

WHEREAS the following Advertisement, on Saturday the 13th instant, appeared in a Morning Paper: "Creditors. The Creditors of William Parker and Son, of Fleet-street, London, Glass Warehousemen, are requested to meet on Thursday next, the 18th Day of June instant, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, at the London Coffee-house, Ludgate-hill, London, in order to take their Affairs into their Hands, inspect their Books and Accounts; and all Creditors are requested to bring their Accounts."

"Enquire for Mr. Robert Holloway, Attorney at Law, at the London Coffee-house aforesaid. It is requested that the Creditors who cannot attend would send their Accounts under Cover to Mr. Holloway, addressed as aforesaid."

The Public are assured the Whole is a gross and malicious Libel, without any Grounds whatsoever, inserted with Intent to prejudice the said William Parker and Son in their Business, for which an Action is commenced, and they are determined to spare no Pains or Expence in the Punishment of those concerned in it.
