Whitehall, April 16.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, beg Leave, at this Time of universal Joy, to approach your Majesty with our most cordial Congratulations upon your Recovery from your late Indisposition.

Your Majesty's firm and invariable Adherence to the Principles of our Constitution has justly endeared your Majesty to every Description of Men in this free and prosperous Nation; and your Majesty's bright Example of Piety and Virtue, and zealous Concern for the Interests of Religion, have in a peculiar Degree impressed the Minds of those, who are by their Profession devoted to the Service of God, with the liveliest Sentiments of Affection and Attachment to your Royal Person.

We feel, in the strongest Manner, the Goodness of God in restoring your Majesty at so important a Moment. We earnestly pray the Almighty that your valuable Life may be long preserved in uninterrupted Health; and that your Majesty may continue to receive from your People the same Testimonies of unshaken and grateful Fidelity which have been displayed upon the late interesting Occasion.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester, beg Leave to express before your Majesty our most unfeigned and heartfelt Joy on the welcome Assurance we have received of your Majesty's perfect Restoration to Health after a long and dangerous Illness: A joy common to all our Fellow-Subjects, but more peculiarly felt by us, who during the Time this Country was honoured with your Royal Presence, were indulged with frequent Opportunities of witnessing many affecting Instances of your Majesty's Condescension and Goodness.

The silent Sorrow and Solitude which appeared in every Countenance, when the first Tidings of your Majesty's Indisposition were made known, are now happily exchanged for the Voice of Exultation and Gratitude. The fervent Prayers of an afflicted Kingdom, which were humbly offered to the Throne of Grace for your Majesty's Recovery, have not been offered to the Throne of Grace in vain. In the natural Expressions of Grief and Gladness, discovered by your Subjects on both Occasions, your Majesty has been furnished with the most unequivocal Testimonies of their Loyalty and Love, and how truly you possess the Hearts of a faithful and affectionate People.

We of the Clergy are particularly bound to return our devoutest Thanks to Divine Providence, which so seasonably interposed for our Deliverance in the needful Time of Trouble; as, besides the general Regard your Majesty is known to entertain for the Interests of true Religion, we have had abundant Experience of your sincere and steady Attachment to the Church of England: That Church, of which, from Principle as well as from Policy, your Majesty hath ever approved yourself the Defender, and to whom it still looks up as its Support and Protector in all Dangers.

With Hearts full of Duty and Affection to your Majesty, we shall not fail to continue our earnest Supplication to the Great Giver of all Good, that your Majesty's Reign may be long distinguished by every Circumstance which may render it a Blessing to yourself and to your Kingdoms; that our most amiable and gracious Queen, whose highest Ambition it is to be known to constitute the domestic Happiness of your Majesty, may, together with your Majesty, meet with every domestic Reward; and that your Subjects, now justly sensible of the Importance of your Life, from the Danger of being deprived of it, may express in their Conduct that dutiful Obedience to your Majesty, that Submission to lawful Authority, and that conscientious Regard to the Precepts of our Holy Religion, which becomes a free and wise and enlightened People.

[Delivered by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop.]

The humble Address of the Bishop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Clergy of the Diocese.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Clergy of the Diocese, with the most dutiful Respect presume to approach your Majesty, and to offer our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

When your Majesty was afflicted, your Kingdoms exhibited one uniform Scene of Sympathy and Sorrow; but the same Providence that rescued your Majesty from the Hand of the Assassin, has been pleased to raise you from the Bed of Sickness, and restore you to the Tears and anxious Wishes of your People. The mournful Scene passed away at a critical Moment, and was succeeded by the sincerest Transports of universal Exultation and Joy. Under the Administration of an all-wise Providence, Good is often derived out of Evil; and your Majesty, through your late severe Visitation, has learned one important Truth, that will ever be a Cordial to your Royal Mind, and give a Lustre to the future Annals of your Reign, that your Dominion is firmly established, where every good Prince is ambitious to establish it, in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects.

And may your Majesty be crowned with Length of Days in the full Enjoyment of the perfect Health which Heaven has restored to you, and continue to your faithful Subjects the Blessings of a just, a mild and auspicious Reign! And may the Heirs to your Crown become Heirs to your Virtues; and be Instruments of conveying the like Blessings to our latest Posterity.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, of the Diocese of Ely.

WITH the most sincere Thankfulness to Heaven for your Majesty's Restoration to Health, and the active Exertion of your Regal Power, we presume to offer the Expressions of our Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Person and Family on so very interesting an Occasion.

Sensible as we have ever been of the many Blessings we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and happy in the full Possession of our Civil and Religious Liberties, it was impossible for us not to sympathize in that universal Affliction and Despondency which, during your Majesty's Illness, sat so heavy on our Spirits, we felt for the personal Safety and Welfare of our justly beloved a Sovereign; we shared in the domestic Distresses of your exemplary and most amiable Consort, our Gracious Queen, and your whole Royal House; nor could even the wise and constitutional Measures that were proposed in Alleviation of the public and national Calamity afford an adequate Consolation.

Our only Refuge on this, as under every other disastrous Event, was to implore the Interposition of that Almighty Being, by whom alone Kings reign, and whose Providential Goodness to us we had so long experienced under the many and increasing Advantages of your Government. It hath pleased God to listen to our Supplications, and, in Mercy to His People, to restore your Majesty to yourself, to your Family, and your Kingdoms, in perfect Health, and in full Possession of those great Endowments which have hitherto and will ever render you our Boast and Praise.

To express our full Sentiments of Joy and Exultation on this happy Occasion is not within our Power: No Events have ever excited the Emotions of our Hearts between Fear and Hope, Dejection and Triumph, as the late Period of our Distress, and the present Moment of our Deliverance.

Accept, therefore, Gracious Sovereign, our unfeigned though imperfect Congratulations, and suffer us to add our Prayers for your long Continuance in uninterrupted Prosperity and Health; that under the Influence of your interesting Virtues all who reap the Benefits of them may be happy, and may know how to value their Felicity.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

May it please your Majesty,

AMIDST the general Joy diffused through the whole Nation on the great and happy Event of the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, may the President and Council, with the rest of the Academicians and Associates of the Royal Academy, be permitted humbly to offer their most sincere Congratulations on this joyful Occasion.

Impressed as we are with a due Sense of the Blessings we enjoy in common with all other Subjects, from the Protection which your Majesty has always been pleased to extend to the Arts in general, and the peculiar Patronage which has been graciously afforded to the Royal Academy in particular, we presume to hope for Pardon for this Intrusion.

The Members of this Academy are truly sensible how much the Prosperity and Advancement of the Arts which they profess are connected with and dependent on the Health and Welfare of their Royal Patron and Protector.

For the long Continuance of your Majesty's Health we offer up our most fervent Prayers, and indulge our Hope that those Arts, which have been so successfully planted under your Majesty's Royal Patronage, may grow and flourish to their full Maturity and Perfection, during a long, happy and glorious Reign.

Signed by the President and all the Academicians.

[Delivered by Sir Joshua Reynolds, President.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt Congratulations, and to express our sincere Joy on your Majesty's Recovery from your late Indisposition.

Were it possible for our Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty to receive any Addition, our Happiness must be heightened by having been Witnesses of that Royal Munificence and boundless Condescension which your Majesty Majesty and your excellent Queen so graciously manifested in your late Visit to this County, which have cleft Impressions upon us too durable to be effaced, too strong to be expressed.

It is our most earnest Prayer that He, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, may preserve your Majesty's Health; that your Government may be happy and prosperous to the latest Period of human Life; and that a long Line of Princes, sprung from your Majesty's Illustrious House, may guard the Interests of your People, and preserve the Constitution which is dear to them, to the latest Ages.

[Delivered by the Hon. Edward Foley and William Lygon, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

We acknowledge, with all possible Thankfulness, the Goodness of Almighty God in graciously attending to the Prayers of an afflicted and loyal People, and in restoring the Health of your Majesty, in Mercy to their Supplications.

We are truly sensible, Sire, of the many and peculiar Blessings which we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild, upright and Constitutional Government; and the universal Grief shewn during your Majesty's Illness, and the general Joy manifested on your Recovery, are ample Testimonials of the Gratitude and Fidelity of your affectionate Subjects, and of the zealous and cordial Attachment of a brave and generous Nation to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

We sincerely hope and earnestly pray the Omnipotent Ruler of the Universe long to continue your Majesty in an uninterrupted State of good Health, and the full Enjoyment of every domestic Felicity, the Guardian of Civil and Religious Liberty, the Patron of Science, and the happy Instrument of preserving and improving the Commerce, Agriculture and general Welfare of an enlightened, free and loyal People.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Restoration to Health; an Event which hath justly manifested the most general and heartfelt Joy throughout your Kingdoms.

Fully sensible of the Importance of a Life, during which all the Blessings of a mild and free Government have been uniformly enjoyed, we cannot but ardently rejoice that the Providence of God has averted a Calamity which threatened the Security of our publick Happiness; and we feel the most cordial Satisfaction in reflecting that the same Event which assures to your Subjects the Stability of their national Welfare, restores to your Majesty, and your amiable and Royal Consort, the Possession of that domestic Felicity to which both your Majesties personal Virtues have given you so distinguished a Title.

Long may your Majesty's public Conduct continue to protect, and your private to adorn, this Country; and may each succeeding Day convince your Majesty of the Loyalty and Affection which your People entertain for your Royal Person, Consort and Family.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Moderator and Remanent Members of the Presbytery of Wigton.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, having always felt the greatest Regard for your Majesty's Character, as a Man and a Christian, as an Husband, a Father and Sovereign, humbly bly presume to approach your Royal Person with heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late happy Recovery. We have the greatest Pleasure in thinking that, by the Blessing of God on the Endeavours of your Majesty's Ministers, Things were so wisely conducted during your Majesty's Indisposition.

In your Majesty's Reign every Member of Civil Society has enjoyed the most perfect Protection; and Christians of all Denominations have dwelt in Safety. While the two Sister Establishments have experienced your Majesty's Care and Benevolence as their Nursing Father, Dissenters have enjoyed the Benefits of an equal Toleration.

That your Majesty may live long to be an Example of Piety and Virtue, to bless and protect the Churches, to enjoy the Pleasures of Religion here in the highest Degree; and after having adorned the Throne of your Ancestors, and given additional Lustre to an earthly Crown, may your Majesty receive a Crown of Glory that fadeth not away. That God may establish the House of your Majesty for ever before Him, so that your Royal Progeny may reign over a free, happy, grateful and loyal People, to the latest Ages, are the sincere and earnest Prayers of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects,

That your Majesty may continue to enjoy uninterrupted Health, together with every Blessing which may either constitute the Felicity of domestic Life, or establish on a firm Foundation the Tranquillity and Happiness of your Dominions; and that after a long and illustrious Reign you may receive a late Translation from an earthly to an heavenly Crown, is the ardent, affectionate and unceasing Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted Servants and Subjects.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Queen,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the Recovery of our Most Excellent Sovereign from His late Indisposition; and we thank God that the Gloom, which so lately overshadowed the Whole of His Majesty's Dominions, is happily dispelled by the Restoration of His Majesty's Health; a Health we cannot too highly prize! A Monarch we cannot too much revere!

When we felt, as a loyal People, for His Majesty's Affliction, we felt also for those Cares which must have oppressed your Royal Bosom, and looked up with Admiration on the Fortitude with which your Majesty, so situated, supported the Duties of a Wife, and Dignity of a Queen.

We most ardently pray that your Majesty may long experience an uninterrupted State of Felicity, as well in the full Enjoyment of every domestic Happiness, as in the Consciousness of deserving and possessing the sincere Regard and most dutiful Attachment of all His Majesty's faithful Subjects.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Welbore Ellis, John Purling, Esq; and Francis Stuart, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, in Council assembled, with the most sincere Respect beg Leave to present to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on the happy Re-establishment of the Health of your Royal Consort, our most gracious Sovereign, which we consider to be of the utmost Importance to the domestic Happiness of your Majesty and your Royal Family, and a Blessing to all His Majesty's faithful Subjects, who sincerely sympathized with your Majesty in your late Affliction.

We want Words to express our Gratitude and Thankfulness to your Majesty for your ready Acquiescence with the Wishes of both Houses of Parliament in consenting to accept the important Charge, which in their Wisdom, and with the universal Approbation of their Country, they judged too sacred and of too much Consequence to the Happiness of your Majesty, and the Well-being of these Kingdoms, to be committed to any other Hands than those of your Majesty.

Your Majesty's amiable Conduct on this and every other Occasion cannot fail of endearing you to the Inhabitants of these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, this 6th Day of April, 1789.

[Transmitted by Richard Hopkins and Edmund Bassard, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

A Retrospect to the late severe Malady with which it had pleased the Divine Providence to afflict the King, brings to our Recollection the heart-rending Anxieties with which your Majesty's Mind must have then been oppressed, as well as the Transports of Joy which must now succeed them by His Majesty's happy Recovery:

We, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Principal Burgesses, Assistants, Clergy, Freeholders, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon, with Hearts overflowing with Gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of all Things for the Restoration of His Majesty's Health, most sincerely and affectionately congratulate your Majesty on that joyful Event; an Event full of Blessing to this Nation. May all His Majesty's Subjects strive who shall be most zealous in lessening the Burthens of Royalty, and rendering the future Part of His Majesty's Reign so tranquil and glorious as His Royal Situation will admit of; and may every public and private Blessing attend your Majesty's whole House to the End of Time.

[Transmitted by Humphry Minchin, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY it please your Majesty to condescend to accept the sincere and heartfelt Congratulations of us the Inhabitants of the Borough of Gosport, on the Restoration of our much loved Sovereign to the Blessing of His former Health. Pardon us, Madam, if at the same Time we presume to offer to your Majesty our humble Tribute of Applause and Admiration of those amiable Virtues, which for so many Years have uniformly actuated your Conduct in the several Capacities of a Consort, a Parent, and a Queen. These have shone forth peculiarly conspicuous through the gloomy Cloud of the late Calamity, and have thereby received a new Brilliancy in Addition to their former Lustre. That your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the Fruits of these Virtues, unembittered by any unseen Affliction or Anxiety; and that, after holding forth to your Subjects for many succeeding Years the same illustrious Example of every domestic Virtue, you may at length receive an everlasting and inestimable Reward, is the ardent, affectionate and unceasing Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted Servants and Subjects.

Dated at Gosport, in the County of Southampton, the 7th Day of April, 1789.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, Capital, Inferior Burgesses, and others, Inhabitants of the Royal Borough of Axbridge, in the County of Somerset, take this joyful Occasion of blending our Duty and Happiness in felicitating your Majesty on the Restoration of the Health of our most gracious, most beloved Sovereign. So sensible are we of the Goodness of Providence in this most signal Mark of His Bounty to us, that nothing but those Sentiments necessarily arising in a female Breast, under such tender der Attachments, so exquisitely refined as your Majesty's, can surpass ours in Joy and Gratitude.

Long may your Majesty enjoy the great Blessing restored, and continue to live the Delight and Pattern of the Age.
