Whitehall, April 18.

The following Address of the Council and In-habitants of the Islands of Scilly has been prefented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Governor of the faid Iflands : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Most Sacred MAJESTY.

WE, your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Sub-jects, the Council and Inhabitants of the Islands of Scilly, beg Leave with all Humility to offer to your Majefty our most hearty Congratula-tions that it hath pleafed God Almighty to reftore your Majefty to Health. We acknowledge, with all possible Gratitude to Heaven, this Bleffing conferred upon us, and most

Heaven, this Bleffing conferred upon us, and most earneftly pray for a long Continuance of it. Signed by the Prefident of the Council at the unanimous Requeft of the Inhabitants of all the Islands, this 8th Day of April, 1789. John Medbury, Prefident of the Council of the Islands of Scilly.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majefly's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him prefented to the King: Which Addreffes His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majefly.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Chester, the Dean and Chap-ter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocefe; humbly beg Per-miffion to join in the Felicitations of your People, declared as with one Voice on the happy Re-eftablishment of your Majefty's Health. It might well be expected that a Nation duly fongble of the Virtues the naternal Case and fenfible of the Virtues, the paternal Care, and the unremitted Attention of their Sovereign to the Welfare and Profperity of His Kingdoms, should render to Him the most grateful Returns of Duty and Affection.

[Price Ten-pence Halfpenny.]

To what Extent He reigned in their Hearts could not have been certainly and fully known but by the late universal Dejection and Anxiety of your Subjects during the Pressure of your Majesty's Indifposition, and by their prefent Joy and Exultation on feeing their beloved Monarch reftored to them. We hope; that while your People offer up their Thankfgivings to the Throne of Grace for this fignal Interpolition of Divine Providence in their Favor, accompanied by their earnest Supplications for the long Continuance of your Majesty's Health and Welfare, and of your mild and provident Reign over them, after your Majesty's illustrious Example, by their Lives to render their Prayers effectual. We, as our Characters and the Charge which we have undertaken require at our Hands, will not fail to inculcate upon their Minds the joint Duties of fearing God, and honouring the King.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bifhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Chancellor, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocefe of Salifbury, approach your Royal Perfon with Hearts full of the most fervent Gratitude to the God of Mercies, who, in reftoring your Majesty to Health, has restored Comfort to an afflicted Queen, Happiness to an affectionate People, Energy to Government, and Countenance to Religion.

May that Gracious Being, by whom Kings reign and Kingdoms profper, long, very long, con-tinue your Majefty the happy Infirument of fecuring the ineftimable Bleffings of Religion and Civil Liberty to Subjects who feel and acknowledge the Advantages they derive from the Vir-tues of a Sovereign whom they revere and love!

And may these Bleffings, the best Gift of Heaven to a Nation, be transmitted undiminished to our latest Posterity, under a Succession of Princes defcended from your Majesty, who, forming them-felves on your Illustrious Example, may never forget that their own Happiness can be promoted only by fludying to promote that of their People!

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

A Very dutiful and loyal Addrefs, in the German Language, has also been prefented from the Ministers and Congregations of the German and Dutch Chapels at St. James's, and of the German Reformed Congregation in the Savoy, having been delivered by the Reverend Mr. Schrader and the Reverend Mr. Rohrs, of the German Chapel, and the Reverend Doctor Woide, of the Dutch Chapel.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kincardine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commiffioners of Supply of the County of Kincardine, with the most fincere and unfeigned Sentiments. of Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to congratulate your Majefty on the complete Recovery of your Health, and on your Refumption of the Reins of Government.

Deeply impressed as our Hearts are with the trueft Feelings of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government. The late Indis-position of your Majesty, and the Interruption of the Perfonal Exercise of your Authority, could not but fill our Minds with Sentiments of the most poignant Sorrow and Regret. We now feel a proportionate Degree of Exultation, mixed with humble and fincere Gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of all Events, for His Goodness in having restored our beloved Monarch to the earnest Prayers of His affectionate Subje&s.

Our most ardent Wish is, that your Majesty, in the full Enjoyment of Health and of every earthly Felicity, may long continue to reign over a loyal, a flourishing, and a happy People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Shoreham, this 8th Day of April, 1789.

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majefly,

The humble Address.of.the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Ifle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Isle of Wight, inspired by the warmest Zeal and Affection, beg Leave to prefent our Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Restoration to Health, and the Exercife of your Royal Dignity.

We cannot attempt to defcribe the Exultation we feel on fo great an Occasion, so confolatory to your Royal House, so important to the Welfare of Millions, and fo defervedly the Subject of adoring Gratitude.

Our Prayers have been heard, and our Joy is complete, unmingled with any Motives unworthy of fuch pious and benevolent Affections.

Our most fervent Prayers will be continued for the Permanence of your Majefty's Health to a good old Age, adorned by paternal Care of a grateful People, and diffufing the most benign In-fluence to an admiring and benefited World.

[Delivered by John Barrington and Mark Gregory, Efgrs. Reprefentatives in Parliament for New-town, and the Honourable John Thomas Townschend, Rtpresentative in Parliament for Newport.]

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majefty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Chief Burgeffes and Freemen of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Ifle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PArticipating in the General Happiness felt by all your Majesty's faithful Subjects on the most happy Recovery of your Majesty from your late Indisposition, we, your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Chief Burgesses and Freemen of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Isle of Wight, heg Leave to approach your Royal Prefence with our most fincere Congratulations, and to join the universal Prayers of all our Fellow-Subjects to the Almighty Power, that your Majefty may long continue to enjoy the Bleffing of Health, and to reign over a free and grateful People, truly fenfible of the National Benefits derived to them from your Majefty's paternal Regard to the Welfare of your Subjects. Given under our Common Seal, the 8th Day of April, in the 29th Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Delivered by Jervoise Clarke Jervoise, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Southampton.]

May it please your Most Gracious Majesty, WE, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the ancient Corporation of Campden, in the County of Majelty with our most erdent and unfeigned Cons gratulations on the happy Reftoration to your former Health. It hath not, indeed, been our Cultom, on the fuccefsful Events of other Times, to mingle our Addreffes with those of more splendid Corporations and more opulent Towns, but the prefent Occasion is of fuch infinite Importance in our Sight, that though, perhaps, we may appear ridiculous in our Infignificancy in the Eye of Pride, yet we fhall more willingly incur the Cen-fure of being forward and impertunent than difaffectionate and difloyal. However, therefore, we may yield to other Corporations in Magnificence and Rank, yet we shall yield to none either in the pureft and most difinterested Motives, or the fullest and most heartfelt Satisfaction on the present joyful Event; and as we are taught that Heaven equally regards the earnest and fincere Prayers both of the Rich and Poor, ours, we truft, will be equally effectual in bringing down its most eminent and fignal Bleffings both on your Royal Perfon and your Posterity. But it may become us to lessen fo much of cur Boast of pure Disinterestedness as not to grant that we have fome Relation in thefe Prayers to ourfelves, fince we are most firmly perfuaded, that our own Happinels is intimately connected with that of your Majefty, and that the Liberties of Great Britain will for ever be coeval with the mild Domination of the Houfe of Brunfwick.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Gainsborough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the Hundred of Wirksworth, in the County of Derby.

NE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, ever actuated with a lively Senfe of your Majefty's gracious Attention to our Welfare, beg Leave to approach you with Hearts fraught with Gratitude to Divine Providence for having vouchfafed to us your

With Minds impreffed by the Bleffings we parti-Rights, which, whilft they support the national Affluence and Prosperity, fecure our private Privileges and Comfort; we most ardently wish you a Continuance of Health and domestic Happiness ; and that you may long live to posses the Hearts and Affec-tions of a flourishing, free and loyal People.

[Delivered by Sir William Fitz Herbert, Bart. and Philip Gell, Efq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Blackburn, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Blackburn, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, being justly fensible of the Blef-fings of Civil and Religious Liberty, which we have many Years enjoyed under your Majefty's wife, paternal and aufpicious Government, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perfon, and pour out those Sentiments of heartfelt Joy with which your Majesty's most happy Recovery has filled and animated our Breafts.

May the Supreme Disposer of all Events, to whom we offer the Tribute of Praife and Gratitude for this fignal Inflance of His Favour, long, very long, pre-ferve in Health, Honour and Dignity your Majefty's Glocester, humbly beg Leave to approach your | most Sacred Life ; may He bless it with the Enjoymenó ment of every Comfort and Satisfaction in the Society of your Royal and most amiable Confort and Progeny, and with every Felicity that can be derived from the Duty and Attachment of a loyal, free and happy People.

[Delivered by Richard Cardwell, E/q; of Blackburn; Thomas Stanley and John Blackburn, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaster.]

To the KIN G's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Free Bur-gesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall, with heartfelt Joy and Satisfaction humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majefty on your happy Recovery from a late alarming Indifpofition.

That your Majefty may long enjoy a perfect State of Health, and long continue to difpenfe your usual Bleffings of Peace, Happiness and Profperity through all the British Dominions, is the fervent Prayer and sincere Wish of your Majesty's most loyal, dutiful and obedient Subjects.

[Delivered by James Macpherson, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign, WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgeffes and Free Burgeffes of the Borough of Malmf-bury, with grateful Thanks to the Almighty for His ineftimable Goodness in restoring to Health our Royal Sovereign from the late fevere Indifpofition, beg Leave, as a Testimony of our Zeal, Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty and your Royal Confort, to tender you our fincere Congratulations upon this joyful Occasion.

Senfible of the Happiness we have enjoyed under your mild and just Government, we shall ever invoke with our fervent Prayers the Divine Providence, that He may pour down in Abundance His Bleffings upon your Majesties, and be your Guide through a long, prosperous and glorious Reign, over a free and loyal People.

Signed by the Alderman, High Steward and Capital Burgesses, and sealed with the Seal of our Borough.

[Delivered by Edmund Wilkins, E/q; High Steward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital and Free Burgeffes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Lifkeard, presume to approach the Throne with our most fincere Congratulations on the Re-establishment of your Majefty's Health.

We feel, in common with the reft of your loyal Majefty's Subjects, the Benefits which must refult from the Government of a King juftly diftin-guithed for every public and private Virtue, whofe mild and legal Exercise of Authority, and unwearied Attention to the Prosperity and Interest of His Subjects, has endeared Him to the Hearts of a free and happy People. May your Majefly's Reign be long and prof-perous; and may you know no Interruption of public or domettic Happiness.

E. Hobling, Mayor.

[Delivered by Right Honourable Lord Eliot, accompanied by the Honourable Edward James Eliot and the Honourable John Eliot, Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majelty.

Most Gracious Sovereigu, THAT it has pleased Almighty God, out of His abundant Grace and Goodnels, to effect fo fpeedy and perfect a Recovery of your Majefty's Health, is such a remarkable Instance of His interpofing Providence in Favour of His afflicted People, as is without Example in the Annals of our own, or the Hiftory of any other Nation.

Impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude for this fignal Proof of His Divine Love and Condescenfion, we, the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Alhburton, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most fincere and heartfelt Congratulations on this happy, important and ever memorable Event.

Fully fensible of the ineffimable Value of the great and numerous Benefits we enjoy under your mild and aufpicious Administration, (evinced by the prosperous State of all your Majesty's Dominions, and by the Extension of our Commerce throughout the Face of the whole Earth) we cannot fufficiently express the Ardour of our Feelings, when it was announced by Authority that your Majesty had refumed the perfonal Exercise of your Regal Government; and we most fervently pray, that it may please Divine Providence to vouchsafe to the happy People of this Realm, the long, long Continuance of this ineftimable Bleffing.

We cannot conclude without offering up our Praises and Thanksgivings to the Almighty, who has been graciously pleased in the Plentitude of His Mercy and Benificence, to reftore to the Royal Breaft of your most amiable Confort our most Gracious Queen and your Royal Progeny that Se-renity and Peace of Mind, of which, by the late and fevere Indifpolition of your Majesty, they have been fo long bereft.

May the Great Difpofer of all Events, who has fo peculiarly preferved your most Sacred Majesty, stifl continue to favour you with His fatherly Protection, blefs you with the full Possession of the most perfect Health, Peace and Happiness here, and finally bring you to the everlassing Joys of Heaven hereafter.

To the KIN G's Most Excellent Majefty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in the County of York.

BE pleased, most Gracious Sovereign, amidst the D general Joy which your happy Recovery has diffused through every Part of your Realm, to accept the humble Congratulations of your faithful Subjects the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Ma-nufacturers and others of the Town and Neighbourhoed of Bradford, in. Yorkshire: We have been too long sensible of the beneficial Effects of your mild and parental Government, not to become Partakers in the univerfal Gloom which overspread the Land upon your late Indisposition, and the temporary Sufpension of the Regal Au-thority; and be assured, great and good Sire, that though we may be amongit the laft in expressing our joy, yet we are not behind the foremost of your loyal Subjects in the Sincerity of our Address to your Majelty upon the happy Change which has taken Place in Confequence of your perfect Re-covery, and Re affumption of the Reins of Government. May we be as fincere in our grateful Acknowledgments to that Supreme Beiog who rules over All, and by whom, Kings reign, for the visible laterpolition of His Providence, on an Oc-casion fo awful, and at a Crifis fo very intercling and important to the Peace, Welfare and Happi nels of these Kingdoms, that so He may be pleased long to continue to us those invaluable Bleffings which He has again passed Rettoration of our King. To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimcus Address of the Warden, Affistants, High Steward, Town-Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town of Louth, in the County of Lincoln, in Common Hall affembled.

A MIDST those universal Demonstrations of Joy upon your Majetty's late providential Recovery, by which the Love of your People, the trueft Glory of a Monarch. has been fo amply difplayed, we, the Warden, Affistants, High Steward, Town-Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town of Louth, equally participating the Benefits of your Ma-jeily's mild and equirable Government, and equally interested in your Majesty's Welfare, and that of your August Family, feel ourselves too sensibly affected with the auspicious Event, and too powerfully impressed with a grateful Sense of the Divine Goodnels to remain filent.

Accept then, most gracious Sovereign, this our humble fribute of the fincerell Congratulation and warmest Affection, who, in true Loyalty and seady Attachment, are not inferior to any of your faith-ful Subjects, whole earneft Wilh and conflant Prayer is, that your Majefty, your Royal Confort and Illuftrious Defcendants may long live in Health, Profperity and Peace; still diffusing the Blessings of our excellent Constitution amongst a free, united, and happy People.

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majefly,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Irvine. Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majefty's moft dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Trvine, this Day met, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perfon with our fincere Congratulations on your happy Recovery.

While we beheld with Regret the Interruption which was given to your Majefty's Health by your late Indifpolition, and the Affliction thereby occasioned to your Royal Confort and Family, we were not un-mindful of our Duty in the Day of Diffrefs. Remote from the Spirit of Faction as we are from the Objects that influence it, we were earnest in our Prayers to Almighty God, that you might foon be able to relume the Reins of Government, and do in Person what your Majefty's best Representative would have done with Reluctance; and it is with the warmest Gratitude and the devoutest Praife that we acknowledge the Divine Goodness in this Respect. Sensible of the Importance of this Bleffing, and of the many Advantages we enjoy under your Majefty's mild and equitable Reign, it is our Study, as it has always been, to cherifh in ourfelves, and in those under our Charge, that Deference, Attachment and Duty which are due to the beft of Sovereigns from a free and happy People. That your Reign over these Kingdoms may be long and profperous, and terminate at laft in the Poffeffion of a Kingdom that cannot be moved, is the Object of our Wifnes and the Subject of our Prayers.

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majefly,

The congratulatory Address of the Royal Society of Muficians on the happy Reftoration of His Majetty's Health.

May it please your Majesty, MPRESSED with the deepest Sense of Gra-I titude to the Almighty, and with the most heartfelt Joy for the happy Re-establishment of your Majeity's Health, we most humbly venture to join in the general Chorus of Congratulation.

The peculiar Honour with which your Majesty has molt gracioully deigned to dignify our Society and the Science we profess, has conferred on both an Importance which encourages us to hope that the Liberty we now take of begging Permission to lay at your Majelty's Feet this Testimony of our Duty and Veneration will not be confirued into Prefumption.

That your Majesty may long enjoy a Blessing for providentially reftored, not only as the Meed of your many Christian and Princely Virtues, but as a Gift fo effential to the Prosperity of these Realms and the Happinels of a grateful People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majetty's most dutiful Subjects. and Servants.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's Servants, the Comedians of the Theatre Royal in Drury-lane, attached by the firmeft Affection and Loyalty to your Majefty's Sacred Perfon and Crown, and deeply fenfible of the many Benefits derived to our Ait from your Majesty's gracious Favor, humbly entreat Permission to affure your Majesty, that we most cordially unite with our Fellow-Subjects in rejoicing at the Re-effablishment of your Majesty's invaluable Health, and in praying to Almighty God, that it may please His infinite Goodness long, very long, to continue to a happy Pcople the Bleffings of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty. SIRE!

A MIDST the universal Testimonies of Joy which your Majesty receives on the happy Æra of your Refloration to Health and the Go-vernment of your Kingdoms, permit, Gracious Sire, the Debtors confined in the King's Bench Prison to join their loyal and fincere Congratulations for your Majesty's happy Recovery and, with Sentiments of Gratitude to an all-wife Providence, offer up their Thanfgivings for again blef-fing the Nation with your Sovereignty; and most fervently pray to the Almighty, that your Majefly may long continue to reign the beloved Prince of a faithful and affectionate People. And wo fupplicate Permission to assure your Majesty, that though we are unfortunately within the Confines of a Prison, and not immediately in active Life, and the Service of our Country, yet we are equally alive to those Feelings of Extacy and triumphant Satisfaction which naturally pervade the Bosom of every British Subject on this ever-glorious Event; and are not less fensible of the Benignity of that Divine Being who with an heavenly Care hath watched your Majefty in your Bed of Sicknefs, and gladdened gladened the Hearts of your People by His bleffed 1 Interpolition.

And here, Royal Sire, permit us to hope that your Majefly, from that Virtue and Humanity which inhabits your Breafl, may (at the Time that you are gracioully pleafed to accept these Effu-fions of our enlivened Hearts) seel a Glow of Sympathy and Compafiion for the deplorable Situation of Thousands of your Subjects, now lingering in Obedience to the Laws of their Country, beholding their Wives and Children as Partners of their Milery, without the Means to foothe their Diftrefs, or wipe the Tear from the Check of the Innocent and Unoffending: And may the Feelings of your Royal Bofom and hu-mane Heart fpeak those Sufferings which we can-not defcribe; and infpire your Majesty to be the happy Instrument of our Enlargement, that we may again enjoy the Bleffings of Liberty, and, by the Exertion of virtuous and honeft Principles, prove to the World the Purity of our Intentions, and become useful Members of Society

We finally offer up our Prayers to Providence, that your Majefty's Dominions may long continue to feel the Advantages of being governed by a vir-tuous and brave Prince; your Reign be uninterrupted by our Enemies; and when you leave this transitory State, may you meet the Prefence of your Saviour rich in Years and good Works. Thefe are the heartfelt Dictates of your Majesty's most unfortunate Subjects confined in the Prifon of your Majefty's Bench.

[Delivered by Paul Le Mesurier, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of, Southwark.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Debtors confined in Ludgate Prifon, in the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign, WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and VV affectionate Subjects, Freemen and Citizens of your Majefly's City of London, who, from our Piofessions as Artificers and Manufacturers, have met with unforeseen Accidents, and great. Loffes in Trade, which has unavoidably compelled us to our present unfortunate Situation of being confined for Debt in the Prison of Ludgate.

Notwithstanding our Calamities, it is with the most humble Submission of Duty and Loyalty to our. Sovereign, that we prefume to beg Leave to participate in the general Joy which now reigns to predominant throughout your Majesty's King-doms, on Account of your Majesty's perfect and happy Recovery from the fevere Indifpolition which your Majelly has been afflicted with; but by the kind Interference of Divine Providence it has enabled the best of Husbands to return to His Royal Confort; the most tender and indulgent Parent to His amiable Offspring; and the best of Kings to His happy People.

We beg Leave further to add, that on Account of fuch happy Recovery, it greatly alleviates the the Distresses of our Situation, by being fensible of our once more experiencing Life under your Majesty's mild and aufpicious Government; and aided by the wife and judicious Councils of your Majetty's prefent Ministers, will no doubt, we most humbly conceive, continue to prove an Ornament to your Majelly's Crown; to ftrengthen and enrich your Majesty's Dominions; to reduce the assumed Confequence of our Enemies; and claim a Superiority over all other Nations.

May your Majeity's Health be permanent, and Gracious Queen, and all the Royal Family, enjoy. an uninterrupted State of Happinels, and live to govern a free, grateful and moit happy People, is the fincere Wifnes and Prayers of your Majefty's most dutiful, most affectionate, and most loyal Subjects.

[Delivered by Mr. R. F. Pitt.]

The following Addreffes having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailefbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold, have been by him prefented to the Queen : Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very gracioully.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, the Bithop of Chefter, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocefe, humbly beg Leave to offer our fincerest Congratulations to your Majesty on the Recovery of our beloved Sovereign from His late. fevere Indisposition; an Indisposition which, however. unfortunate in other Respects, hath taught us fully to value and acknowledge those Bleffings which we enjoy under His mild, just and parental Government.

The Affliction which your Majelly endured throughout that melancholy Period added to our Sorrows at that Time, and the Satisfaction which your Majefly mult experience on His Reftoration to Health greatly enlarges our Joy on this happy Event. That your Majefty and your Royal Confort may long live to be a Bleffing to each other, and an Ex-ample of Virtue to His people, is our fervent and constant Prayer.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

MADAM.

A Midit that universal Joy which pervades even the remotelt Corner of these Realms on the Recovery from a long and alarming Illness of a King endeared to us by eve y Tie, we, the Bisshop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Chancellor, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diccefe of Salifbury, beg Leave to teffify to your Majefty the Share we take in an Event which, while it affects us as Subjects of one of the best of Princes, must more nearly touch your Majefty's Heart, which has been to deeply wounded by the dangerous Situation of one of the best of Hulbands.

Amiable and dignified as we had hitherto feen your Majefty in the uniform Discharge of every public every private Duty which Profperity demands, you have appeared to an admiring World, ftill more amiable, if pofible, during a Period of the moft ago-nizing Diffrefs, by which the Virtues of a Queen, a Mother, a Wife, and a Christian, could be tried. To fuch a Conflict nothing could have rendered your Majefty equal, but the Senfe of Religion which conflitutes so distinguished a Part of your Character; nothing but the firmest Trust in that Being who sometimes chafteneth whom he loveth ; who bringeth Good out of Evil; and who rewardeth Submiffion to His Will by renewed and additional Bleffings.
