

ment, and give your Majesty the strongest Proofs that your Subjects feel themselves deeply interested in your Welfare.

May the Divine Providence, to whom we ascribe the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, long continue to you that inestimable Blessing, and every domestic Comfort; and may your Royal Concern for the Public Good ever meet with adequate Returns of Duty, Gratitude and Affection from an honest and manly People.

At the Request and on the Behalf of the Meeting,

R. Wm. Hoyle, Mayor and Chairman.

[ Delivered by Sir Grey Cooper, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Aldermen, Bailiffs and Capital Burgessees of the ancient Borough of Denbigh, beg Leave to present our unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Recovery.

Our Joy on this Occasion is great; it is a Joy which we trust is influenced by private Motives, and unconnected with Party Views, while it directs us humbly to approach our King with Loyalty, and our God with Praise.

Amidst the general and universal Grief occasioned by your Majesty's late severe Indisposition, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects at Denbigh, united in supplicating the Throne of Grace for your speedy Restoration to Health, blessed as we are in the Completion of our Wishes, permit us to present our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty, and to add, that while we return our Praises to the Almighty Disposer of all Events for His Mercy, we shall most earnestly pray, that your Majesty may long reign in perfect Health and Happiness over a happy and loyal People.

By Order of the Meeting.

( Signed, )

Will. Simon, Town Clerk.

[ Delivered by Robert Myddleton, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Debtors confined in your Majesty's Prison of the Fleet.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMRESSED with the most deep and grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness, permit a Part of your Majesty's Subjects (although unfortunately situated, but most firmly attached to your Majesty's Sacred Person) to throw themselves humbly at your Majesty's Feet, and fervently to pour forth their sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

An Event, which while it diffuses Joy through surrounding Nations, is a Confirmation that the Prayer of a People, contritely and solemnly offered, is never rejected by the All-Powerful and Gracious Deity.

And pardon us, Sire! if, in the Fulness of our Joy and Gratitude to the Father of Mercies on this blessed Occasion, we deem your Majesty's Subjects a chosen People, when by so peculiar and signal a Mark of His Providence, the best of Kings is continued to reign over them.

Long, very long, may the Supreme Disposer of the Universe preserve your Majesty in the Plenitude of every earthly Blessing, to be the Guardian of a Constitution which is the Glory of your Majesty's Dominions, and the Admiration of the World.

[ Delivered by Sir Watkin Lewies. ]

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Aldermen, Bailiffs and Capital Burgessees of the ancient Borough of Denbigh, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our most sincere Congratulations upon His Majesty's most happy Recovery; and to assure your Majesty, that we shall not cease to supplicate the Throne of Grace that your Royal Consort's Health may thus continue unimpaired to the Happiness of His People; and that your Majesty may long live an Example to your Sex, and the Glory of the British Empire.

By Order of the Meeting,

Will. Simon, Town Clerk.

[ Transmitted by Robert Myddleton, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that Borough. ]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Debtors confined in His Majesty's Prison of the Fleet.

M A D A M,

THE universal Joy which pervades all Descriptions of His Majesty's loyal Subjects on the happy Recovery of a King who is the Boast and Glory of His People, impels us (although unfortunately situated) most humbly to join our feeble but sincere Congratulations on this blessed Event.

And we trust that benign Condescension, which so eminently characterizes our gracious Queen, to permit us to pour forth the fervent Declaration of Hearts overflowing with Gladness.

While with devout Adoration we contemplate the Mercy and Goodness of the Almighty, by thus restoring the Heart and Life of an afflicted People, in the Re-establishment of the Health of our beloved and revered Sovereign, it is only a Confirmation of the peculiar Care of Providence over these Realms: For His Majesty's Subjects have received signal Proofs of the distinguished Eye the great Arbiter of the World has held over them, when, on the opening of the present auspicious Reign, He placed the best of Kings to rule! And to make their Happiness complete, he united in the Person of your Majesty, the brightest Example of human Perfection.

To Heaven we lowly prostrate ourselves, imploring the great Dispenser of all Good to guard, protect and bless your Majesty to the most distant Period of Existence.
