WE beg Leave in this Manner to approach your Royal Person with our Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery, and also to express our ardent Wishes for the Continuance of your Majesty's Health, whose Life is so essential to the Happiness and Welfare of your People.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that the universal Dejection and Despondency that pervaded this Part of the Kingdom can only be equalled by the sincere Joy we now feel at seeing your Majesty seated on that Throne which has been filled for such a Length of Time with so much Honor to yourself, and Advantage to this Nation.

And we beg Leave to repeat our Attachment and Loyalty to your Majesty, and to offer Almighty God our most fervent Prayers, that He will grant Health, Happiness and long Life to the best of Sovereigns.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Provost, Burgeses and Freemen of the Borough of Tralee, with all Humility presume to assure your Majesty that our present Joy and Transport on your most providential Recovery can be equalled only by the deep Affliction which we felt during your late alarming Indisposition. We prostrate ourselves before God for His signal Mercy in restoring our beloved Sovereign to the Prayers of His desponding and afflicted People. Your Kingdom of Ireland owes to your Majesty's Wisdom and Justice the Blessings of a free Constitution and unrestrained Commerce. We should therefore be dead to all Sense of our own Interest, as well as of Duty and Gratitude, if we ever ceased most fervently to pray for the uninterrupted Health and happy Reign of the common and equal Father of all His People.

Signed, by Order of the Corporation,

Tho. Collins, Provost.

Tralee, April 27, 1789.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Burgeses and Freemen of the Borough of Tralee, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on the providential Recovery of our most Gracious Sovereign. Even in the Midst of our own Affliction it was impossible not to feel for the peculiar Sufferings of your Majesty. The eminent Virtues of our amiable Queen, the Delight of Her Illustrious Family, the Pride of the British Empire, and the Admiration of the World, intitled Her to and demanded our liveliest Sympathy. Had it been possible to advance your Majesty in the Love and Veneration of an affectionate People, your Conduct on the late severe Trial must have had that Effect. May your Majesty long enjoy the Reward of such unexampled Purity, of Virtue so soaring to our beloved King, so rare and admirable in a dissipated Age, and so acceptable to God. May you both long continue to enjoy each others Excellence unembittered by Infirmary, and followed by the Homage and ardent Prayers of a grateful and devoted People.

Signed, by Order,

Tho. Collins, Provost.
