And to Thirteen Private Bills.

Whitehall, May 19.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan, truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and firmly attached by every Sentiment of Affection and Gratitude to your Royal Person, lamented with the deepest Concern your Majesty's late Indisposition, and beg Leave to express our most unfeigned and ardent Joy and Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Reiteration to Health.

That your Majesty and our most Gracious Queen may enjoy every domestic Felicity, and long reign over a free, grateful and affectionate People, are our most sincere and fervent Prayers.

[Delivered by the Earl of Lisburne, Lord Lieutenant and Representative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Officers, in Behalf of themselves, their Subordinate Officers and Clerks, and the several Classes of Artificers and others serving in your Majesty's Dock Yard, and on Board the Ships in Ordinary at Deptford, Humbly implore Permission unanimously to present their most earnest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

sion, the greatest Blessing this Kingdom could receive! To offer up their Praises and Thank-giving to Almighty God for this Instance of His particular Providence! To unite their fervent Prayers to those of the Nation at large in supplicating the Divine Disposer of all Events to continue to your Majesty the inestimable Blessing of Health and uninterrupted Happiness! That the best of Kings may yet many Years reign over and in the Hearts of His loyal and affectionate Subjects, the happiest People on Earth; and that the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and every Branch of the Royal Family, may live and be Partakers of those Blessings, will ever be the ardent Prayers of your Majesty's faithful and affectionate Subjects.

Signed at Deptford Yard, this 24th Day of April, 1789, for ourselves and One Thousand Three Hundred and Forty-two other Persons employed in the Yard, and on board the Ships in Ordinary.

Benj. Hunter.
Wm. Mathews, Storekeeper.
M. Ware.
R. Rosewell.
Peter Butt.

[Delivered by the Earl of Chatham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's unfortunate Subjects, Prisoners for Debt in Gloucester County Gaol, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person by our congratulatory Address upon your late happy Restoration to Health. Accept it, gracious Sire, as a grateful Tribute we owe, as well to Almighty God for His Goodness in giving you back to the Prayer of your People, as to your Majesty, in Remembrance of your Royal Bounty extended last Summer to those who were then in our present humiliating Situation, of whom about Sixteen have been thereby liberated; and although some of us (who are the most ancient, and have been upwards of Seven Years in Confinement through the Inhumanity of the Plaintiffs, notwithstanding the assiduous Interposition of his Lordship the Bishop of Gloucester,) received not the smallest Relief therefrom; yet we cannot but see and admire the Benevolence your Majesty graciously intended us; and therefore think ourselves in a peculiar Manner bound to praise God on your Behalf, and to make our continual Supplications to the Throne of Divine Grace, that the inestimable Blessing of Health which is restored may be uninterruptedly continued.

And that your Majesty, your Royal Consort our most amiable Queen, and every Branch of your Illustrious Family, may long live and enjoy every Blessing that Royalty itself is capable of enjoying in this Life; and after Death you may, one and all, be made Partakers of Felicity, more pure, exalted and durable in the World to come.

Dated at Gloucester County Gaol, the 11th Day of May, 1789.

[Presented by the Honourable George Berkeley, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Gloucester.]
