Stockholm, June 5.

A Corps of about 1100 Russians having assembled at a Village called Ruskiala, on the Borders of the Province of Carelia, waiting only for the Arrival of a sufficient Number of Pieces of Ordnance to make an Irruption into that Province, Major Gripenberg, who was posted in the Neighbourhood, with a Battalion of the Regiment of Tavastehus and Four Cannons, resolved to attack the Enemy, on the 17th Ult. though his whole Force consisted only of about 250 Men. On their Approach the Swedes were so fortunate as immediately to dismount some Field Pieces, with which the Russians disputed the Entrance of the Village, and soon after the Powder Magazine of the Enemy blew up, by which a great Number of them perished. The Battle then commenced, and continued with great Obstinacy for upwards of Three Hours. Major Gripenberg computes the Loss of the Enemy at 400 killed, and a considerable Number wounded. He quitted the Field, however, though he had only 17 killed and 30 wounded. The Russians also after the Action evacuated Ruskiala, and retreated to Sordawalla. The Swedes fired with red hot Shot, being informed that the Russians had deposited their Powder in one of the adjoining Houses. Major Gripenberg has been promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, every Officer under his Command has been advanced one Degree, and a Reward of a Swedish Ducat is ordered to be given to each private Soldier.

The Port of Helfingfors is blocked up by a Russian Squadron.

On Tuesday Night last his Swedish Majesty set out for Finland.

Warsaw, June 6.
