

Majesty and your excellent Queen so graciously manifested in your late Visit to this County, which have cleft Impressions upon us too durable to be effaced; too strong to be expressed.

It is our most earnest Prayer that He, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, may preserve your Majesty's Health; that your Government may be happy and prosperous to the latest Period of human Life; and that a long Line of Princes, sprung from your Majesty's Illustrious House, may guard the Interests of your People, and preserve the Constitution which is dear to them, to the latest Ages.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Commonalty of the County of Denbigh, assembled by public Advertisement at Wrexham, on Monday the 6th Day of April, 1789.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Commonalty of the County of Denbigh, beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our sincere and joyful Congratulations on your Majesty's perfect Recovery from your late unhappy Indisposition; and upon your being again enabled to exercise personally your Royal Prerogatives; and that you have found them undiminished.

We acknowledge, with all possible Thankfulness, the Goodness of Almighty God in graciously attending to the Prayers of an afflicted and loyal People, and in restoring the Health of your Majesty, in Mercy to their Supplications.

We are truly sensible, Sire, of the many and peculiar Blessings which we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild, upright and Constitutional Government; and the universal Grief shewn during your Majesty's Illness, and the general Joy manifested on your Recovery, are ample Testimonials of the Gratitude and Fidelity of your affectionate Subjects, and of the zealous and cordial Attachment of a brave and generous Nation to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

We sincerely hope and earnestly pray the Omnipotent Ruler of the Universe long to continue your Majesty in an uninterrupted State of good Health, and the full Enjoyment of every domestic Felicity, the Guardian of Civil and Religious Liberty, the Patron of Science, and the happy Instrument of preserving and improving the Commerce, Agriculture and general Welfare of an enlightened, free and loyal People.

By Appointment of the Meeting,

[ Transmitted by Sir Watkins William Wynne, Bart. Representative in Parliament for that County. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, assembled by public Advertisement at Cockermouth, on Monday the 6th Day of April, 1789.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late severe Indisposition.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that we join, in the fullest Manner, in those Sentiments of Joy and Exultation which this happy Event has diffused through every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, and that it is the earnest Wish of our Hearts that your Majesty may long continue, by the Blessing of Providence, to rule over a free, affectionate and grateful People.

Signed by Order of the Meeting unanimously,
John Christian, Chairman.

[ Delivered by Sir Frederick Vane, Bart. Sheriff, accompanied by Sir James Graham, Bart. and Rowland Stephenson, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Carlisle. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, assembled at the Assizes held at Beaumaris the 9th Day of April, 1789.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Restoration to Health; an Event which hath justly manifested the most general and heartfelt Joy throughout your Kingdoms.

Fully sensible of the Importance of a Life; during which all the Blessings of a mild and free Government have been uniformly enjoyed, we cannot but ardently rejoice that the Providence of God has averted a Calamity which threatened the Security of our publick Happiness; and we feel the most cordial Satisfaction in reflecting that the same Event which assures to your Subjects the Stability of their national Welfare, restores to your Majesty, and your amiable and Royal Consort, the Possession of that domestic Felicity to which both your Majesties personal Virtues have given you so distinguished a Title.

Long may your Majesty's public Conduct continue to protect, and your private to adorn, this Country; and may each succeeding Day convince your Majesty of the Loyalty and Affection which your People entertain for your Royal Person, Consort and Family.

Signed (by Order of the Meeting)
Henry Prichard, Sheriff.

[ Delivered by the Earl of Uxbridge, Lord Lieutenant, and Nicholas Bayly, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Aberdeen.

INSPIRED with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and under the deepest Impressions of Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Things, we beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Recovery; an Event so auspicious to these Kingdoms, and interesting to every good Subject.

That your Majesty may long reign prosperously over a free, happy, loyal and grateful People; and that the Sceptre of these Kingdoms may be transmitted through your Majesty's Royal Progeny to the latest Ages, is our most ardent Wish.
