Windsor, June 25.

This Morning, at a little after Seven o'Clock, Their Majesties and Their Royal Highnesses the Princess Royal, Princess Augusta, and Princess Elizabeth, set out for his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester's Lodge, at Lyndhurst.

Whitehall, June 27.

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Honorable the President and Members of His Majesty's Council of the Virgin Islands.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President and Members of the Council of your Virgin Islands, whose Impressions of Affection for your Sacred Person, and Solicitude for your Health and Safety, are as pure and as fervid as the genial Influence of Loyalty towards the best of Sovereigns can actuate a grateful People to experience, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to lay at the Foot of your Throne our heartfelt Tribute of Congratulation on the Occasion of your happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

With Hearts replete with Gratitude to Almighty God, for His Attention to the sincere Wishes and the solemn Prayers and Supplications of an afflicted People, we beseech Him to accept our most devout and humble Thanks for restoring to them their much-loved Monarch, for restoring to them the Blessings of a Government which has been distinguished for its Benevolence, its Justice and its Wisdom; and we most earnestly hope, that a Life of such inestimable Value may long be preserved; and that a Reign so grateful to a happy and a free People may long be continued amongst them.

[ Transmitted by President Turnbull. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E !

AS your ever dutiful and loyal, though distant Subjects, the Inhabitants of your Virgin Islands, could not remain unconcerned at the Event of your Majesty's late continued and alarming Illness, in which the Empires of Europe seemed to sympathize, we, the Members of the House of Assembly, as one Branch of the Legislature of this Colony, cannot now forbear, in the Name of our Constituents, to approach your Royal Person on your Recovery to perfect Health; and joining the general Voice of Thanksgiving, to render our Oblations of Gratitude to the Supreme Author and Supporter of Life, upon this auspicious Occasion, and our Restoration thereby to the Blessings of your Majesty's Government.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to tender our fervid Wishes and sincerest Prayers to the Divine Providence, for your long Enjoyment of every Faculty of Body and Mind which may be conducive to your own personal Felicity, the Comfort and Composure of your august Family, and by which, in their extensive Effects, you may still live in the Hearts of a grateful and happy People.

We have participated the Feelings of your truly amiable Partner, our most illustrious Queen, his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and the other Branches of your Royal Family, in their Hour of Anxiety and Distress, and humbly beg Leave, through your Majesty, to prefer to our Queen our warmest Congratulations on the Renewal of your Health and the Return of domestic Joy.
