, and which it has ever been your Majesty's most anxious Care they should fully enjoy.

Jerome Knapp, Treasurer.

[Delivered by Jerome Knapp, Esq; Treasurer, the Right Hon. the Master of the Rolls and His Majesty's Solicitor General.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the ancient Society of Gray's Inn, established for promoting the Study and Practice of the Law, on Behalf of ourselves and the other Members thereof, beg Leave to unite our sincere and cordial Congratulations, with those of our Fellow-Subjects, on the happy Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

Highly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we are are deeply impressed with Gratitude to Almighty God, for His having vouchsafed to listen to the Prayers of your People, in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

That Loyalty which, as good Subjects, it is our Duty to profess, and as the Law Society to inculcate and promote, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty is accompanied with a most warm and respectful Attachment to your Majesty for your many personal Virtues, convinced that nothing can be more favourable to the Cause of Religion and Morality, than so bright an Example in so elevated a Situation.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over a free and loyal People; the Protector of their Religion, Laws; and Liberties.

The Virtues of great Princes have ever commanded the Reverence of this Nation; and we cannot but account it a singular Mark of the Divine Favour to your Majesty, that in consequence of your late Indisposition you are enabled to anticipate, by the general past Affliction and present Happiness of your People, the Sentiments of Posterity upon your Reign, which will ever be recorded as the Æra most glorious for the Crown, and the greatest Felicity to the Subject.

With the generous Pride of Britons we behold the Nations of Europe taking Part with us lately in our Distress, and now in our Exultation; and we confide in the same Divine Goodness, which hath restored your Majesty to our Prayers, that it hath preserved you for Purposes the most beneficial to us, to our Posterity, and to Mankind, long to bless your own People, and your own Royal House, by the continued Exercise of every regal and paternal Care, and to be an illustrious Example to all the Princes of the Earth, that the Loyalty of Subjects will ever be secured, when Wisdom, Justice and Piety preside over the Measures of Government.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Rotherham, beg Leave to Address your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations on your perfect Recovery from your late alarming and severe Indisposition.

The Anxiety and Distress which appeared in every Rank of your Majesty's Subjects during your Illness, is an undeniable Proof of the unfeigned Attachment which they have to your Royal Person. Those who, at so critical a Moment, were amongst the earliest to express their entire Confidence in that sage and equitable Administration of Government which they at present enjoy, cannot but particularly rejoice that your Majesty is now enabled to continue those Persons in Office, whose prudent Councils have contributed so much to the Public Safety.

When we take also this Opportunity of expressing the Sympathy which we felt with your Royal and amiable Consort in Her late distressful Situation, and of declaring our unanimous Admiration of Her affectionate and exemplary Conduct at that Interval; we cannot doubt but such Expressions will be honoured by your Majesty's benignant Acceptance and Approbation.

That by the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life, Health and Prosperity, the Rights and Liberties of all your Subjects may continue to be constitutionally protected, is by no Persons more fervently prayed for than by us, whose Felicity it is to congratulate your Majesty on the present joyful Occasion.

[Delivered by Wm. Harrison, jun. Esq; Chairman.]

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN,

The humble Address of the Archbishop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of St. Peter, in York.

MADAM,

WHILE we are expressing to His Majesty the sincere Part we take in the public Joy upon the Restoration of His former Health, we cannot possibly overlook the great Source of His usual Comforts, which on other Occasions never failed to afford Him Relief, but of which He was lately unhappily bereft.

The

The Measure of that Affliction, which we have all suffered, appeared to have been full; but we know how short it must fall, when compared with those Agonies which your Majesty has endured.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, not in the Language of Adulation, but in the Sincerity of plain Truth, that in the Midst of our Sorrows which necessarily flowed from the View of public Consequences, and the unfeigned Affection which we all bear to His Majesty's Person, the Sufferings of His Royal Consort added a fresh Pang to the Sense of our Calamity.

We now implore the Giver of all good Things to make perfect your Consolation, and to sustain you under the Pressure of Evils whensoever they arise; and we will not believe that amongst His Majesty's Subjects there are any Minds so obdurate as not to unite cordially in this dutiful Supplication.

In Testimony whereof we, the Archbishop aforesaid, have hereunto set our Hand, and caused to be affixed our Seal, and we, the Dean and Chapter aforesaid, have caused our Common Seal to be put, the 30th Day of March, in the Twenty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

W. Ebor.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of York.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff.

Most Gracious Queen,

WE, the Bishop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff, entreat your Majesty graciously to accept our Congratulations on the King's Recovery from His late Indisposition. They are tendered to your Majesty with the utmost Truth.

The Comforts of Domestic Life are natural and sincere; all Persons, in all Ranks, equally feel the Importance of possessing them, are equally afflicted by their Interruption or Loss: We firmly believe that every Family in the Kingdom sympathized with your Majesty in your late Distress; and that they all participate in your present Felicity.

Sensible of the Influence of Royal Example, we have always thought that your Majesty was intitled to the Thanks of this Kingdom for the Proofs you have uniformly given, during a long Residence amongst us, of the Sincerity of your Piety, of the Amiability and Purity of your Manners, as a Queen, as a Wife, and as a Mother: But if your Majesty could have claimed our Regard on no other Account, the Tenderness and Concern you have shown for a beloved Monarch, during His late unhappy Situation, would have secured to you the grateful Attachment of a loyal People.

We observed in the Deliberations of Parliament a great Diversity of Opinion, as to the most constitutional Mode of protecting the Rights of the Sovereign, during the Continuance of His Indisposition; but we observed none whatever as to the Necessity of doing it in the most effectual Manner. This Circumstance cannot fail of giving solid Satisfaction to your Majesty; for next to the Consolation of believing that, in His Recovery, He has been the especial Object of God's Mercy, must be that of knowing that, during His Illness, He was the peculiar Object of His People's Love; that He reigns over a free, a great and an enlightened Nation, not more by the Laws of the Land than by the Wishes of all His Subjects.

[Transmitted by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop.]

To the QUEEN.

M A D A M,

WE, the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Worcester, humbly hope your Majesty will be pleased to accept our sincerest Congratulations on His Majesty's happy Recovery from His late Illness.

We sympathize, Madam, with your Majesty in those Sensations of Joy and Exultation which fill your Royal Breast on this Occasion; and we want Words to express our Thankfulness to Almighty God, for His merciful Acceptance of those Prayers, which, in a Season of peculiar Anxiety and Distress, were so earnestly offered up to the Throne of Grace by a dutiful and affectionate People.

May it please God very long to preserve to us the invaluable Blessing of our most gracious and beloved Sovereign's Life and Health; and to reward your Majesty with those Consolations which, in the order of a wise and good Providence, spring out of a Life distinguished as your Majesty's is by the most exemplary Virtues.

[Transmitted by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Somerset, assembled at the Assizes at Taunton, confidently, though humbly, approach your Majesty to congratulate you on the Recovery of your Royal Consort.

The glorious Proof of Firmness, Moderation and conjugal Affection which your Majesty has shewn on the late interesting Occasion, cannot fail of exciting the Admiration of the present age, and the Reverence of the future.

Your Majesty, by contributing every tender Care and Attention to that Health so important to all, has clearly evinced yourself worthy of the greatest Confidence a loyal and affectionate People could repose. May your Reward both here and hereafter be complete; may every Circumstance of domestic Happiness attend you uninterruptedly; and may you long continue the bright Example of those benevolent, conjugal and maternal Virtues, which render you the Pride and Ornament of these Kingdoms.

John Lethbridge, Sheriff.

Tho. Dyke Ackland, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

[Transmitted by Sir John Trevilian Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Devon.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Devon, assembled at the Castle of Exeter, with the most genuine Sentiments of Loyalty and dutiful Attachment, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Re-establishment of the King's Health.

The many conspicuous and amiable Virtues, by which your Majesty has ever engaged the Hearts of the British Nation, and which compelled us lately to participate in the Distress of your Royal Mind, excite us now to take an affectionate and ardent Interest in the Restoration of your Peace.

Permit us, Madam, to add our unfeigned Prayer, that your Majesties may long be blest in the Society of each other, and in the Enjoyment of every Felicity, exemplifying to your Royal Progeny, and to your People, such an illustrious Union of Virtue and Happiness on the Throne, as being the Delight and Glory of the present Age, may extend its most auspicious Influence to succeeding Generations.

By Desire of the Meeting,

Tho. Dyke Ackland, Chairman, on the Part of the Sheriff.

Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, humbly to offer our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the happy Recovery of our most Gracious Sovereign, so ardently wished for, and so peculiarly interesting to all His Majesty's Subjects.
Impressed with truly sympathetic Affection, and highly revering your Majesty's eminent Virtues, we are unable to express the Anxiety which we felt for your Majesty's melancholy Situation, or our Admiration of your Majesty's Firmness of Mind in the Hour of Affliction. Still less have we Power to describe the Measure of our Joy, and how unfeignedly we participate in the general Felicity on the auspicious Event which confirms to us the Blessings of a just and benevolent Government, and which must afford the most heartfelt Consolation to the best of Queens.

Congratulations on the happy Recovery of your

We were seriously and deeply concerned in the Distress with which your Majesty was affected, during the Indisposition of our most gracious Sovereign; and the Joy we feel on His being restored to you, and to the Wishes of His affectionate and loyal Subjects, is not less sincere than the Respect we entertain for your Majesty's amiable Qualities and exalted Virtues.

May your Majesty long live to be a Blessing to our most gracious Sovereign, and an Example of Piety and Virtue to His People, and to all future Queens of the British Empire.

of the ancient City of Canterbury; most humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on the providential general Felicity, and enjoy that superlative Share of Happiness, to which your Majesty is so justly entitled

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE, the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most unfeigned Congratulations on the Restoration of His Majesty's Health. The Joy we feel on this much-desired Event is greatly increased by reflecting upon the Happiness which your Majesty experiences on the Recovery of our Gracious Sovereign.

We revere your Majesty's great and exalted Virtues; and it will be our constant Prayer that the King may long continue a Blessing to you and to His People.

Henry Tritton, Mayor.

Guildhall, Hythe, April 1, 1789.

[Transmitted by Sir Charles Farnaby Radcliffe, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Town.]

The following Addresses having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Ad-resses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To GEORGE the Third, KING of Great-Britain and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The humble Address of the People called Quakers, of the City of Dublin, on Behalf of themselves and the rest of their Brethren in the Nation of Ireland.

May it please the King,

WE, Thy dutiful and loyal Subjects, having, during Thy late Indisposition, been deeply affected with Sorrow, flowing from Minds full of sincere Affection to Thee, and Sympathy with Thy Royal Consort, our much honoured Queen, and having been engaged in secret Petition to the Almighty for Thy Recovery, beg Leave, beloved Sovereign, with great Sincerity of Heart, thus to mingle with our Fellow Subjects in respectful Congratulations on that happy Event; rejoicing with humble Thankfulness to the Author of all Good, that He hath been graciously pleased to enable Thee to resume Thy Royal Authority, and again to attend to the weighty and important Business of Thy Kingdoms; which mayst Thou long continue to exercise, in that Wisdom which comes from above, which is pure, peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of Mercy and good Fruits; whereby the great Cause of Truth and Righteousness may be happily promoted, and the Suppression of Vice and Immorality attended to, through the different Departments of Thy Government.

We should do Injustice to our own Feelings, and those of our Brethren in the different Parts of this Nation, with whose Unity and Approbation we have presumed thus to approach Thee; should we omit on this joyful Occasion to acknowledge, with the deepest Sensations of Gratitude, the many Obligations we, as a Religious Society, are under to Thee and Thy Illustrious Ancestors, for the many Privileges, both Civil and Religious, we have been favoured to enjoy; and being firmly attached to Thy Royal Person, Family and Government, we hope, by our Perseverance in a dutiful and peaceable Demeanour, to ensure Continuance of Thy Favour and Protection.

That Thy Councils may be directed by Him by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, and Thy Mediation for promoting Peace and Harmony in the Earth be happily blessed with Success; that Thy Reign may be long and prosperous, and Thy End crowned with that Peace which the World can neither give nor take away; and that there may never be wanting a Successor in Thy Royal Lineage, possessed of Thy Virtues, Abilities and Moderation, to sit upon the Throne of the British Realms, is the sincere Desire and Prayer of our Hearts.

Third Month (called March) 29th, 1789.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants at large of the County of Cavan.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants at large of the County of Cavan, beg Leave to pour out to your Majesty our heartfelt Joy upon your Majesty's most ardently implored Recovery, and our Acknowledgements of the Divine Favor, which, in enabling your Majesty to resume the personal Exercise of the Royal Authority, has restored Happiness to your Subjects and Energy to your united Empire.

Permit us, Sire, to assure your Majesty, that our Sense of the innumerable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign so powerfully exceeds all Force of Expression, that it can only be equalled by our unalterable Respect and Attachment to your Majesty, your Family, and Government, ment, and by our incessant Gratitude and Prayers to the Almighty, that our beloved Monarch may long continue to enjoy uninterrupted Health, to reign all powerful in the Hearts of His People.

John Stanford, Sheriff.

Cavan Lent Assizes, 1789.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, convened by public Notice at the King's Old Castle, Cork, the 25th Day of March, 1789.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, beg Leave to offer our most warm and affectionate Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from an Indisposition, deeply lamented by all your Majesty's Subjects throughout your extensive Dominions, and by none more sincerely than by those whom Duty and Affection have now assembled.

Sensible of the numerous Blessings this Nation has derived from the August House of Brunswick, we profess the most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Illustrious Family, and we seize, with the warmest Satisfaction, this joyful Occasion of declaring our Gratitude to your Majesty, under whose auspicious Reign all those Blessings have been peculiarly felt, and invariably enjoyed.

Fully conscious how much we owe to your Majesty's paternal Care, we cannot sufficiently express our Thankfulness to the Omnipotent Being, who has been graciously pleased to receive our Prayers, and restore a beloved Monarch to His faithful and affectionate Subjects.

We conclude this very inadequate Expression of our Joy, with beseeching the same Almighty Power to grant, that your Majesty may long continue blessed with uninterrupted Health and Prosperity, governing an united and happy People.

Signed by Order of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, in County Court-House convened, George Duncombe, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your dutiful and ever loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, humbly offer our Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late severe Indisposition, and beg Leave to express how deeply sensible we are of the ineffimable Value of your Majesty's Life and Health to your faithful People.

The Earnestness and Fervor with which we looked for the happy Times that have now returned, are only to be equalled by the Sincerity with which we pray Almighty God, that your Majesty may long flourish a revered, beloved, Patriot King.

The Worth of a Sovereign so mild, a Parent so provident, and a Friend so true, was never before so fully understood, until He was lost for ever; but it is the peculiar Blessing of your faithful Subjects, that they are awakened to a due Sense of your Majesty's great and endearing Qualities; ere it is too late, and whilst our Country continues to prosper under their benign Influence.

The Afflictions of your Loyal Citizens of Dublin grew the more poignant during your Majesty's late Illness, as we reflected, that nothing but a Care for the Public Weal, too active and incessant, had borne down your Strength, and caused you to faint in the Service of your People.

Return then, Sire, with renovated Vigour of Mind and Body, to attain the glorious Ends to which your auspicious Reign has been directed; live long the Supporter of the Law, the approved Patron and Defender of Civil and Religious Liberty.

Never before did your People experience Anguish occasioned by your Majesty: May this we have tasted be accounted our Share of the bitter Cup; and let the Transit of our good and gracious King from His Throne of Ireland to a Throne eternal, in the Ripeness of Time, and in the Fullness of His Fame, be reserved for the Portion of a future Generation.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed; this 23d Day of March, 1789.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham; Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of Belfast.

WE, the Sovereign, Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Belfast, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most affectionate Congratulations on the happy Restoration of the King to the Prayers and Wishes of His People.

While we deplored the Indisposition of our Gracious Sovereign as a public Calamity, we most sincerely sympathized with the Affliction of His Family, and especially of your Majesty, whose amiable Character has endeared you to the Nation, and whose Conduct has uniformly exhibited on the Throne an Illustrious Pattern of the Virtues of domestic Life.

We beseech your Majesty to be persuaded of the Warmth with which we participate in your Happiness on the joyful Event of the Recovery of the Father of His People. And we trust that this sincere Profession of Respect to your Majesty will be regarded by the King as a new Testimony of our unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to His Person, Family and Government.

Signed at the Request of and in the Name of the Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of Belfast, assembled at the Town House; in Testimony whereof I have caused the Common Seal of the Corporation to be hereunto affixed, this 21st Day of March, 1789.

William Bristow, Sovereign of Belfast.
