From Tuesday June 16, to Saturday June 20, 1789.

THE following Addresses having been delivered to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council, Assembly and Inhabitants of the Island of Nevis.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's ever dutiful and affectionate Subjects the Council and Assembly of the Island of Nevis, beg Leave to offer unto your Majesty our sincerest Congratulations on the merciful Interposition of Providence, in relieving your Majesty from your late alarming Illness, and restoring unto you the ineffimable Blessing of Health.

The welcome Tidings of such an Event, and of the Joy which it has so universally diffused amongst your Majesty's Subjects in Europe, have found us equally susceptible of the happiest Sensations on so great an Occasion. Unimpaired by Distance or Time have we felt the solid Benefits of your wise Government; unabated by either is our Gratitude to the Fountain of our Prosperity; nor, Sire, can our Joy be deemed too excessive at your Recovery, supplanting, as it hath done, the most poignant Grief in our Bosoms at the Illness which befell you; a Grief confined not to a Reflection of our own great Happiness at Stake, but extending itself, with all the Force of Sympathy, to the distressful Feelings of the virtuous Partner of your Throne, and of your amiable Offspring.

That your Majesty may long continue in Health, and be enabled to persevere uninterruptedly in that Course of Government which has so much strengthened and dignified the British Empire; that your Subjects, free and prosperous, may ever be influenced by a just Sense of their enviable Lot; and that your Majesty, thus greatly situated, may continue to experience every private Bliss of domestic Comfort, is, Sire, the most heartfelt Wish and sincere Prayer of every individual Inhabitant of your Majesty's loyal Island Nevis, May 5, 1789.

[ Delivered by John Stanley, Esq; Agent for that Island. ]

[ Price Seven-pence. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in the Counties of Northumberland and Durham, and Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, assembled at Newcastle, on Tuesday June the 9th, 1789.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in the Counties of Northumberland and Durham, and Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, are desirous to embrace the Opportunity afforded by the annual Meeting of our Association, of approaching your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's most happy and providential Recovery.

It has ever been the Ambition and Aim of your Majesty's Protestant Dissenting Subjects to adhere strictly to those great Principles which placed your Majesty's Illustrious Family upon the Throne of these Realms; and to express their Thankfulness for the Peace and Security which they have been permitted to enjoy under the mild and auspicious Reigns of Three successive Princes, by a dutiful and loyal Submission to their Authority, and a hearty Concern for their personal Prosperity and Happiness: They therefore beheld, with the most heartfelt Grief, the sudden and severe Calamity with which it pleased the Almighty to visit your Majesty; nor were they less fervent than any of their Fellow-Subjects in earnest Petitions to the King of Kings for your Majesty's speedy Relief, or in joyful Thanksgivings for your complete Recovery.

Thus far they trust that they have given full Security for the Steadiness of their Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the happy Constitution established in these Realms: And they humbly hope, by a persevering Continuance in such Principles and Conduct, to be able, at length, to convince that Legislature, of which your Majesty is so important and essential a Branch, how false are the Calumnies of those who represent them as incapable of giving any such Security.

[ Delivered by Sir William Middleton, Bart. and Charles Grey, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Northumberland. ]

Commission in the Berkshire Regiment of Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant.
