

bleſſed with the perſonal Exerciſe of your Maſteſty's parental and wife Authority over us; we are under peculiar Obligations to expreſs our Joy and Happineſs in ſuch an Event, from a Conſideration, not only of the many Privileges we enjoy in common with our Fellow-Subjects, but for the ſingular Marks of your Maſteſty's Regard for the Welfare of our Trade, in graciouſly indulging us with Laws for its Regulations.

We humbly hope your Maſteſty will deign to accept our feeble Attempts to expreſs our Loyalty and Affection to the beſt of Kings, under whoſe mild and auſpicious Reign we enjoy ſo many Civil and Religious Privileges, and have experienced your Readineſs on all Occaſions to hear and redreſs every Grievance that has been preſented to you, with a View for the Encouragement of the Wear of the Silk Manufacture; we therefore humbly pray the ſame benign Regard may be continued to us, and that your Maſteſty's Life may belong, and your Reign prosperous over a grateful and happy People; and that when the Hand of Time ſhall have ſtretched its utmoſt Bounds in extending your valuable Life, you may change an earthly for an heavenly Crown of immortal Glory and Honor.

Signed on Behalf of a Body of more than Fifteen Thouſand.

Tho. Baker.	John Fieſ.
Tho. Frank.	Oneſ. Keymer.
Jſ. Buckridge.	Geo. Garrott.
John Collier.	Cornelius Detenon.
Rich. Bawſtock.

[Delivered by Mr. Oneſiphorus Keymer.]

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Maſteſty's Houſhold have been by him preſented to the Queen: Which Addreſſes Her Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

May it pleaſe your Maſteſty,

WE, the Preſident, Vice-Preſidents, Treafurer and Guardians of the Aſylum for Female Orphans, now aſſembled to celebrate the natal Day of our beloved Queen and Patroneſs, beg Leave to approach your Maſteſty at this Seafon of general Joy and Happineſs with our Congratulatory on the Reſtoration of the Health of our moſt Gracious Sovereign.

The Orphans, protected by your Maſteſty's moſt gracious Countenance, and aſſiſted by your Munificence, have been taught to ſhare in the national Joy. They have raiſed their innocent and grateful Voices in Praise and Thankſgiving to that Divine Goodneſs, which has enhanced to your Maſteſty, your Family and People, the Bleſſings of this Day, by the Recovery of the beſt of Kings.

May your Maſteſty long enjoy the Effects of ſo felicitous an Event in the Society of your beloved Conſort: May the fond and dutiful Attention of your amiable Offspring, and the reſpectful Attachment of an admiring Nation, continue through many returning Years, ſtill adding to that Happineſs which a Life of Virtue and Goodneſs do ſo truly deſerve.

N O R T H.

Aſylum, May 19, 1789.

[Tranſmitted by Thomas Slack, Eſq; Treafurer; Doctſor Douglas, George Adams and William Arnold, Eſqrs. and the Rev. Mr. Hoſſon, Chaplain and Secy.]

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

M A D A M,

A MIDST the numerous Offerings that flow from Joy and Affection, the Freeholders and Inhabitants, Electors of the ancient and loyal Borough of Gatton, beg Leave to preſent their ſincere Congratulatory to your Maſteſty on the happy Reſtoration of the King's Health. In our humble Acknowledgments of the all-wise and gracious Diſpenſations of Providence, we are induced to look up with Admiration to your Maſteſty's Virtues, as giving Efficacy to the Prayers and Supplications of an afflicted People at the Throne of Mercy.

May thoſe exalted Virtues, the brighteſt Ornaments of the Britiſh Diadem, be faithfully recorded in the Hearts of your Maſteſty's Subjects, ever held forth as an Example, and live by Imitation through ſucceeding Ages.

Signed by Order,

J. Graham, Chairman.

[Delivered by John Graham, Eſq; Chairman.]

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

Moſt Gracious Queen,

WE, your Maſteſty's dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Working Silk Weavers of Spitalfields and its Environs, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Maſteſty on the recent Interpoſition of Divine Providence in reſtoring to you and the Nation at large an affectionate and auſpicious Sovereign, who reigns in the Hearts and Affection of a loyal and joyful People.

We ſhould be wanting in that reverential Regard we owe to your Maſteſty's Sacred Perſon were we not to unite with our Fellow-Subjects in cordially congratulating you on the happy Event; an Event productive of the moſt important and bleſſed Conſequences, in having already expelled that ſorrowful Gloom which hung on every Countenance, and delivered your Maſteſty from thoſe diſtreſſing and afflicting Senſations with which your tender and ſympathetic Feelings muſt have been exerciſed.

We are conſtrained humbly to implore your Maſteſty's Acceptance of our ſincere though feeble Expreſſions of affectionate Attachment to your Maſteſty, whoſe Virtues are ſo many and ſo rare that all Mankind muſt neceſſarily do the ſame; yet none are under ſuch pleaſing Obligations as we, who, conſidered in a political View, enjoy ſuch ſalutary Laws for the Protection of our Rights and Liberties in a Commercial View, as having the Honor and Happineſs of ſeeing our Trade patroniſed and encouraged by your Maſteſty's Royal Example, which, we doubt not, will have an happy Influence over your whole auſpicious Family and Court. May the Divine Protection ever guard your Maſteſty from every Affliction both of Body and Mind, that your Maſteſty may long reign over a grateful and free People, is the fervent Wiſh of a Body of more than Fifteen Thouſand, whom we reſent.

Tho. Baker.	Oneſ. Keymer.
Tho. Frank.	Geo. Garrott.
Jſ. Buckridge.	John Fieſ.
John Collier.	Cornelius Detenon.
Rich. Bawſtock.

[Tranſmitted by Mr. Oneſiphorus Keymer.]

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Maſteſty's Principal Secretary of