The following Address of the Clergy and Members of the British Factory residing in St. Petersburg and Cronstadt, in the Empire of Russia, having been transmitted by Charles Whitworth, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Russia, to his Grace the Duke of Leeds, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has by him been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Clergy and Members of the British Factory residing in St. Petersburg and Cronstadt, in the Empire of Russia, beg Leave to transmit to the Foot of your Throne our unfeigned Congratulations on the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

Although situated at a remote Distance from our Country, we are alarmed at every unprosperous Event that befalls it; and when severe Indisposition occasioned a Suspension of your paternal Care for its Welfare and Glory, we felt, as became dutiful Subjects, for the Distress of a beloved Sovereign. Influenced by these Motives we presented our ardent Supplications to the Giver of all Good, that your Majesty might be speedily restored to your faithful People. The Clemency of Heaven, moved by a Nation's Prayer, has given back to His Kingdoms the best of Monarchs. Impressed with Sentiments of Gratitude, not inferior to those of our Fellow-Subjects, for the signal Deliverance vouchsafed to the Father of His Country, we join in fervent Thanksgivings to the Supreme Disposer of Events, and in Sincerity of Heart approach your Sacred Person with our warmest Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and fortunate, that you may continue to enjoy every domestic, every social Comfort, and to be blessed with the Reflection that you possess the Attachment of a free, united, brave and generous People, sensible of the Happiness resulting to them from your mild and equitable Government.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Clergy of the Church of England residing in Scotland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Clergy of the Church of England residing in Scotland, beg Leave, with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to approach your Majesty with our Congratulations on your happy Recovery.

Fully convinced of the Excellency of the Constitution under which we live, and of the Blessings derived to these Kingdoms from the Mildness, Wisdom and Equity of your Majesty's Administration, as Men and Citizens we deplored the Interruption of your Health, as an Event which threatened Disaster and Calamity to your Empire.

Therefore, with Hearts full of dutiful Affection, we stand forward with our Fellow-Subjects to express the Satisfaction we feel on a Change so auspicious to your Happiness, and the Welfare of your People; assuring you, with a Joy which can be equalled only by the Sincerity of our former Sympathy, we behold your Majesty restored, and thank God.

Confident moreover, that, as Ministers of the Gospel, we cannot more effectually alleviate your Majesty's paternal Care for the Happiness and Prosperity of your People, than by dispensing and maintaining the Principles of our Religion; we therefore beg Leave to offer you our further Assurance, that we shall uniformly endeavour, by Purity of Doctrine and Simplicity of Manners, to enforce and promote the Interests of true Religion and Virtue: And that as we always have so we always will incu-

cate in our respective Charges the Obligations of loyal Attachment and dutiful Affection to the best of Kings.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

It is our fervent Prayer, that God may grant you a long and prosperous Reign, crowned with Peace, and, the greatest Blessing a Monarch can enjoy, the Affections of a free and grateful People.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Name,
Ro. Bell, D. D.

And our fervent Prayers shall be daily offered to the Throne of Grace, that your Majesty may long and happily reign in the Hearts of a free, united and loyal People.

[Delivered by William Wilberforce, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deacons and Incorporated Trades of Kirkwall in Orkney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects; the Deacons and Incorporated Trades of your ancient Burgh of Kirkwall, desire to embrace this Opportunity afforded us in the Course of Divine Providence of announcing our Love and Zeal to your Majesty's Royal Person, Crown and Dignity, and in the most humble Manner to offer our Congratulations at your Majesty's Feet, on your Majesty's happy Recovery from the late Indisposition with which it pleased the Almighty to afflict the best of Sovereigns.

At the same Time that we rejoice greatly because of your Majesty's Recovery; we desire, with grateful Hearts, to adore the great and unspeakable Goodness of the bountiful Giver of all Mercies, in that He regarded the Prayers of His People, and answered their Requests by preserving your Majesty's valuable Life to these Nations. In the Midst of Despondency for your Majesty's Distress, and the direful Prospect of a departing and beloved Sovereign, one Consolation yet remained to support our dejected Spirits:—A regular Succession to Power and Sovereignty flowing from Father to Son:

Accept, most gracious Sovereign, of these our Congratulations, and believe that it is our most earnest Wish and Prayer to Heaven, that your Majesty may long live and reign over a free, loving and loyal People; as a Pattern to Princes, the Admiration and Envy of Nations, and the Approved of Heaven; and that the Crown may flourish on your Majesty's Head with Renown, and descend with Honour to the latest Posterity.

Vivat Rex, Vivat Rex, Vivat Rex.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by Appointment, by

Geo. Eunson.
