

In the Prosperity and dutiful Affection of the Royal Offspring, She may reap the Reward of Her conjugal and maternal Virtues; that He may bless his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, and all the Branches of your Illustrious Family; and that a Race of Kings descended of your Majesty may to the latest Posterity inherit your Crown and your Virtues, are the earnest and constant Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial
Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale.
Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Cba. Findater, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 5, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Stockbridge, in the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to offer our most unfeigned and warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on your Majesty's perfect Restoration to Health, and resuming the Reins of Government.

Under such Impressions of Mind, we render our sincere Thanks to Almighty God, who hath so speedily restored your Majesty to the Exercise of that Power so delegated from Him to your Sacred Person.

We likewise implore the Almighty to continue to your Majesty a long Life and uninterrupted State of Health; and that, for the further Comfort of your Majesty, we ardently wish that Health and Length of Days may be granted to Her Majesty our most Gracious and beloved Queen.

We also beg that you will be graciously pleased to suffer us to return your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for the Obligations we lay under to your Majesty in having made Choice of such Ministers, and they of such Friends, whose Talents are not less distinguished through their Integrity in their Care to preserve your Majesty's Rights, having been equal to those of your faithful and affectionate People.

That your Majesty may long live the Guardian of our Laws and Constitution is the pure and honest Prayer of your ever loyal Subjects, this 30th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Chandos.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dornock.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dornock, humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our warmest Congratulations on the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

The universal Despondency during your Majesty's Illness, and the universal Joy which your Recovery has occasioned, afford convincing Proofs of your Peoples Veneration for your Virtues, and of their zealous Attachment to your Person and Government.

We earnestly pray, that the Continuance of your Majesty's Health may long secure the Happiness of your Subjects and the Prosperity of the State.

Geo. Sutherland, B.

[Delivered by Lieutenant-General Grant, Representative in Parliament for the County of Sutherland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Incorporated Company, the Master, Assistants, Wardens and Commonalty of Blanket Weavers, inhabiting in Witney, in the County of Oxford, or within Twenty Miles thereof, emboldened by your Majesty's most gracious Condescension to us, most humbly presume to lay at the Foot of your Throne our most sincere Congratulations for the Recovery of your Majesty (through Divine Providence) from your late indisposition, and restoring you to a perfect and confirmed State of Health; an Event of the utmost Consequence to your Majesty's Subjects throughout all your Dominions, and by whom it has been received with the greatest general Joy, in which we most heartily participated. May your Majesty continue to enjoy the Blessing of Health to the latest Period of your Life. May your Reign be long! very long! prosperous and happy, over a loyal, zealous and affectionate People, which will insure Happiness to them, and Honor and Glory to your Illustrious Family.

John Early, jun. Master.

[Delivered by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, High Steward of the Company.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Quinborowe, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our heartfelt Congratulations on your happy Recovery from the alarming Illness with which you have been afflicted; an Event which fills us, in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, with the sincerest Joy; and to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

That your Majesty, thus happily restored to the Exercise of your Royal Authority, may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free and loyal People, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

Given under the Corporation Seal of this Borough, the 8th Day of May, 1789.

Geo. Evans Baker, Mayor.

[Delivered by Vice-Admiral Evans.]

The following Address having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has been by him presented to the Queen: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Incorporated Company, the Master, Assistants, Wardens and Commonalty of Blanket Weavers, inhabiting in Witney, in the County of Oxford, or within Twenty Miles thereof, encouraged by your Majesty's most gracious Condescension to us, humbly presume to lay before your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations for the late Mercies (through Divine Providence) vouchsafed to your Majesty and the Subjects of these Kingdoms, in restoring our most
