

proach your Throne with the most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery, and to express our unfeigned Joy that you are again enabled to exercise in Person your Royal Authority.

With the profoundest Gratitude we adore the Mercy of Almighty God, who hath restored your Majesty to the ardent Prayers of your faithful Subjects.

May His Gracious Providence long continue the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and benevolent Government to a grateful and united People.

Will. Elliott, Sheriff.

[Delivered by William Elliott, Esq; Sheriff.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Carmarthen, assembled at the Great Sessions, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Majesty, impressed with the liveliest Sense of Joy upon the Recovery of your Majesty from your late severe Indisposition.

We acknowledge with Thankfulness the Goodness of Divine Providence in restoring to us our most beloved Sovereign, and in continuing and confirming to His Subject, the Blessings of His mild, just and happy Government; and most fervently pray, that it may please the Almighty to prolong to this Nation that Happiness and Glory which has peculiarly distinguished your Majesty's Reign.

[Delivered by Sir William Mansfell, Bart. Representative in Parliament for that County.]

Most Gracious Sovereign

WE, your Majesty's ever loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Grand Jury, Burgesses, Commonalty and Inhabitants of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, assembled, humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our most sincere and dutiful Congratulations on your Recovery from your late severe Indisposition; and to assure your Majesty, that every Addition to your Happiness must give the most pleasing Satisfaction to all your Subjects, who have so long enjoyed the Blessings of your mild and equitable Government.

We cheerfully embrace this Opportunity of testifying our Joy, and laying these our Congratulations, with all Humility, at the Foot of your Throne.

Carmarthen, April 4, 1789.

[Delivered by John George Phillips, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that Borough.]

La très humble Adresse présentée au Roi par les Pasteurs, Anciens et Diacres des Eglises Hollandoise et Françoise de Londres.

S I R E,

PERMETTEZ à vos très humbles et très fideles Sujets, les Pasteurs, Anciens et Diacres des Eglises Hollandoise et Françoise de Londres d'apporter aux Pieds de votre Trône l'Expression de l'ardente Reconnoissance dont leurs Cœurs sont pénétrés envers le Souverain Arbitre des Evénements, pour l'heureux Rétablissement de votre Majesté.

La Vivacité de notre Joye dans cette Occasion ne peut être comparée qu'à celle de la Douleur dont nous avons été navrés, tant qu'aduré le Danger qui menaçoit des Jours aussi précieux à l'Etat et à l'Eglise que les vôtres.

Tels sont, Sire, les Sentiments que nous partageons avec toute la Nation, et sur le sincere Hommage desquels nous osons espérer que vous ne déaignerez pas de jeter le même Regard propice, dont nous supplions le Roi des Rois d'accueillir les ferventes Prières que nous lui adressons pour la constante Prospérité de votre Personne Sacrée, dont nous continuons à implorer la Protection pour la Reine votre Auguste Epouse, et pour toute votre Famille Royale.

Nos Voeux à tous ces Egards sont l'Echo fidele et respectueux des Acclamations dont retentit tout un Royaume, qui célèbre, en ce Temps, dans le Retour de votre Santé, celui de la Félicité publique; de tout un Royaume que vous avez accoutumé, par la Douceur de votre Gouvernemnt, à croire son Bonheur attaché à la Prolongation d'une Carriere chérie, dont ses Souhais ne cesseront de reculer le Terme, et qu'ils voudroient même, dans le Ferveur qui les anime pouvoir rendre immortelle sur le Trône, comme le Souvenir des Vertus dont vous le décorez le fera dans l'Histoire.

[Delivered by the Reverend Lewis Mercier, Minister of the French Church; Doctor Schwiers, Minister of the Dutch; J. R. Battier, Esq; Elder of the French; and J. L. Vanden Enden, Esq; Deacon of the Dutch.]

A Very dutiful and loyal Address, in the German Language, has also been presented from the Ministers and Congregations of the German and Dutch Chapels at St. James's, and of the German Reformed Congregation in the Savoy, having been delivered by the Reverend Mr. Schrader and the Reverend Mr. Rohrs, of the German Chapel, and the Reverend Doctor Woidé, of the Dutch Chapel.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kincardine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kincardine, with the most sincere and unfeigned Sentiments, of Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to congratulate your Majesty on the complete Recovery of your Health, and on your Resumption of the Reins of Government.

Deeply impressed as our Hearts are with the truest Feelings of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government. The late Indisposition of your Majesty, and the Interruption of the Personal Exercise of your Authority, could not but fill our Minds with Sentiments of the most poignant Sorrow and Regret. We now feel a proportionate Degree of Exultation, mixed with humble and sincere Gratitude to the Almighty Disposer of all Events, for His Goodness in having restored our beloved Monarch to the earnest Prayers of His affectionate Subjects.

Our most ardent Wish is, that your Majesty, in the full Enjoyment of Health and of every earthly Felicity, may long continue to reign over a loyal, a flourishing, and a happy People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Shoreham, this 8th Day of April, 1789.

J. W. Belches, Præses.

[Presented by Robert Barclay, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County.]

To His Most Sacred MAJESTY.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with Hearts full
