Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 25, to Tuesday April 28, 1789.

Whitehall, April 28.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Hon. Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Saint David's, penetrated with the liveliest Sense of Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Events for the Mercy which it hath pleased Him to extend to us, in common with every Class and Description of your People, by the speedy and complete Recovery of your Majesty from a Malady which was justly considered as a Visitation of the Nation's Sins, beg Permission, with all Humility, to testify our Joy on that happy Occasion.

In those remote Corners of your Kingdom, in which our Lot is cast, we live, Sire, distant from your Court, but not insensible from what Center the Comforts flow, which we have long enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

The Storm which threatened our own Happiness in the Sacred Person of your Majesty, was seen by us with Dread and Difinay, and filled our humble Cottages with the Voice of Lamentation and Distress. Our Prayers shall not cease to be offered up to Him, whose Mercy hath suddenly turned our Mourning into Joy, that your Majesty may long be preserved to receive the grateful Tribute of a loyal People's Love and Duty; and that when you shall lae be called to exchange an earthly for an eternal Crown, you may, with your Sceptre, transmit to your Illustrious Heir those Royal Virtues which have endeared you to your Subjects, that parental Love of your People, that vigilant Concern for the Public Weal, that Attachment to the Constitution, that Reverence for Religion, and that Regard for the established Church, which are the Gems of brightest Lustre in the Regal Diadem.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Flint, beg Leave (with Hearts filled with that Zeal and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, which hath ever subsisted with Sincerity in the Breasts of your faithful People, and with none more so than amongst your Majesty's loyal and ancient Britons residing in your County of Flint) to offer our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from that late severe Visitation with which it pleased the Almighty to afflict you, and which in it's Consequences extended itself most severely to your Majesty's august and affectionate House, and to your united Kingdoms.

True Loyalty and Affection are best proved by strong Attachment in the Hour of Adversity. The Grief which all Ranks of People expressed on your Majesty's Indisposition, and the universal Joy displayed upon your Recovery, is the most decided Criterion of your possessing that steady Loyalty and unalterable Affection which your Majesty's Virtues so eminently demand.

May your Majesty's Health, thus providentially and opportunely restored, be uninterrupted, and enable your Majesty in Prosperity and Peace long to exercise and direct the Reins of Government over a grateful, happy and free People.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

John Fitz Gerald, Sheriff.

[Delivered by Sir Roger Meffyn, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County, and Major Williams, Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Flint.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, beg Leave on this joyful and important Occasion to convey to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on your Restoration to Health and to the Functions of Government; an Event for which all your Majesty's Subjects have Reason to return their most grateful Thanks to Heaven, and to pray for it's uninterrupted Continuance, that under your auspicious Reign we may continue to enjoy those inestimable Blessings, both Civil and Religious, which hitherto we have happily experienced, and your Majesty the exalted Pleasure of reigning in the Hearts of a free, loyal and affectionate People.

At the same Time that with unfeigned Loyalty we congratulate your Majesty on your Restoration to Health and Government, we cannot but with all due due Humility and Respect join with your Majesty in the warmest Acknowledgments for the additional Proofs which the Two other Estates of the Realm have given during your Majesty's severe Indisposition, and the temporary Suspension of the Executive Power, of their Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and of their zealous Concern for the Honor and Interest of your Crown, and good Government of your Majesty's Dominions.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. Lord Digby, Lord Lieutenant; Anthony Chapman, Esq; Sheriff; and Francis John Browne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the Divine Interposition of Providence in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health: And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no Part of your Kingdom can be more deeply impressed with the Blessings derived to us from this happy Event than are your loyal Subjects of this County.

T. T. Cock, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Radnor, Beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Recovery from your late Indisposition. We consider this Event as one of the most fortunate Benefits which the Divine Providence ever granted to the fervent Prayers of a Nation: At the same Time that we express our Sense of this inestimable Blessing, we feel ourselves indispensably called upon to assure your Majesty, we are happy to reflect that the Measures adopted by the Two Houses of Parliament, during the Interval of your Majesty's Illness, supported and confirmed as they have been by the prevailing Voice of the Country, have afforded your Majesty fresh Proofs of that unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and that Regard for the true Principles of the Constitution, as well as of that anxious Concern for the good Government of your Dominions, which it is evident are rooted in the Hearts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

We earnestly entreat your Majesty will be pleased to believe, that the loyal Inhabitants of the County of Radnor are as anxious that your Majesty may long continue to rule over a dutiful and affectionate People, as the Subjects of any Part of your Majesty's Dominions can be.

[Delivered by the Earl of Oxford, Lord Lieutenant of the County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to express our most ardent Joy and offer our Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Recovery.

We are perfectly sensible that the Welfare of your Majesty's Royal Person is of the utmost Importance to the Prosperity of your Kingdoms; we have suffered the deepest Sorrows and Anxiety during your Majesty's late Illness; and we can now most truly profess our unbounded Joy and Satisfaction on the Restoration of your Health.

We shall make our Thanksgivings to Almighty God for the Favours conferred upon us, and shall implore the Continuance of your Majesty's Health to a late Period of human Life, to the Glory of your Majesty, and the Happiness of your People.

At a County Meeting, April 22, 1789.

We also devoutly hope that Divine Providence, which has been so visibly indulgent to the Prayers and Wishes of a supplicating Nation, will long, very long, preserve to these favoured Realms a Sovereign whom we have so much Reason to revere and love for all the Qualities which can justly endear a beneficent King to a grateful and loyal People.

[Delivered by the Earl of Chatham.]

This Tribute of dutiful Attachment is justly due to your Royal

Royal Person; for while our Civil Rights have been uniformly protected and cherished by your paternal Care, in you we also behold the tender and faithful Guardian of our Religious Liberties.

That your Majesty may be ever directed by the all-wise God in the great and weighty Affairs of your Government; that your Royal Person may be long preserved in Health and Safety for the Defence of our Holy Religion, and the Welfare of all your Dominions; that our Gracious Queen, the Prince of Wales, and the whole Royal Family, may be enriched with all the Blessings of the Divine Goodness; that at last you may inherit a Crown of Glory; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Progeny to sway the Sceptre of these Realms, are the constant and fervent Prayers of,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Merchants, Manufacturers and others, Citizens and Inhabitants of Aberdeen, hereto subscribing.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

THE Indisposition with which your Majesty has been lately afflicted, has occasioned in the Minds of an affectionate People the most lively Grief and unaffected Concern; and almost no Opportunity could have occurred by which so general and cordial Attachment to your Royal Person, and the deepest Sense of Duty and Obligation to the Brunswick Family, could have been more conspicuously demonstrated. During a Period of the most painful and anxious Solicitude, all Descriptions of your Subjects, Sire, were earnestly and unremittingly employed in fervent Prayers to Heaven for your Majesty's Recovery; and with the most grateful Acknowledgments to the Almighty for the happy Event, we now presume, with Sentiments of the utmost Respect and Duty, to join in the general Joy, and to present to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations, on an Occasion which will be long remembered as an Æra of public Favour from Heaven, and the most solid Ground of Thankfulness to a loyal and affectionate People.

With the most heartfelt Satisfaction, and sincerest Gratitude to Heaven, we no less participate in the Happiness and Joy which your Majesty must now experience, than we did in the deep Affliction in which your Majesty and your Illustrious Family were involved during our beloved King's severe Indisposition. And we devoutly pray that nothing may interrupt that public Joy and Tranquility, and that domestic Comfort and Satisfaction, which by His Majesty's happy Recovery are restored and confirmed. Long may our Sovereign live; and reign no less as a Blessing to His faithful and loyal Subjects, than to your Majesty and to every Branch of your Illustrious Family.

WE, James Earl of Findlater and Seafield, Hereditary Constable, and the Magistrates and Town Council of the Constabulary and Royal Borough of Cullen, assembled in Council, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the Recovery of your Royal Consort.

Your

Your Majesty has long possessed the Affection and Respect of your People, from the brilliant Example of domestic Virtue exhibited in your Conduct, and from the affable and moderate yet dignified Manner in which you have filled the great Political Situation in which, happily for this Country, Providence has placed you.

Those Feelings of a loyal and grateful People have been particularly called forth by the late trying Circumstance of their Sovereign's Indisposition.

Sympathizing in the Affliction, and admiring the Deportment of your Majesty, allow them now to participate in the most cordial Manner the Joy which your Majesty must feel from the happy Event of the King's Recovery.

That your Majesty and our Royal Sovereign may enjoy permanent Felicity, that we may long be blessed under your happy Government, is the earnest Prayer of your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, The Hereditary Constable, Magistrates and Council of Cullen.

The following Addresses having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Archbishop, the Deans and Chapters of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, and of Saint Patrick's, Dublin, and of the Clergy of the City and Diocese of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, the Deans and Chapters of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, and of Saint Patrick's, Dublin, and the Clergy of the City and Diocese of Dublin, penetrated with the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude to Almighty God, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most unfeigned Congratulatory on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late severe Indisposition.

The manifold Blessings which we, in common with every other Class of your Majesty's Subjects, have so uniformly enjoyed under your mild and auspicious Government, call on us (whose peculiar Duty it is to inculcate the Truths of the Gospel) to acknowledge with the most ardent Gratitude the salutary Influence of your Royal Example on the Morals of your People, and the Sense we feel of your Majesty's Efforts for the Advancement of true Religion, by a constant and zealous Protection of the National Church.

Thus, truly sensible of the innumerable Blessings we enjoy under your parental Government, we want Words to express the grateful Feelings of our Hearts on your Majesty's Recovery.

May therefore the benign Dispenser of all good and perfect Gifts vouchsafe to your Majesty the continued Enjoyment of the Blessing of Health, and long preserve to us a Life so beneficial to the Interests of the Christian Church, and so essential to the Prosperity and Happiness of all your Subjects.

Dated this 18th Day of April, 1789.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Governor, Nobility, Clergy, Protestant and Roman Catholic Freeholders, Gentry and Inhabitants of the County of Waterford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Governor, Nobility, Clergy, Protestant and Roman Catholic Freeholders, Gentry and Inhabitants of the County of Waterford, in the Kingdom of Ireland, beg Leave to present our humble Congratulatory on the happy Reiteration of your Majesty's Health.

We are bound to acknowledge the inestimable Goodness of Almighty God, who, in prolonging a Life of such national Consequence, has restored your Majesty to a free and loyal People.

A perfect Knowledge of your Majesty's Royal Virtues, so eminently conspicuous since the Commencement of your Reign, and your Care and Anxiety for the Happiness of your Subjects throughout all your Dominions, opens to our View the fairest Prospect of a Continuance of those Blessings, which, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we have always enjoyed.

No Part of your Majesty's Dominions has received more signal Marks of your Royal Favour, than your Kingdom of Ireland, and no Nation can be more grateful for them; the Jealousy of former Ages has been entirely done away, and your Throne is now fixed on a Foundation never to be shaken.

When we contemplate those Principles of Liberty which originally called the House of Brunswick to the Government of these Realms; and when we reflect that in your Majesty's Person they have gained additional Lustre; we pray to Divine Providence that sacred and unerring Wisdom may ever be your Guide; that Truth and Justice may crown you with every Blessing; and that future Ages may commemorate the Happiness of your Reign with grateful Admiration.

vouchsafed to this Realm under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we do not yield to any of our Fellow Subjects in dutiful and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person, and in ardent Solicitude for the long and prosperous Reign of the well-beloved Father of His People.

The many Blessings and Advantages, both Civil and Religious, which these Nations have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, have justly endeared your Majesty to every Class of your Subjects; we therefore most fervently pray to the Author of every good and perfect Gift, that your Majesty may long live and reign over a free, happy and grateful People.
