

Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the British Factory at Lisbon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the British Merchants residing in the City of Lisbon, humbly solicit your Majesty's Permission to approach your Royal Presence with our sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late Indisposition.

Though placed in a Foreign Country, we can truly assure your Majesty, that no Description of your Majesty's Subjects could be impressed with deeper Affliction at your Sickness, or more heartfelt Satisfaction at the Return of your Majesty's Health.

We acknowledge with all possible Thankfulness the Goodness of Almighty God, in restoring your Majesty to the Wishes of your faithful Subjects; and we most cordially join our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may long enjoy uninterrupted Health, and that your Majesty's steady and unremitting Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Dominions may be attended with constant Success.

By Order of the Factory,
Lisbon, April 1, 1789. John Bell, Treasurer.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AN Event by which the Interests and Happiness of every Part of your Dominions are so nearly affected as they are by the providential Restoration of your Majesty to Health, and the effective Administration of Government, calls for the sincerest Congratulations of a loyal and affectionate People.

Of all Descriptions of Men among us there is none whom it more becomes to express their Joy on the Occasion than the Established Clergy.

Your Majesty's earnest and, we trust, successful Endeavours to preserve Peace, not only to this Country, but throughout the World; your exemplary Regard to the great Duties of Religion, public and private; your unshaken Attachment to the truly Christian Principles of that Church which makes so essential and valuable a Part of the Constitution of this Country; at the same Time that they afford an unequivocal Proof of your own genuine Sentiments, contribute, we have no Doubt, in an eminent Degree to draw down the Favor and Furtherance of Heaven on the pious Labours of the Clergy to promote the Faith of the Gospel and the Practice of every Christian Virtue.

Under these Impressions, the Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich humbly presume to unite their Assurances of unfeigned Joy to the general Voice of the Nation. To these we further add our devout Prayers to Almighty God, that our late dismal Apprehensions may lead us to know and value, as we ought, the singular Advantages now compleatly restored to us; and that in His gracious Mercy He will vouchsafe to bestow on your Majesty every Satisfaction that uninterrupted Health, domestic Comfort, a long and prosperous Reign, together with the merited and proved Affections of an happy and grateful People, can afford.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham; penetrated with the deepest Sense of the Goodness of the Almighty in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most sincere and affectionate Congratulations on so happy an Event.

The many and great Blessings which this Country hath long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and prudent Government, and the unwearied and paternal Attention which you have ever graciously manifested for the Welfare and Happiness of all your Subjects, cannot but excite in their Breasts the most zealous and grateful Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and teach them to regard your auspicious Re-assumption of the Executive Government as the most interesting Blessing to Individuals; as well as the most signal Mark of the Divine Protection and Favour to this happy Nation.

Permit us, Sire, to express our particular Sense of the Divine Goodness on this Occasion in continuing to us your Royal Influence and Example, which have been so eminently exerted for the Countenance and Promotion of true Religion and Virtue. May your Majesty long reap the blessed Fruits which you have so assiduously cultivated, and experience that the surest Foundation of the Throne is laid in the affectionate Attachment of a religious and virtuous People; and may your Majesty's Reign be as peaceful and happy to yourself, as it will be prosperous and glorious to your Subjects.

To promote these great Ends, and in the firm Persuasion that we cannot better express our Gratitude to Almighty God for the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, nor make a more acceptable Return to your Majesty's paternal Care and Solicitude for the Welfare of your Kingdom, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will, in our several Stations, diligently endeavour to impress upon the Minds of your Subjects a deep Sense of the great Importance of Religion, Virtue and Civil Subordination both to public and private Happiness.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop and the Dean.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Wilts, beg Leave to express the Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude with which our Hearts are impressed on the important and happy Event of the Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

We acknowledge, with the warmest Feelings of Thankfulness, the Goodness of Almighty God so peculiarly manifested towards your Majesty and the Nation at large; and we humbly and anxiously hope, that the same good Providence which has graciously interposed on the present Occasion, will continue to your Majesty that Health which has been so happily restored, and long preserve your Majesty as an Example and a Blessing to your Subjects.

Signed in the Name of the Meeting,
Robert Ashe, Sheriff.

[Delivered by Sir James Tilney Long Bart. and Ambrose Goddard, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that County.]
