

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 18, to Tuesday April 21, 1789.

Whiteball, April 20, 1789.

HIS Majesty is pleased to permit the Members of both Houses of Parliament to pass through the Gates of the Parks, at the Top of Constitution-Hill, and at the Horse-Guards, in their Way to the Two Houses, on Thursday next, till Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

SYDNEY.

Whiteball, April 21, 1789.

It is hereby desired that all Persons, who wish to manifest their Joy on the happy Event of His Majesty's compleat Recovery from His late Indisposition, by Illuminations, for which Purpose many Preparations appear to be making in the Cities of London and Westminster, would defer those Publick Marks of their Duty and Affection to the King till Friday the 24th Instant.

And it is also hereby earnestly recommended to the Magistrates in the Cities of London and Westminster, and likewise to those of every other Place where such Illuminations may be made, to give such Orders to the Peace Officers in their several Districts, as may effectually prevent any Insult or Injury being offered to the Persons or Property of those whose Houses shall happen not to be illuminated upon that Occasion.

SYDNEY.

[Price Seven-pence.]

Windsor, April 18.

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs, attended by the Recorder and the City Remembrancer, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department) with the following Address, which was read by the Recorder.

'To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London in Common Hall assembled, truly sensible of the Blessings this Country has experienced under Princes of the Brunswick Line, and especially under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, could not behold the late Illness with which your Majesty was so long afflicted but with the deepest Concern and Regret.

Every Part of the British Empire is in Duty bound to offer Thanksgiving in the most solemn Manner to the all-wise Disposer of Events for so great a Blessing, as your Majesty's Recovery.

Called upon by the Respect we owe to the best of Sovereigns, we cannot refrain from approaching the Throne to congratulate your Majesty on this joyful Occasion.

Long may your Majesty be preserved to reign, in uninterrupted Health and Prosperity, over a free, happy and loyal People.

Signed by Order,

William Rix.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

I Accept with great Satisfaction your Congratulations on My Recovery from My late fever Indisposition.

The Proofs which you have given of affectionate Attachment to My Person, Family and Government are very pleasing to Me, and cannot fail to ensure an earnest Attention on My Part to your Interests and Happiness.

Windsor, April 18.

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs, attended by the Recorder and the City Remembrancer, waited upon Her Majesty (being introduced by the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household) with the following following Address, which was read by the Recorder.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Queen,

THE Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common Hall assembled, sensible of the Blessings this Country has experienced under the mild and gracious Government of their much loved Sovereign, could not behold the late Illness with which His Majesty was so long afflicted but with the utmost Concern and Regret.

We severely felt the Distress it must have occasioned to His tender affectionate Consort and their amiable numerous Family.

Called upon by the Duty we owe our Sovereign, and the Affection we bear to His Family, we cannot refrain from approaching the Throne to congratulate your Majesty and the Royal Family on so joyful an Occasion as His Majesty's Recovery.

We shall continue our Prayers to the Supreme Being, that His Majesty may be long preserved in the perfect Enjoyment of every public and domestic Felicity.

Signed by Order,
William Rix.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Return you My warmest Thanks for your Expressions of Duty and Loyalty to the King, as well as for those regarding Myself on the late melancholy Occasion, and the Share I must now naturally bear in the general Joy on the manifest Interposition of Providence, by the happy Change in His Majesty's Situation.

The following Addressees of the Deputies of the several Congregations of Protestant Dissenters in and about London have been presented to their Majesties by Edward Jeffries, William Fuller, Benjamin Boddington, and James Bogle French, Esqrs. being introduced to the Queen by the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deputies of the several Congregations of Protestant Dissenters in and about London of the three Denominations.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputies from the several Congregations of Protestant Dissenters in and about London, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence to offer our most sincere and unfeigned Congratulations on the very happy and providential Recovery of your Majesty's Health, thereby restoring your Majesty to the Prayers of our most gracious and much honoured Queen, together with those of an affectionate and grateful People, and to the full Exercise of those Functions of Government which, under your Majesty's mild and equitable Administration, have preserved to us so many Blessings.

In these heartfelt Expressions of our Joy we are confident that our Brethren in all Parts of the Kingdom do most sincerely and cordially unite, and that the Body of Protestant Dissenters will yield to none of their Fellow Subjects in Zeal and Affection for your Majesty and our glorious Consitution, as their Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's August Family and Government are founded in Principle, and, they trust, have ever been manifested in their Conduct.

It shall continue to be our sincere Prayer, that the Divine Mercy, thus displayed, may be continually exerted in preserving your Majesty in perfect Health, and in prolonging your Majesty's Reign over a free, loyal and united People to the latest Period of human Wishes.

On Behalf, and at the unanimous Request of the General Body of Deputies, assembled at Doctor Williams's Library, Redcross-street, the 16th of April, 1789.

Edward Jeffries, Chairman.
W. Fuller.
Benj. Boddington.
Ja. Bogle French.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:

YOUR dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on My Recovery from My late severe Indisposition, and your Expressions of Attachment to My Family and Government are very agreeable to Me.

The Protestant Dissenters will always experience My Favour and Protection.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, the Deputies of the several Congregations of Protestant Dissenters in and near the City of London, unite, with our Fellow Subjects of every other Description, in congratulating your Majesty on the Recovery of our most gracious Sovereign from His late Indisposition.

The many amiable Virtues by which your Majesty has engaged the Hearts of the British Nation, and the Affections of our most gracious Sovereign, strongly led us to sympathize in the Distress of your Royal Mind, and now engage us to take an ardent Share in the Restoration of your Peace.

Permit us, Madam, to pray that your Majesty may be long blessed with the Enjoyment of every Felicity, and that you may long continue a bright Example of those conjugal and maternal Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Majesty.

On Behalf, and at the unanimous Request of the General Body of Deputies, assembled at Dr. Williams's Library, Red-Cross-Street, April 16, 1789.

Edward Jeffries, Chairman.
W. Fuller.
Benj. Boddington.
Ja. Bogle French.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for Sentiments so full of Duty to the King, and so expressive of your Attachment to every Branch of His Family.

They were all very graciously received, and had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

Whitehall, April 21.

The following Address of the British Factory at Lisbon having been transmitted by the Honourable Robert Walpole, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at that Court, to his Grace the Duke of Leeds, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address

Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the British Factory at Lisbon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the British Merchants residing in the City of Lisbon, humbly solicit your Majesty's Permission to approach your Royal Presence with our sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late Indisposition.

Though placed in a Foreign Country, we can truly assure your Majesty, that no Description of your Majesty's Subjects could be impressed with deeper Affliction at your Sickness, or more heartfelt Satisfaction at the Return of your Majesty's Health.

We acknowledge with all possible Thankfulness the Goodness of Almighty God, in restoring your Majesty to the Wishes of your faithful Subjects; and we most cordially join our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may long enjoy uninterrupted Health, and that your Majesty's steady and unremitting Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Dominions may be attended with constant Success.

By Order of the Factory, Lisbon, April 1, 1789. John Bell, Treasurer.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AN Event by which the Interests and Happiness of every Part of your Dominions are so nearly affected as they are by the providential Restoration of your Majesty to Health, and the effective Administration of Government, calls for the sincerest Congratulations of a loyal and affectionate People.

Of all Descriptions of Men among us there is none whom it more becomes to express their Joy on the Occasion than the Established Clergy.

Your Majesty's earnest and, we trust, successful Endeavours to preserve Peace, not only to this Country, but throughout the World; your exemplary Regard to the great Duties of Religion, public and private; your unshaken Attachment to the truly Christian Principles of that Church which makes so essential and valuable a Part of the Constitution of this Country; at the same Time that they afford an unequivocal Proof of your own genuine Sentiments, contribute, we have no Doubt, in an eminent Degree to draw down the Favor and Furtherance of Heaven on the pious Labours of the Clergy to promote the Faith of the Gospel and the Practice of every Christian Virtue.

Under these Impressions, the Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich humbly presume to unite their Assurances of unfeigned Joy to the general Voice of the Nation. To these we further add our devout Prayers to Almighty God, that our late dismal Apprehensions may lead us to know and value, as we ought, the singular Advantages now compleatly restored to us; and that in His gracious Mercy He will vouchsafe to bestow on your Majesty every Satisfaction that uninterrupted Health, domestic Comfort, a long and prosperous Reign, together with the merited and proved Affections of an happy and grateful People, can afford.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham; penetrated with the deepest Sense of the Goodness of the Almighty in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most sincere and affectionate Congratulations on so happy an Event.

The many and great Blessings which this Country hath long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and prudent Government, and the unwearied and paternal Attention which you have ever graciously manifested for the Welfare and Happiness of all your Subjects, cannot but excite in their Breasts the most zealous and grateful Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and teach them to regard your auspicious Re-assumption of the Executive Government as the most interesting Blessing to Individuals; as well as the most signal Mark of the Divine Protection and Favour to this happy Nation.

Permit us, Sire, to express our particular Sense of the Divine Goodness on this Occasion in continuing to us your Royal Influence and Example, which have been so eminently exerted for the Countenance and Promotion of true Religion and Virtue. May your Majesty long reap the blessed Fruits which you have so assiduously cultivated, and experience that the surest Foundation of the Throne is laid in the affectionate Attachment of a religious and virtuous People; and may your Majesty's Reign be as peaceful and happy to yourself, as it will be prosperous and glorious to your Subjects.

To promote these great Ends, and in the firm Persuasion that we cannot better express our Gratitude to Almighty God for the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, nor make a more acceptable Return to your Majesty's paternal Care and Solitude for the Welfare of your Kingdom, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will, in our several Stations, diligently endeavour to impress upon the Minds of your Subjects a deep Sense of the great Importance of Religion, Virtue and Civil Subordination both to public and private Happiness.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop and the Dean.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Wilts, beg Leave to express the Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude with which our Hearts are impressed on the important and happy Event of the Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

We acknowledge, with the warmest Feelings of Thankfulness, the Goodness of Almighty God so peculiarly manifested towards your Majesty and the Nation at large; and we humbly and anxiously hope, that the same good Providence which has graciously interposed on the present Occasion, will continue to your Majesty that Health which has been so happily restored, and long preserve your Majesty as an Example and a Blessing to your Subjects.

Signed in the Name of the Meeting,
Robert Ashe, Sheriff.

[Delivered by Sir James Tilney Long Bart. and Ambrose Goddard, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

The humble Address of the Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, called the Bedford Level.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ASSEMBLED under the Authority of Parliament for executing the important Trusts which have been committed to us for the Preservation of an extensive and valuable Tract of Country, we should feel ourselves deficient in Duty to your Majesty if we did not profit from this Occasion of offering to your Majesty our most humble but sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from a most alarming Illness. We acknowledge the Divine Wisdom and Goodness, which, by this memorable Instance, has held out to Nations a well-grounded Hope, that the fervent Prayers of a loyal People will not be unavailing, and which has rendered even the late several Trial a Means of affording to your Majesty the signal Satisfaction (which few Monarchs have attained) of learning, without possible Imputation of Flattery, that your Majesty truly reigns in the Hearts of your Subjects.

We trust it will not be deemed presumptuous if we recognize an additional Source of Joy in the Comfort by this auspicious Event restored to the Queen, whose deep Affliction and Distress has been Matter of public Solicitude, as also in the Happiness derived to every Branch of the Royal Family.

May the Continuance of your Majesty's Health be long and uninterrupted; and when, in the Course of Nature, it shall have pleased the Supreme Disposer of all Events to gather your Majesty to Himself, full of Years and full of Honors, may there not be wanting to the remotest Times a Descendant from your Illustrious House to whom this Country may look up with united Confidence, as inheriting both the Crown and the Virtues of His August Progenitors.

The Common Seal of the Corporation was this Day hereto affixed by the Order of the Board, being their first General Meeting for the Year 1789.

Charles Nelson Cole, Register.

Ely, April 16, 1789.

[Delivered by Sir Charles Gould and William Fellosaves, Esq; Bailiffs of the Corporation of Bedford Level.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most respectful Sentiments of Regard and Loyalty.

It is with the sincerest Pleasure and Satisfaction that we are enabled to participate in the general Joy, and to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Event of your Restoration to Health and to your People.

And it is our fervent Prayer that your Majesty may long live to reign over your affectionate and loyal Subjects in the uninterrupted Enjoyment of every Blessing of Life.

Given under our Hands, the 28th Day of March, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord George Cavendish, one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough]

To His MAJESTY.

SIRE!

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town of Kidderminster, impressed with fervent Gratitude to the Father of Mercies for His gracious Interposition in restoring your Majesty to Health, humbly offer to your Majesty our dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on this joyful Event, and our earnest Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to teach the Monarchs of the Earth the Glory of reigning in the Hearts of a free, an enlightened, an united, and a happy People.

[Delivered by the Reverend George Butt, one of His Majesty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Vicar of Kidderminster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Bailiff, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Recovery from the grievous Malady with which you have been lately afflicted.

Impressed with a grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness in regarding the Supplications of a faithful and loyal People by restoring to Health the best of Kings, thereby rendering the greatest Consolation to His Royal Consort and Family, with perfect Happiness to His People, by enabling Him to resume the full Exercise of His Royal Authority over these Kingdoms.

We think it our indispensable Duty thus to acknowledge these Blessings, and to assure your Majesty, that it is our earnest Prayer that you may, with an uninterrupted Continuance of Health, enjoy a long and prosperous Reign over a free People, inviolably attached to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

Given under our Common Seal, the 4th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

James Pinches, Town Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Aberbrothock, in the County of Forfar, being actuated with a Sense of the many Advantages we have, in common with our Fellow Subjects, enjoyed under the Government of the best of Sovereigns, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person with the most profound Loyalty, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Recovery; an Event justly considered a public Blessing.

Permit us, Sire, in the most respectful Manner to express those Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment which we entertain towards your Majesty, as well as the sincere Hope and ardent Desire we feel, that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a loyal, a free and grateful People.

We beg Leave also to express our warmest Wishes for the Prosperity of our Gracious Queen, the Prince of Wales, and the other Branches of your Majesty's Royal Family.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Council, at the Town-Hall of Aberbrothock, this 31st Day of March, 1789.

Charles Allan, Provost.

[Delivered by Archibald Douglas, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Forfar.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Officers of the Marine Corps, Naval Hospital and other Principal Inhabitants of East Stonehouse, Devon.

S I R E !

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers of the Marine Corps, Naval Hospital and other Principal Inhabitants of East Stonehouse, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Hearts full of Affection to your Majesty, and the most unfeigned Joy and Congratulation on your happy Recovery from your late severe Illness.

Deeply impressed with Gratitude for the signal Interposition of Providence, so visibly manifested in our Behalf, we shall not cease to implore the Supreme Disposer of Life and Health, for a long and uninterrupted Continuance of these Blessings to your Majesty, and the consequent Establishment of those which we have uniformly enjoyed under your Majesty's benign and gracious Reign.

[Transmitted by Doctor Farr, Physician to the Royal Hospital.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of New Romney in the County of Kent, beg Leave, with Hearts overflowing with Love and Gratitude, humbly to testify our Joy upon the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery from your late severe Illness, which had filled our Minds with inexpressible Concern.

May the same Providence, which hath hitherto guided and protected your Sacred Person, continue its Blessings on your Health and Government; and it is our most fervent Wish that your Majesty may long reign uninterrupted over a free and affectionate People.

Signed the 11th Day of April, 1789.

[Delivered by John Hentiker, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Town.]

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich.

Most Gracious Queen,

POSSESSED, as your Majesty deservedly is, of the Affections of the People of this Country, they cannot but feel a near Concern in whatever may materially affect your Comfort and Happiness.

In the Event of His Majesty's providential Recovery they have a common Interest, and they know it; they know that in that Event every Thing that is most dear and valuable to themselves, as well as to your Royal Person and Family, is involved. On this Occasion, therefore, we,
the Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich, humbly presume most sincerely to congratulate with your Majesty; and to offer up our devoutest Prayers to the Disposer of all Events, that it may please Him to continue to us those inestimable Blessings which He hath now renewed by the Restoration of Health to our beloved Sovereign, from whom that very Tenderness and Care, and Fatherly Affection, which your Majesty, and those nearest His Person, daily witness and experience, is extended without Diminution to every Part of His People.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, embrace with the most heartfelt Pleasure this auspicious Occasion of congratulating your Majesty on our beloved Sovereign's happy Restoration to Health, to your Majesty, and to His faithful Subjects.

Endeared, as your Majesty is, by your great and amiable Virtues, to the Affections of all your Subjects, we feel ourselves deeply interested in every Occurrence which affects your Majesty's Happiness:
But we want Words to express our dutiful Participation and Sympathy in your late severe Afflictions; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our late Anxiety and Sorrow can only be equalled by our present Joy and Exultation.

We cannot, as loyal Subjects, more effectually express our affectionate Duty and Attachment to the best of Kings, than by ardently imploring the Great Disposer of all Events, that He may preserve your Majesty to share His Throne, and to alleviate the Cares of his Government; nor our Love for our Country, as good Citizens, who experience their Sovereign's Happiness to be their own, than by devoutly praying that He may grant to your Majesties a long and prosperous Reign over a free and united People; and that having blessed your Majesties with all domestic and public Felicity in this World, He may call you late to the Possession of an immortal Crown in the next.

[Transmitted by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop and the Dean.]

To Her MAJESTY.

Madam,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town of Kidderminster, with Hearts full of Gratitude to the Father of Mercies for the unspeakable Blessing dispensed to your Majesty and to us, in the Restoration of our gracious and beloved Sovereign to Health, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on this joyful Event, and to express our ardent Hopes that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may long experience a Continuance of that domestic Felicity, so rarely the Lot of Princes, at once the Result and Reward of your Virtues.

Majesty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Vicar of Kidderminster.*]

The following Addresses having been transmitted
by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg Leave to offer

offer our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on the happy Re-establishment of your Health and the consequent Re-assumption of your Majesty's most auspicious Government.

This salutary Event, the Object of the earnest Wishes and fervent Prayers of all your Majesty's Subjects, must be peculiarly grateful to those whose Province it is to train up Youth in the Knowledge of those Sciences of which your Majesty has ever been the Patron, and in the Practice of those Moral and Religious Duties of which your Royal Example, during the whole Course of your Reign, has been the most illustrious Model.

May the Dispenser of all Good preserve the Health of your Majesty, and may your Majesty long reign in the Hearts of a dutiful, affectionate and grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and joyful Congratulations on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery from your late severe Illness, and upon your again being enabled to exercise personally your Royal Authorities.

Impressed with the strongest Sense of the numerous Blessings we, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, have hitherto enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and happy Government, but particularly thankful for the peculiar Benefits so graciously vouchsafed by your Majesty to this Kingdom, we look up with Reverence to the Almighty, and with heartfelt Gratitude acknowledge the Interposition of His Divine Providence, in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, so precious to your faithful Subjects, and so essential to their Happiness.

And we shall not cease to offer up our earnest and fervent Prayers for the Continuance of your Majesty's Health, and that your Majesty may long reign the happy and glorious Monarch of a free, grateful and affectionate People.

Sam. Boyse, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Newry.

DEEPLY impressed with the Goodness of God in restoring your Majesty to perfect Health, and at the same Time truly sensible of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we approach Heaven with the Voice of Thanksgiving, and your Majesty with Congratulations flowing from Hearts that were lately overwhelmed with Anxiety.

May the Almighty preserve your Majesty's Health to the Fullness of Time, and continue the Blessings we now enjoy to our latest Posterity,
