Whitehall, April 25.

THURSDAY last being appointed by His Majesty's Proclamation to be observed as a Day of General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the signal Interposition of His good Providence, in removing from His Majesty the late Illness with which He had been afflicted, His Majesty was pleased, for the greater Solemnity of the Day, to go to the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, accompanied by the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Princess Royal, the Princess Augusta, the Princess Elizabeth, the Duke of Gloucester, and the Duke of Cumberland, and his Highness Prince William; and attended by both Houses of Parliament, the Great Officers of State, the Judges, and other public Officers, to return Thanks to God for His great Mercies and Blessings.

The Procession was begun at Eight o'Clock in the Morning by the House of Commons, in their Coaches, followed by their Speaker, in his State Coach. Next came the Masters in Chancery, the Judges, and after them the Peers, in the Order of Precedency, as they were marshalled by the Officers of Arms at Westminster, the youngest Baron going first, and the Lord Chancellor, in his State Coach, closing this Part of the Procession. Such of the Peers as were Knights wore the Collars of their respective Orders.

Afterwards came the Royal Family, in order of Precedency, with their Attendants, escorted by Parties of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards.

Their Majesties set out from the Queen's Palace soon after Ten o'Clock, in a Coach drawn by Eight Cream-coloured Horses, (in which were also Two of the Ladies of Her Majesty's Bed-Chamber) followed by their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, and proceeded through the Gate at the Stable Yard, along Pall Mall, and through the Strand, amidst the loyal Acclamations of a prodigious Concourse of People.

The Streets were lined, as far as Temple Bar, by the Brigade of Foot Guards, the Grenadier Companies, of which were posted in St. Paul's Church, and in the Church-yard, and patrolled by Parties of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards. The Avenues into the Streets through which the Procession passed were guarded by the Queen's Light Dragoons. From Temple Bar to the Church the Streets were lined by the Artillery Company and the Militia of the City; the Peace-Officers attending both within and without the City to preserve Order.

At Temple Bar His Majesty was met by the Lord Mayor, in a Gown of Crimson Velvet.

The Sheriffs in their Scarlet Gowns, and a Deputation from the Aldermen and Common Council; being all on Horseback, when the Lord Mayor surrendered the City Sword to His Majesty, who having returned it to him, he carried it bare-headed before the King to St. Paul's.

His Majesty being come to St. Paul's, was met at the West Door by the Peers, the Bishop of London, the Dean of St. Paul's (Bishop of Lincoln) the Canons Residentiary, and the Kings and other Officers of Arms, the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, and the Yeomen of the Guard attending.

The Sword of State was carried before His Majesty by the Marquis of Stafford into the Choir, where the King and Queen placed themselves under a Canopy of State, near the West End, opposite to the Altar.

The Peers had their Seats in the Area, as a House of Lords, and the Commons in the Stalls. The upper Galleries were allotted to the Ladies of Her Majesty's Bedchamber, the Maids of Honour, and such other Ladies of Distinction as attended on this Occasion. The Foreign Ministers were placed in the two lower Galleries, next to the Throne; and the Lord Mayor and Aldermen in the lower Galleries near the Altar.

The Prayers and Litany were read and chanted by the Minor Canons. The Te Deum and Anthems composed for the Occasion were sung by the Choir, who were placed in the Organ Loft, and were joined in the Chorus, as also in the Psalms, by the Charity Children, in Number about Six Thousand, who were assembled there previous to Their Majesties Arrival. The Communion Service was read by the Dean and Residentiaries, and the Sermon preached by the Lord Bishop of London.

Divine Service being ended, Their Majesties returned with the same State to the Queen's Palace at about half an Hour after Three o'Clock. The Guns at the Tower and in the Park were fired three Times, first upon the King's setting out, secondly at the singing of Te Deum, and thirdly upon His Majesty's Return; after which the Brigade of Foot Guards fired a Feu de Joie in St. James's Park, being drawn up in the Front of the Queen's Palace.

The public Demonstrations of Joy and Loyalty by the Inhabitants of London and Westminster, on the Occasion of His Majesty's first Appearance in public since His happy Recovery, exceeded all Expression; and Yesterday Evening the Illuminations in all Parts of this Metropolis surpassed in Splendor and Magnificence all former Exhibitions.

Whitehall, April 25.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Carlisle, humbly intreat Permission to express the Share we feel in the Joy which your Majesty's Recovery hath diffused throughout the Realm.

The Ministers of a Church which hath long experienced your Majesty's Attention to it's Welfare; the Teachers of a Religion, for which your Majesty hath testified your Regard by something more than public Professions, by the surer Evidence of a pious and exemplary Life, ought not to be the last to congratulate your Majesty and their Country upon an Event so important to the Happiness of both.

In the Midst of national Prosperity your People were suddenly cast down by an alarming Interruption of your Majesty's Health.

We trust that the Remembrance of this affecting Visitation, whilst it cannot fail to endear your Majesty's Virtues to the Hearts of your Subjects, will teach them to perceive their Dependency upon that Almighty Protection, without which, in Nations as well as Individuals, Confidence is Presumption, and Strength vain.

We pray to God to continue to your Majesty, and to this Church and Nation, that Mercy of which we have seen in your Royal Person so conspicuous an Example.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Protestant Bishops in Scotland, and of the Clergy of their Communion.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Bishops in Scotland, and Clergy of their Communion, most humbly request your Royal Permission to mingle our hearty Congratulations with those that are daily flowing from all Parts of your Majesty's Dominions on the present joyful Occasion.

Deeply sensible of the Mildness, Equity and Wisdom of your Majesty's Government, while we joined with our Fellow-Subjects in sincerely lamenting the calamitous Situation of the British Empire, suffering in the Distress of your Royal Person, we did not fail most earnestly to implore that much desired Relief, which could come only from the Father of Mercies, and the God of all Comfort. We are now happy to find, that the Prayers of an united People have met with a gracious Acceptance, and have obtained from Heaven that complete Restoration of your Majesty's Health, for which, with most grateful Hearts, we humbly adore the Goodness of the Almighty.

We cannot omit this Opportunity of acknowledging, with all becoming Thankfulness, those endearing Proofs of your Majesty's distinguished Clemency and Condescension, which have encouraged this humble Address. And when we consider how much it is the anxious Wish and Desire of your Majesty's Heart to contribute to the Ease and Happiness of your People, we rely with Confidence on your paternal Goodness for a Participation in the Protection and Religious Liberty that are enjoyed by the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects. By these Means we shall be enabled to manifest, in an exemplary Manner, that Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, which, we can truly say, is founded in a Sense of Duty, and confirmed by the warmest Gratitude.

These Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to the best of Princes we shall make it our constant Study to inculcate on the Minds of those who adhere to our Ministry: And your Majesty may be assured of their good Dispositions to promote the public Peace and Prosperity, by yielding an uniform and cheerful Obedience to your Majesty's Sacred Authority.

That the Great God, by whom Kings reign, may take your Majesty under the peculiar Care of His watchful Providence, guard you from every Danger and preserve you long in Health and Happiness as a Blessing to the British Nation, and a Comfort to your own Illustrious House, is, and ever shall be, the ardent Prayer of us,

Your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects,

The Protestant Bishops in Scotland, and the Clergy of their Communion.

Signed for ourselves, and in Behalf of the Clergy of our respective Dioceses, by John Skinner.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants, the Dean, the Sub-Dean, Priests, Organists and Composers, Gentlemen, Sergeant and Yeoman of your Chapels Royal, deeply impressed with a just and grateful Sense of your Majesty's Goodness towards us as our Royal Master, and animated by every Motive of Affection and Loyalty to you as our King and Governor, should feel ourselves inexcusably deficient if, amidst the universal Joy which pervades the Minds of your faithful People on the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, we were not to give Utterance to the Emotions of our Hearts on so happy an Occasion.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our most sincere Congratulations upon an Event, by which we are made truly sensible of the Mercy of that Almighty Being, who hath lent a gracious Ear to the united Prayers of an anxious and afflicted Nation, and who hath thus wonderfully provided for its Prosperity by the extensive Benefits which your Majesty's Resumption of your Government must naturally diffuse, not only throughout this Island, but throughout all Europe.

May the same Almighty Being, in His infinite Wisdom and Mercy, continue to watch over and protect your Royal Person and Family, and grant your Majesty a long uninterrupted Course of Health and Happiness.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London, Dean of the Royal Chapels.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Loyalist Clergy, late of North-America.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful Subjects, the loyalist Clergy, late of North America, gratefully acknowledge the Divine Goodness of Providence in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health. Impressed with a Sense of former Sufferings, endured in consequence of our Attachment to the Throne, and filled with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude and Duty, we humbly approach your Presence, and presume to renew our Assurances of inviolable Regard to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The congratulatory Address of the Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, have most cordially joined in the sincere Expressions of Gratitude that have been offered up to Almighty God by all Ranks of your People for the memorable Interposition of His Providence, by which your Majesty hath been restored in perfect Health to the Exercise of your Royal Authority.

The universal Joy expressed upon this happy Occasion by a great People, sensible of the Value of their inestimable Privileges, and zealous to preserve them, must be regarded by your Majesty as the strongest Proof of their Attachment to your Royal Person, and of their firm Belief that it is your unalterable Determination to support that free Constitution of Government to which Great Britain owes it's Eminence among the Nations.

In no Part of the Island, before the Period of the Revolution in 1688, was the Rod of Arbitrary Power more severely felt than in this District, and no where did the Spirit, which conferred upon your Ancestors the Crown of these Realms, more powerfully operate. With Pleasure we contemplate those Privileges, Civil and Religious, which by Divine Providence have, under the August Family of Brunswick, been secured to these Lands; and with unfeigned Sincerity we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our Study to cultivate in the Minds of the People under our Care those Principles which brought your illustrious House to the Throne, and upon a Regard to which, in the Exercise of your Authority, the Love of your People is founded.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may long preserve your Majesty as a Blessing to your People, and may afterwards bestow upon you a more valuable Crown than that which you at present wear, is our fervent Prayer.

Signed at Glasgow, the 15th Day of April,
1789, in our Name and by our Appointment,

John Monteath, jun. Moderator.

[Delivered by Hays Campbell, Esq; His Majesty's Advocate for Scotland, and Representative in Parliament for the Burgh of Glasgow.]

WE, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and other Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, assembled at the Great Sessions held at Pool in and for the said County, the 30th Day of March, 1789, humbly presume to approach the Throne, and join with the general Voice of the Nation in conveying our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your Recovery.

We are happy in expressing, upon this joyful Event, our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and to your Family; and conscious as we are of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious and equitable Government; we most devoutly pray for the Continuance of your Health, that your Majesty may long reign over a free, grateful and affectionate People.

[Delivered by the Earl of Powis, Lord Lieutenant, and Robert John Harrison, Esq; Sheriff of that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

TRULY thankful for the inestimable Blessings so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Chester, beg Leave with all Humility to express our earnest and sincere Congratulations on the happy Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health; an Event which we feel most sensibly, as it restores to your Majesty the Enjoyment both of public and domestic Felicity; to our most Gracious Queen, and every Branch of your illustrious House, effectual Relief from their past Afflictions; and to your faithful Subjects that parental Protection, the Suspension of which they have had such just Cause to deplore.

It will be our constant and most ardent Prayer, that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved in Health, Peace and Prosperity; and that the unceasing Regard ever shewn by your Majesty to the Religion, Laws and Liberties of these Realms may be at all Times gratefully repaid by the steady Loyalty and inviolable Attachment of a zealous and affectionate People.

John Glegg, Sheriff.

[Delivered by the Earl of Stamford, Lord Lieutenant, and John Crewe, Esq; and Sir Robert Salisbury Cotton, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, deeply impressed with the Goodness of God in the happy Restoration of your Majesty's Health, and truly sensible of the Comforts we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, approach Heaven with Gratitude and Thanksgiving, and your Majesty with sincere and joyful Congratulations flowing from Hearts lately overwhelmed with Anxiety and Concern.

The tender Affection and Attention of our most Gracious Queen to your Majesty's Sacred Person, during the trying Moments of Her late Afflictions, have been feelingly observed by your People, and would, if possible, increase their Duty, Love and Respect for Her Majesty's Person.

Animated with humble Hopes of long, very long, enjoying the Blessings of your Majesty's just and equitable Government, we present your Majesty most sincerely with all the Duty, Faith and Allegiance Allegiance which the most loyal Subjects can offer, or the best of Kings receive.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Thomas Harley and Sir George Cornwall, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heritors, Justices of Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Wigtown.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the President, Vice Presidents and Governors of the Incorporated Marine Society of London, in General Court assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, and to add our Congratulations to the joyful Effusions of Gratitude to Divine Providence, which have been so universally expressed by the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery, and the Restoration of your Regal Functions.

Animated by your Majesty's early Approbation and bountiful Patronage, we have, we trust, with unremitting Zeal and Fidelity, endeavoured to carry into Execution the Ends for which we have been incorporated, by rescuing from Want, Misery and Vice the lowest and most wretched of your Majesty's Subjects, and happily rendering them the Instruments of National Commerce, and the Bulwark of this Maritime Kingdom; and having hitherto happily succeeded, by the Assistance of Divine Providence, and the generous Contributions of our Fellow Subjects, we have the fullest Confidence, that the same Providence, whose Interposition is so manifest in your Majesty's Recovery, will, under your Majesty's Auspices, give still fuller Effect to our zealous Endeavours for the Public Service.

Marine Society's Office,
April 21, 1789.

tionate Subjects, the President, Council and Fellows of the Medical Society of London, beg Leave humbly to offer you our very sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

Whilst we reflect with Thankfulness, on this signal Instance of Divine Favour, we recollect with Satisfaction that even the Malady which so lately afflicted your Majesty, and the Nation, has not been without it's Advantages; since it has awakened your Subjects to a more lively Sense of the Blessings that depend on your Majesty's invaluable Life and Health, and at the same Time has more fully discovered to your Majesty the Extent and the Ardor of your Peoples Affection.

That your Majesty may long enjoy Health and perfect Happiness, and that your Reign may secure the Prosperity of a loyal and grateful People, is, and will continue to be our most fervent Prayer.

St. George's Hospital, April 17, 1789.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE, the Vice-Presidents and Governors of St. George's Hospital, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to testify our unfeigned Joy on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery, which the Mildness and Beneficence of your Majesty's Reign had rendered interesting even to the least of your Subjects.

Assisted as this Hospital has been by your Majesty's particular Patronage and Favor, it would ill become the Governors to be silent, who have thus been enabled to provide for the Health and Comfort of many of your Majesty's Subjects; and while they express the Benefits which they have witnessed of that Goodness, they convey to your Majesty the Gratitude of Thousands.

That your Majesty may long live happy, the Patron of every benevolent Institution, and the Father of your People, is our earnest Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, and the Neighbourhood thereof.

The Joy arising from so auspicious an Event has diffused itself through all Ranks of your People, and it imparts particular Satisfaction to us, who acknowledge with Gratitude that Divine Interposition by which your Majesty is restored to the Exercise of your Royal Authority.

That Heaven may continue the Blessing it has vouchsafed to grant, attended with every domestic Comfort; and that you may long reign over a happy and free People, is our most sincere and ardent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, this 3d Day of April, 1789, and signed at the Request of the Meeting by the Mayor of the Borough, as Chairman.

Wm. Whitaker, Mayor.

[Delivered by Edward Hawkins, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Inverness, beg Leave, with the greatest Humility, to approach your Majesty's Throne to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Recovery from the late Indisposition with which your Majesty was afflicted.

Fully sensible of the Mildness of your Majesty's Government, of the Privileges which the Church of Scotland has enjoyed since your Illustrious House came to the Throne of these Realms; and observing, with the greatest Pleasure, your Majesty's virtuous and religious Example; we were most deeply affected on Account of the Calamity with which your Majesty was visited; and hence we felt the sincerest Joy at the merciful Interposition of the Almighty in restoring your Majesty to Health, and to the Exercise of the Royal Authority.

Our ardent Prayers to the Most High are, that your Majesty's Health and Life may long be preserved as a Blessing to your Family and Kingdoms, and as a Protection to our Church; and that your Majesty may at Length receive a Crown of Glory.

Signed in Name, Presence and by Appointment of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Inverness, this 7th Day of April, 1789, by

Geo. Watson, Moderator.

[Delivered by Sir Hector Munro, Representative in Parliament for Inverness.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Shaftesbury, beg Leave to offer you our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late dangerous Indisposition.

Sensible as we are that our Rights and Liberties can never be more secure than under your Majesty's Administration, our Alarm on the late Suspension of your Government can be equalled only by our Joy at your re-assuming it. For that auspicious Event we return our most unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty; and furthermore pray, that under His gracious Protection your Majesty's Reign over us may continue intreating in Felicity and Honour to a Period far remote.

If there can be yet an Addition to the universal Joy attending the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, it arises from the Contemplation of that conjugal Piety and unremitting Affection so conspicuous in your amiable Confort, which, by securing the domestic Happiness of your Majesty, have enthroned Her in the Hearts of your Majesty's Subjects.

[Delivered by Hans Wintrop Mortimer, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses, and of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, in the County of Chester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, impressed with the highest Sense of your Majesty's Goodness, and of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, beg Leave to express the anxious Concern for your Preservation which your late Indisposition awaked in the Minds of your faithful Subjects.

While we were alarmed with Apprehensions for your Majesty's Safety, our Prayers were fervent to the Almighty to avert the impending Calamity, our Thanksgivings are not less sincere for the happy Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

May you long continue to reign in the Hearts of your People; and may they, conscious of the many Advantages these Kingdoms enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, long continue united in their constant and ardent Wishes for your Majesty's Preservation, and every other Blessing this Life can bestow on your Majesty, your Royal Confort and Family. In Testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our Names, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 7th Day of April, 1789.

[Delivered by Richard Wilbraham Bostle, Esq; High Steward of that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Midhurst in the County of Sussex, as also of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders resident in the Vicinity thereof, assembled in the Town-Hall of Midhurst aforesaid, on Tuesday the 14th Day of April, 1789.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Midhurst, together with the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects residing in the Vicinity thereof, convened in the Town-Hall of Midhurst aforesaid, do, with all Humility, beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on your happy Recovery from the late severe Indisposition wherewith it pleased the Almighty to afflict you.

We are truly and sincerely thankful to the wise Disposer of all Events, that it hath pleased Him in much Mercy to regard the earnest Supplications of your faithful People, and that He hath been graciously pleased, after sorely afflicting us, to fill our Hearts with Gratitude, to turn our Prayers into Praises, and our Sorrow into Joy.

The many and great Benefits we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and with which our Minds are deeply impressed, cannot but make us to the last Degree solicitous for your Safety, upon which, under Heaven, these Blessings peculiarly depend.

Your Majesty's happy Restoration to Health, and the personal Exercise of the Royal Authority, affords us the pleasing Prospect under Providence of a long Continuance of these invaluable Blessings. May the Almighty pour down upon your Majesty the choicest of His Mercies, and, after a long, very long and prosperous Reign here upon Earth, may you late exchange your temporal for a far more glorious and eternal Kingdom in the Heavens.

[Delivered by Sir Herbert Mackworth, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

WE, the Debtors confined in the Castle Goal of Oxford, most humbly presume to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the truest Loyalty and Affection.

With the most heartfelt Sincerity we offer up our grateful Thanks to the Supreme Disposer of all human Events, for His late most signal Mercies, in restoring to us the Father of His People, the Protector and Support of His loyal and affectionate Subjects; and we most heartily pray for the Continuance of the Health your Majesty at present enjoys, so essentially necessary to the Happiness and Welfare of your Kingdoms.

We also most humbly beg Leave to remind your Majesty, at this Time of universal National Joy, that we have lingered for many Months absent from our Wives and Families, and entirely deprived of all Possibility of affording them the most trifling Support. During the Period of your Majesty's Illness, our own private Sorrows were swallowed up in the common Anxiety for your Majesty's Recovery, and our Calamities have since been forgotten, and have given Way to a Participation of the general Joy.

Should your Majesty look down with an Eye of Compassion on your unhappy Petitioners, but thirteen in Number, and confined for very trifling Debts which we nevertheless are unable to discharge, your Majesty will, by that Means, restore to their drooping Families their Parents and their Brothers; will brighten the Faces of the Wretched with Joy, and will afford to your Royal and benevolent Mind that inward Satisfaction of doing Good, so often experienced by your Majesty, the sure and lasting Reward of Benevolence and Virtue!

That such may be the Result of your Royal Consideration of our manifold Misfortunes and Calamities, is the most earnest Wish not only of your Majesty's humble Petitioners, but also of Thousands of their sympathizing Fellow Subjects, who see with Sorrow their unhappy Fellow Creatures deprived of the Means not only of paying their Debts, but of procuring themselves the Means of Subsistence.

Finally, we humbly entreat your Majesty to forgive our Presumption in thus presuming to approach your Throne, assuring your Majesty at the same Time that this Liberty had never been taken, had not Joy for your Majesty's happy Recovery been infinitely greater than our Anxiety for our own calamitous Situation.

[Transmitted by Mr. Richard Bettefworth.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Inverbervie.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your ancient Burgh of Inverbervie, impressed with a deep Sense of the Divine Goodness, who in Mercy to these Nations have restored our beloved Sovereign to Health, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our unfeigned Joy at this auspicious Event, and the Satisfaction we feel in seeing your Majesty again holding the Reigns of Government over an affectionate and loyal People, who have already experienced the Benignity of your Reign.

While we thus express our Joy for your Majesty's Recovery, it is our earnest Prayer to Almighty God, the Supreme Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty may be long preserved in Health for a Blessing to your People.

Signed by our Appointment (in Absence of our Chief Magistrate) this 7th Day of April, 1789.

James Wille, Bailie.

in the Ardency of our Thankfulness to Heaven for an Event so seasonably providential and propitious, most anxiously to approach your Majesty with all those Feelings of Joy, Congratulation and Gladness of Heart, which an Occasion so fortuitous in itself cannot fail to inspire, and a Blessing so nationally great and important must necessarily lead to express.

What we were in the Possession of under your Majesty's mild and exemplary Government we knew; to part with, we turned our Eyes from: to preserve, within the utmost Limits of Longevity, are, in common with ourselves, the Hopes, the Wishes and the Prayers of a free, a grateful and an united People.

[Delivered by the Earl of Abingdon.]

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY it please your Majesty to accept the dutiful Congratulations of the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Carlisle upon the King's Recovery.

With Joy proportioned to these Sensations, we behold the Return of Happiness, with which it hath pleased God to bless your Majesty and your Royal Offspring.

In this signal Instance of Divine Favor we see a beloved Sovereign restored to a faithful People, an affectionate Husband to the best of Women, a Parent to His Family.

May your Majesty live in the Possession of every earthly Comfort; and may you long afford to the People of this Country an Example of conjugal Virtue rewarded by domestic Happiness!
