We and our Congregations have already, in many Instances, experienced the benign Effects of your Majesty's most mild and gentle Government; and we bless the Great Disposer of all Good, that He has graciously heard our Prayers, and spared your precious Life to guard the Civil and Religious Liberty of your People.

Your Majesty may be assured of our zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government, and that we shall at all Times retain the liveliest Sense, and inculcate upon the numerous Congregations under our pastoral Care, the lively Recollection of the signal Blessings which they and we have experienced, and the many Favours conferred on this Country in the Course of your Majesty's propitious and glorious Reign.

We shall always look upon it as our Duty to offer up our most humble Prayers to the King of Kings, that He may continue your Majesty long to be a Blessing to your numerous Family, and the Father of your People; and that the Illustrious House of Hanover may not want a King to sit upon the Throne of Britain for ever.
