

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 12, to Saturday May 16, 1789.

AT the Court at Kew, the 15th Day of May, 1789,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Sir William Wynne, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint George Duke of Montagu to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Huntingdon, his Grace this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken, thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint Thomas Fowell Buxton, of Earls Colne, Esquire, to be Sheriff of the County of Essex, in the Room of Henry Mertins Bird, of Dagenham, Esquire; William Taylor, of Tillington, Esquire, to be Sheriff of the County of Hereford, in the Room of Thomas Clutton, of Kinnerley, Esquire; and George Templar, of Shapwick, Esquire, to be Sheriff of the County of Somerset, in the Room of Henry Hippesley Coxe, of Downside, Esquire.

Whitehall, May 16.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Alleyne Fitz-Herbert, to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery from the Illness with which you have been affliction.

If any new Proof were wanting of the zealous Attachment of your People to your Majesty's Person and Government, it would be found in the Anxiety and Concern which they manifested during the melancholy Period of your Majesty's Indisposition. We beg your Majesty to believe, that as we deeply lamented that Calamity, so we warmly rejoice in your happy Restoration to your Health, and to the Exercise of that Authority which has uniformly been exerted for the Good of your People. That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and grateful People is our most sincere and fervent Prayer.

Hugh Rose, Praes.

Dornock, April 29, 1789.

[Delivered by Lieutenant-General Grant, Representative in Parliament for that County.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweedale, take this Opportunity of our first Meeting to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Recovery from a late alarming Illness, and beg Leave to approach your Throne on this joyful Occasion with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God, and warm with Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty.

As the long Experience we had of your Majesty's wise and legal Government, our sincere Affection for your Person, and our just Veneration for your many Royal and Christian Virtues, made us feel the deepest Anxiety and Affliction during your Majesty's alarming Illness, so the kind Interposition of Providence, in Answer to the most fervent Prayers of the Nation, which restored your Majesty to perfect Health and to the Exercise of all the Functions of Government, raised in our Hearts, and in the Hearts of all the People under our Care, the most unfeigned Joy for our Deliverance, and the most cordial Gratitude to Heaven for so great a Blessing.

That God Almighty, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may long preserve your Majesty to be the Guardian of the British Constitution, which is the Source of Liberty and the Security of the Throne; that He may continue to bless you with the increasing Affection of a free, a happy and a loyal People; that the Almighty may bless and long preserve your Royal Consort the Queen; that in your Majesty's Health and long Life, and