Whitehall, May 9.

THE King has been pleased to grant to the Right Honourable James Lord Malmesbury, and his Issue, His Royal Licence and Authority, in Pursuance of the Royal Permission of the King of Prussia, under his Signet and Sign Manual, bearing Date the 21st Day of October last, to add to the Arms of his Family the Black Eagle of Prussia, either Quarterly, or as one of his Supporters, as a public Mark of his Prussian Majesty's Esteem and Regard, and as a Memorial of the Satisfaction he derived from his Conduct, in the Character of His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces, during the late Revolution in that Country, as well as from his Services in cementing the Union between the two Crowns, by the Treaty lately signed at Loo, (such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms.) And the King has been further pleased to grant to the said James Lord Malmesbury His Royal Licence and Authority, in Compliance with the Request of the Prince of Orange, by Letter written with his own Hand, dated the 8th of October last, to take and use the Motto of His Serene Highness's House; "Je maintiendrai." in Commemoration of the abovementioned Revolution: And His Majesty has also been pleased to order that this His Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend David Brown to the Church and Parish of Crailing, in the Presbitery of Jedburgh and Shire of Roxborough, vacant by the Death of the Reverend Robert Deans:

Also the Reverend Thomas Burns to the Church and Parish of Renfrew, in the Presbitery of Paisley and County of Renfrew, vacant by the Death of the Reverend Colin Campbell:

And the Reverend Joseph Smith to the Church and Parish of Birse, in the Presbitery of Kincardine O'Neil and County of Aberdeen, vacant by the Death of the Reverend George Knowles.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the President, Vice-Presidents, Directors and Members of the Humane Society of London.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Directors and Members of the Humane Society of London, beg Permission to approach your Royal Person with the warmest Professions of the Cordiality and Zeal with which we take Part in the general Joy on the Event of your Majesty's happy Restoration to Health, and the Exercise of your Authority, the Object of the united Prayers of an affectionate and loyal People.

The gracious Patronage which your Majesty hath vouchsafed to extend to our Society is a striking Mark of parental Affection embracing the Interests and Wants of the lowest of your Subjects.

Long may your Majesty reign the Monarch of your Peoples Hearts, the Patron of Science and the Arts, and the Guardian, under God, of Religion and the Constitution.

[Delivered by the Rev. John Pridden, A. M.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Society of the Antiquaries of Scotland, who derived our Existence as a Body Corporate from your Majesty's peculiar Patronage, from your Love of Science, and from Affection to your People, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Sentiments of Joy for your happy Recovery from the Indisposition with which you was lately afflicted.

That Providence may long preserve your Majesty to be the Father of your People, the munificent Encourager of Literature, and of all the useful and ornamental Arts of Life, is the most fervent Wish of this Society.

Signed, by Appointment of a General Meeting of the Society, by

Wm. Tytler, Vice-President.

[Delivered by the Marquis of Graham.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Galloway.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, deeply impressed with the Sense of the Goodness of the Almighty God in restoring your Majesty to your People, and in establishing your Majesty's Health, approach your Royal Person with the warmest Congratulations.

Under your Majesty's Reign Religion has been protected and encouraged, the two Sister Establishments have experienced your Majesty's Care as their Nursing Father, and Dissenters of every Denomination dwell in Safety. When we consider these Things, and at the same Time think of your Majesty's happy Recovery, our Hearts unite in adoring the Goodness of the Most High, who ruleth over All.
