

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 12, to Saturday May 16, 1789.

AT the Court at Kew, the 15th Day of May, 1789,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Sir William Wynne, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint George Duke of Montagu to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Huntingdon, his Grace this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint Thomas Fowell Buxton, of Earls Colne, Esquire, to be Sheriff of the County of Essex, in the Room of Henry Mertins Bird, of Dagenham, Esquire; William Taylor, of Tillington, Esquire, to be Sheriff of the County of Hereford, in the Room of Thomas Clutton, of Kinnerley, Esquire; and George Templar, of Shapwick, Esquire, to be Sheriff of the County of Somerset, in the Room of Henry Hippeley Coxe, of Downside, Esquire.

Whitehall, May 16.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Alleyne Fitz-Herbert, to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery from the Illness with which you have been afflicted.

If any new Proof were wanting of the zealous Attachment of your People to your Majesty's Person and Government, it would be found in the Anxiety and Concern which they manifested during the melancholy Period of your Majesty's Indisposition: We beg your Majesty to believe, that as we deeply lamented that Calamity, so we warmly rejoice in your happy Restoration to your Health, and to the Exercise of that Authority which has uniformly been exerted for the Good of your People. That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and grateful People is our most sincere and fervent Prayer.

Hugh Rose, Praeses.

Dornock, April 29, 1789.

[Delivered by Lieutenant-General Grant, Representative in Parliament for that County.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweedale, take this Opportunity of our first Meeting to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Recovery from a late alarming Illness, and beg Leave to approach your Throne on this joyful Occasion with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God, and warm with Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty.

As the long Experience we had of your Majesty's wise and legal Government, our sincere Affection for your Person, and our just Veneration for your many Royal and Christian Virtues, made us feel the deepest Anxiety and Affliction during your Majesty's alarming Illness, so the kind Interposition of Providence, in Answer to the most fervent Prayers of the Nation, which restored your Majesty to perfect Health and to the Exercise of all the Functions of Government, raised in our Hearts, and in the Hearts of all the People under our Care, the most unfeigned Joy for our Deliverance, and the most cordial Gratitude to Heaven for so great a Blessing.

That God Almighty, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may long preserve your Majesty to be the Guardian of the British Constitution, which is the Source of Liberty and the Security of the Throne; that He may continue to bless you with the increasing Affection of a free, a happy and a loyal People; that the Almighty may bless and long preserve your Royal Consort the Queen; that in your Majesty's Health and long Life, and

In the Prosperity and dutiful Affection of the Royal Offspring, She may reap the Reward of Her conjugal and maternal Virtues; that He may bless his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, and all the Branches of your Illustrious Family; and that a Race of Kings descended of your Majesty may to the latest Posterity inherit your Crown and your Virtues, are the earnest and constant Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial
Synod of Lothian and Tweedale.
Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Cba. Findater, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 5, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Stockbridge, in the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to offer our most unfeigned and warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on your Majesty's perfect Restoration to Health, and resuming the Reins of Government.

Under such Impressions of Mind, we render our sincere Thanks to Almighty God, who hath so speedily restored your Majesty to the Exercise of that Power so delegated from Him to your Sacred Person.

We likewise implore the Almighty to continue to your Majesty a long Life and uninterrupted State of Health; and that, for the further Comfort of your Majesty, we ardently wish that Health and Length of Days may be granted to Her Majesty our most Gracious and beloved Queen.

We also beg that you will be graciously pleased to suffer us to return your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for the Obligations we lay under to your Majesty in having made Choice of such Ministers, and they of such Friends, whose Talents are not less distinguished through their Integrity in their Care to preserve your Majesty's Rights, having been equal to those of your faithful and affectionate People.

That your Majesty may long live the Guardian of our Laws and Constitution is the pure and honest Prayer of your ever loyal Subjects, this 30th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Chandos.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dornock.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dornock, humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our warmest Congratulations on the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

The universal Despondency during your Majesty's Illness, and the universal Joy which your Recovery has occasioned, afford convincing Proofs of your Peoples Veneration for your Virtues, and of their zealous Attachment to your Person and Government.

We earnestly pray, that the Continuance of your Majesty's Health may long secure the Happiness of your Subjects and the Prosperity of the State.

Geo. Sutherland, B.

[Delivered by Lieutenant-General Grant, Representative in Parliament for the County of Sutherland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Incorporated Company, the Master, Assistants, Wardens and Commonalty of Blanket Weavers, inhabiting in Witney, in the County of Oxford, or within Twenty Miles thereof, emboldened by your Majesty's most gracious Condescension to us, most humbly presume to lay at the Foot of your Throne our most sincere Congratulations for the Recovery of your Majesty (through Divine Providence) from your late indisposition, and restoring you to a perfect and confirmed State of Health; an Event of the utmost Consequence to your Majesty's Subjects throughout all your Dominions, and by whom it has been received with the greatest general Joy, in which we most heartily participated. May your Majesty continue to enjoy the Blessing of Health to the latest Period of your Life. May your Reign be long! very long! prosperous and happy, over a loyal, zealous and affectionate People, which will insure Happiness to them, and Honor and Glory to your Illustrious Family.

John Early, jun. Master.

[Delivered by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, High Steward of the Company.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Quinborowe, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt Congratulations on your happy Recovery from the alarming Illness with which you have been afflicted; an Event which fills us, in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, with the sincerest Joy; and to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

That your Majesty, thus happily restored to the Exercise of your Royal Authority, may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free and loyal People, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

Given under the Corporation Seal of this Borough, the 8th Day of May, 1789.

Geo. Evans Baker, Mayor.

[Delivered by Vice-Admiral Evans.]

The following Address having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has been by him presented to the Queen: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Incorporated Company, the Master, Assistants, Wardens and Commonalty of Blanket Weavers, inhabiting in Witney, in the County of Oxford, or within Twenty Miles thereof, encouraged by your Majesty's most gracious Condescension to us, humbly presume to lay before your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations for the late Mercies (through Divine Providence) vouchsafed to your Majesty and the Subjects of these Kingdoms, in restoring our most Gracious

Gracious Sovereign from His late Indisposition to a perfect and confirmed State of Health.

While we lamented the sad Effects of His Majesty's Indisposition, our Grief was the more imbibed by the great Affliction it occasioned to the most excellent and best of Queens. But, Thanks to the Almighty, that Gloom is expelled, and universal Joy now pervades throughout these Kingdoms for the happy Restoration of His Majesty to Health, and for the great Comfort and Happiness your Majesty must feel on the Occasion.

May His Majesty continue to enjoy the Blessing of Health to the latest Period of His Life. May His Reign be long! very long! prosperous and happy, over a loyal, zealous and affectionate People; and may your Majesty share and partake of those Blessings with your Royal Consort, and live long to the bright Example of all your Sex, and to the Felicity and Happiness of the best of Kings.

John Early, jun. Matter.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, High Steward of the Company.]

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Ossory.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Ossory, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Reverence and Gratitude to Almighty God for His Goodness in restoring your Majesty to the ardent Prayers of your People, and humbly solicit that we may be permitted to join in the dutiful Congratulations of your faithful Subjects upon the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

Duly sensible of the Virtues and unremitting Attention of our Sovereign to the Welfare and Prosperity of His Kingdoms, we are animated with the warmest Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty to His Sacred Person and Crown.

And it is our fervent and constant Prayer, that He may long continue to dispense the Blessings of His mild and just Government among a free, united and happy People.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Ossory.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Ossory, humbly entreat Permission to lay at your Majesty's Feet our sincere Congratulations on the signal Recovery of our beloved Sovereign from His late Indisposition.

We have long beheld your Majesty amiable and dignified in the uniform Discharge of every public and private Duty; but the Piety and Fortitude displayed by your Majesty during the late most severe Trials, could not fail to excite our Admiration and increase our Respect and Veneration for so distinguished a Character.

May the same Almighty Power, that has deigned to hear our Petitions, continue to His Majesty the inestimable Blessing of Health, and grant that He and His Royal Consort may long live to be a Blessing to each other, and enjoy every Happiness that can be derived from the Duty and Attachment of a loyal and happy People.
