Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

. W. Fawkener.

The FORM of the LICENCE directed by this Order.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majerty's Customs, Subsidies and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [Name of the Person] one of His Majesty's Subjects, residing at [Place where] hath given Notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's [Customs in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to kade at [some Port of the United States in America] and import into [some Port in the Prevince of Quebec, or the Countries bordering on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, or in the Islands there, or on the Coast of Labrador,] in the [Ship's Name] being a British built Ship [describing the Tonnage, and what Sort of Vessel] navigated according to Law, whereof [Master's Name] is Master, bound to [swbere] and it appearing by the Register of the said Ship [or other sufficient Proof, as the Case may be,] that the [Ship's Name] whereof [Master's Name] was built at [Place where] and owned by [Owner's Name] was built at [Place where] all His Majesty's British Subjects, and that no Foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any Share, Part, or Interest therein.

Now be it known that the faid [Person's Name] hath Licence to lade on board the faid Ship, [Ship's Name], at and from any Port or Place belonging to the United States of America, Bread, Flour, and Indian Corn, the Produce of the faid United States, and no other Article whatfoever, and to carry the faid Bread, Flour, and Indian Corn, to some Port or Place in the Province of Quebec, or the Countries bordering on the Gulf of St. Lawrence, or in the Islands there, or on the Coast of Labrador, and on the Arrival of the faid Ship at any Port, Harbour, or Place of Discharge in the faid Province, Countries, Islands, or Coast, the Master or Person having the Charge or Command of the faid Ship is required and enjoined to deliver up the faid Licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, or, in Case there shall be no Officer of the Customs, to the Naval Officer at fuch Port, Harbour, or Place, and to endorse on the Back thereof the Marks, Numbers, and Contents of each Package of Bread, Flour, or . Indian Corn, and shall thereupon receive a Certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This Licence to continue in Force for Seven Calendar Months from the Date hereof.

Signed by Us the

at the this Day of One Thousand Seven Hundred and

Licence to Import Bread, Flour and Indian Corn, the Produce of the United States of America, into the Province of Quebec, or the Countries bordering on the Gulph of St. Lawrence, or into the Islands there, or to the Coast of Labrador.

W.F.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 23, 1789.

Notice is hereby given, that there will be a Drawing Room at St. James's on Thursday the 4th of June next. which will be the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-Day.

Whitehall, May 23.

The following Addresses having been delivered to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the County of Hants.

Most Gracious Sourceign!

WIE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Differenting Ministers of the County of Hants, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery, and with Hearts sull of Gratitude to God for the Kindness He hath hereby shewn to this highly favoured Nation. No Subjects in your Realm were more deeply afflicted during your Majesty's Illness than we and our respective Congregations: None implored with greater Fervour the Interposition of Heaven; and none can more cordially rejoice in your Majesty's auspicious Restoration. It is our devout Wish that the King of Kings may long preserve your Majesty, as the Father of a loyal and happy People, and the Patron of Civil and Religious Liberty; and, after a prosperous Reign on Earth, may your Majesty receive a Crown of Glory which fadeth not away.

[Delivered by Mr. Serjeant Watfon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

W.E., your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenters in Plymouth, Plymouth Dock, Kingsbridge and Ashburton, beg Leave, by these Presents, to approach your Royal Feet, to testify our sirm Attachment to your Majesty, and your Illustrious House; and to express the Sentiments of our heart-felt Joy for the unspeakable Goodness of Almighty God, vouchsafed to your Majesty in a happy and perfect Recovery from your late alarming Indisposition.

This is an Event, beloved Sovereign, for which

This is an Event, beloved Sovereign, for which we have been earneftly praying, and for which, we trust, we shall never forget to praise God.

We largely share in the general Consolation of your People, and particularly in the inexpressible Happiness and Comfort that so joyful an Occasion cannot but administer to our most amiable Queen, and all the Royal Family.

With all Gratitude we acknowledge the numberless Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's gracious Government; and we daily pray, that the Supreme Lord of Heaven and Earth may long preferve your important Life and Health to sway the Sceptre of these Kingdoms in Righteousness; and when this earthly Crown shall sade, that He would place on your Head a Crown of immortal Glory.

[Delivered by John Rolle and John Bastard, Esgrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of Devon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Heretors of the County of Orkney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Heretors of the County of Orkney, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our unfeigned Joy on your Majesty's happy Recovery from