Weymouth, July 1.

THEIR Majesties and Their Royal Highnesses the Princess Royal, Princess Augusta and Princess Elizabeth, arrived at Gloucester-House, in perfect Health, at a little after Four o'Clock Yesterday Afternoon. The Cannon at Portland Castle were soon after fired, which were answered by His Majesty's Ships in the Roads, and by a Royal Salute from the Battery on Shore; and in the Evening the whole Town was very splendidly illuminated.

This Day the Mayor and Corporation waited on Their Majesties with the following Address, which was received very graciously.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of your Majesty's Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival at this Place, and to acknowledge how sensible we are of the high Honor done to us by your Majesty's Visit.

It is our anxious Hope that we shall not soon be deprived of that heart-felt Joy which the Presence of our beloved Sovereign every where diffuses. The Sight of their Monarch is always grateful to a loyal People, but it is never more so than when, laying aside the awful Splendor of a Throne, he condescends to appear amongst them, clothed in the more pleasing, because better known, Characters of domestic Life.

SIRE,

The Magistrates of this Borough and Town will exert their utmost Endeavours to preserve Peace and good Order within their Jurisdiction, because they know they shall thereby best recommend themselves to your Majesty's Notice.

Deign, Sir, to accept the Gratitude of this Corporation, which, in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, has felt the Blessings of a mild and constitutional Administration of the Government, in the extended Commerce and increasing Riches of the Nation.

MADAM,

To your Majesty, as eminently distinguished for every Virtue that can give Dignity to your Sex, our Reverence is particularly due. Whilst the arduous Duties of the Mother and the Wife shall be had in Honour amongst Mankind, the Merits of our Queen will never be forgotten.

May your Majesties, mutually happy in each other, long live to enjoy the Love and Admiration of your People, and may they ever be mindful that the Splendor of Royalty is adorned by the Virtues of private Life.

John Arbuthnot, Mayor.

Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniences have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted, That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as is now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four
