

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 23, to Tuesday May 26, 1789.

Whitehall, May 26.

THE following Addreffes having been delivered to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addreffes His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer and Guardians of the Asylum for Female Orphans, beg Leave to exprefs our unfeigned Joy at your Majesty's happy Recovery.

As our benevolent Institution has felt within it's peaceful Walls all the painful Sensations which afflicted your loyal Subjects, so it now exults in the general Joy, and entreats that it's Congratulations may be added to those of your Majesty's faithful People, and it's Prayers united with theirs for a Continuance of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's Reign.

NORTH.

Asylum, May 19, 1789.

[Delivered by Thomas Slack, Esq; Treasurer; Doctor Douglas, George Adams and William Arnold, Esqrs. and the Rev. Mr. Hodson, Chaplain and Secretary.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sire!

THE Freeholders and Inhabitants, Electors of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Gatton, Partakers of that univerfal Joy which has refounded from Shore to Shore throughout your Majesty's Dominions, beg Permission to approach your Throne with unfeigned Expressions of their dutiful and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person from their high Sense of and heartfelt Gratitude for the inestimable Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

With our humble and thankful Acknowledgments to the King of Kings, who, amidst His Visitation, hath remembered Mercy, and restored to an afflicted

People their King, their Father and their Friend, our Prayers and Supplications shall not be wanting; that the Measure of Happiness, so graciously dispensed to your Majesty's Subjects, may be metted with tenfold Increase into your Majesty's Bosom, that of your Royal Family, and of your whole House.

Signed by Order,

J. Graham, Chairman.

[Delivered by John Graham, Esq; Chairman.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the President, Visitor and Members of the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery.

The Happiness we have enjoyed during your Reign, and your successful Endeavours to promote every Branch of useful Knowledge, fill us with Gratitude to your Majesty, and with Thankfulness to Almighty God for having restored Health to your Majesty, and the best of Princes to His loyal Subjects:

It is our fervent and constant Prayer, that you may long continue to reign over these Kingdoms the Father of your People, and to be an Example to the Princes of Europe, as the Friend of Science and Pattern of Virtue.

Given under our Common Seal, and signed by our Appointment by the Præses and Visitor.

Robert Cleghorn, Præses.

William Hamilton, Visitor.

Glasgow, May 20, 1789.

[Delivered by the Lord Advocate of Scotland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the working Silk Weavers of Spitalfields and its Environs, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on the recent Interposition of Divine Providence, in mercifully restoring your Majesty from the late heavy Affliction with which it pleased the Omnipotent to afflict us, in the Person of your Majesty.

We therefore, with Hearts ever flowing with Gratitude, unite our cordial Thanksgiving that we are again blessed