The following Address of the Clergy and Members of the British Factory residing in St. Petersburg and Cronstadt, in the Empire of Russia, having been transmitted by Charles Whitworth, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Russia, to his Grace the Duke of Leeds, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has by him been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Clergy and Members of the British Factory residing in St. Petersburg and Cronstadt, in the Empire of Russia, beg Leave to transmit to the Foot of your Throne our unfeigned Congratulations on the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

Although situated at a remote Distance from our Country, we are alarmed at every unprosperous Event that befalls it; and when severe Indisposition occasioned a Suspension of your paternal Care for its Welfare and Glory, we felt, as became dutiful Subjects, for the Distress of a beloved Sovereign. Influenced by these Motives we presented our ardent Supplications to the Giver of all Good, that your Majesty might be speedily restored to your faithful People. The Clemency of Heaven, moved by a Nation's Prayer, has given back to His Kingdoms the best of Monarchs. Impressed with Sentiments of Gratitude, not inferior to those of our Fellow-Subjects, for the signal Deliverance vouchsafed to the Father of His Country, we join in fervent Thanksgivings to the Supreme Disposer of Events, and in Sincerity of Heart approach your Sacred Person with our warmest Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and fortunate, that you may continue to enjoy every domestic, every social Comfort, and to be blessed with the Reflection that you possess the Attachment of a free, united, brave and generous People, sensible of the Happiness resulting to them from your mild and equitable Government.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Clergy of the Church of England residing in Scotland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Clergy of the Church of England residing in Scotland, beg Leave, with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to approach your Majesty with our Congratulations on your happy Recovery.

Fully convinced of the Excellency of the Constitution under which we live, and of the Blessings derived to these Kingdoms from the Mildness, Wisdom and Equity of your Majesty's Administration, as Men and Citizens we deplored the Interruption of your Health, as an Event which threatened Disaster and Calamity to your Empire.

Therefore, with Hearts full of dutiful Affection, we stand forward with our Fellow-Subjects to express the Satisfaction we feel on a Change so auspicious to your Happiness, and the Welfare of your People; assuring you, with a Joy which can be equalled only by the Sincerity of our former Sympathy, we behold your Majesty restored, and thank God.

Confident moreover, that, as Ministers of the Gospel, we cannot more effectually alleviate your Majesty's paternal Care for the Happiness and Prosperity of your People, than by dispensing and maintaining the Principles of our Religion; we therefore beg Leave to offer you our further Assurances, that we shall uniformly endeavour, by Purity of Doctrine and Simplicity of Manners, to enforce and promote the Interests of true Religion and Virtue: And that as we always have so we always will incu-
