Whitehall, May 5.

THE King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Patrick Wilkie, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul at Carthage, in the Room of John Lidderdale, Esq; deceased :

And Daniel Budd, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul at Alicant, in the Room of Patrick Wilkie, Esq;

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King : Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations in the West Riding of the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Events for His special Goodness, we, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations in the West Riding of the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

During the gloomy Period of your Majesty's Affliction, when Sorrow marked the Countenance of every faithful Subject in the Realm, we felt our Hearts deeply affected in the general Distress, and were earnest in our Supplications to Almighty God for your Majesty's speedy Recovery ; and now that His merciful Hand has restored your Majesty's Health, none can more ardently rejoice than we who have the Honour of addressing your Majesty on this joyful Occasion.

Our Joy and Gratitude are more abundant, when we consider the unspeakable Happiness which your amiable Consort and the whole Royal Family must experience upon an Event in Divine Providence so peculiarly gracious.

Being most firmly attached to the Illustrious House of Hanover, we trust it will always be our Study and Pleasure to impress the Minds of our respective Congregations with a due Sense of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, and also to offer up our most fervent Prayers to the King of Kings, that your Majesty may long enjoy uninterrupted Health with every other Comfort in this Life; and finally receive a Crown of Glory which shall never fade away.

[ Delivered by Henry Duncombe, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of York. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late severe and dangerous Indisposition.

Truly sensible of the invaluable Blessings this Nation enjoys under your Majesty's Government, and impressed with Sentiments of the strongest Attachment to your Illustrious Family, we reflect with Joy and Thankfulness on that Event which has restored your Majesty to the Wishes of your affectionate Subjects; and it is our most ardent Prayer to Almighty God, that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a free, grateful and loyal People.

John Christian, Chairman.

[ Delivered by Sir Henry Fletcher, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Cumberland, John Christian, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the City of Carlisle, and William Dickenson, Esq;. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council and Inhabitants of the Borough of Richmond, in the County of York, assembled in the Common Hall of the said Borough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Richmond, beg Leave, with all Humility, to express in this public Manner our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

The Acclamation of general Joy testified to your Majesty by a free and discerning People on this Occasion must convince you of their affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person and Government,
