

That your Majesty may long be preserved as the Guardian of our Rights, Civil and Religious; and that your Majesty's Descendants may continue to sway the Sceptre over a free, grateful and happy People to the latest Posterity, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Galloway.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, at Newtonstewart, on the 28th Day of April, 1789 Years, by Peter Fergusson, Moderator.

[Delivered by the Earl of Galloway.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury and Gentlemen, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the North Riding of the County of York, at Northallerton, this 21st Day of April, 1789, beg Leave to take this Opportunity of expressing our heartfelt Joy and Satisfaction on the happy and providential Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

Your Majesty's paternal Concern for the Public Welfare, and the Benefit we derive from your wise and auspicious Government, most justly endear your Majesty to your Subjects, and increase our Anxiety for the Preservation of your invaluable Life.

To reign in the Hearts of a free People is the most honourable Object of Ambition to which any Monarch can aspire. The Voice of Truth and Gratitude proclaim your Majesty's undoubted Right to that illustrious Distinction, and we trust it will ever continue the brightest Jewel in your Crown.

May that Gracious Providence, to whom we owe the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, long continue to you that inestimable Blessing, attended with the Accession of every domestic Comfort; and may your Royal Solitude for the Public Prosperity ever meet with adequate Returns of Duty and Affection from a grateful and loyal People.

[Delivered by Earl Fauconberg, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the North Riding of the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the numerous Congratulations that have been presented to your Majesty on the distinguished Goodness of the Almighty in restoring the Father of His People to the general Prayers of His Subjects, permit the Portreeve, Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, in the County of Somerset, with every Sentiment of the most devout Gratitude to God, and of unshaken Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, to offer to your Majesty on this auspicious Occasion their humble and most heartfelt Tribute of Joy and Exultation.

Deeply sensible of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under the best of Kings, it will be the unwearied Language of our Hearts, the constant Prayer of our Lives, that your Majesty, blessed amidst uninterrupted Health, with every Source of public and domestic Happiness, may long continue to reign over a free, united and a grateful People. And when the Almighty Disposer of Events shall call you to Himself for still nobler Purposes, may your Successors to the British Crown, by treading in the Steps and venerating the Sacred Character of George the Third, by displaying the same paternal Attachment to the Civil and Religious Liberties of our Country, and studying like your Majesty to promote the Happiness of their Subjects, receive on every Occasion the same sincere and unbounded Testimonies of their Loyalty and Affection.

Dated at Chard, this 1st Day of May, 1789.

[Delivered by Sir Alexander Hood, K. B. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Bridgewater.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Officers, Clerks, Inferior Officers and Artificers, &c. employed in your Majesty's Dock and Rope Yards at Woolwich, and the Officers, &c. of your Majesty's Ships in Ordinary in the Port of Woolwich.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers, Clerks, Inferior Officers and Artificers employed in your Majesty's Dock and Rope Yards at Woolwich, and the Officers, &c. of your Majesty's Ships in Ordinary in the Port of Woolwich, most humbly beg Leave to express our heartfelt Joy and Thankfulness on the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, and to offer our most sincere and grateful Congratulations on the happy Event, to express our Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, to our most Gracious Queen and your illustrious Family; ever fervently praying the Divine Providence, (that has been favourably pleased to hear the Prayers and Petitions of your Majesty's faithful Subjects in restoring your Majesty to your former Health, and the Comfort of the whole British Nation) that He will be pleased to grant to your Majesty a long Continuance of Health, and every other Blessing, and extend the same to every Part of your Royal Family to the latest Posterity, and to the Happiness of a loyal and grateful People.

[Delivered by the Earl of Chatham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Borough of Kirkwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of Kirkwall, beg Leave humbly to approach your Sacred Person with our most cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from a tedious and painful Illness.

Although situated in the remotest District of the British Islands, we are not the less sensible of the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and equitable Government; nor are our Supplications to Almighty God the less ardent for the Continuance of your Majesty's auspicious Reign over a free, a grateful and an affectionate People.

Signed at Kirkwall, the 10th of April, 1789, in Name and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Kirkwall, by Robert Laing, Provost.

[Delivered by Sir Thomas Dundas, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Stirling.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Burntisland.

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Burntisland, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude to God, and of Loyalty and Attachment
