Whitehall, July 14.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council of Dominica.

Most Gracious Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Dominica, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to offer our humble Congratulation on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery, and to assure your Majesty, that during the distressful Interval of your Majesty's Indisposition no Class or Description of your Subjects felt more Sorrow, or on your Majesty's Recovery, more real Joy, than the Council of this Island.

Conscious of the Blessings all your Majesty's Subjects derive from a benevolent and patriot Sovereign, we congratulate your Majesty on being again enabled to resume your personal Attention to the public Concerns of your Kingdoms, and on the Wisdom of your Parliament, manifested by the Measures they had taken for the Honor and Interests of your Crown, and the Security and good Government of your Majesty's Dominions.

We cannot omit to express our humble Acknowledgments of the Goodness of the Almighty in restoring your Majesty to the anxious Wishes of your loyal Subjects; and we shall offer our Prayers for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Health, as the Source of domestic Comfort to your Royal Family and of universal Happiness to all your Subjects.

Alex. Stewart, President of the Council.

Council Chamber, Dominica,

May 6, 1789.

[Transmitted by John Orde, Esq; Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of your Majesty's dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects, the House of Representatives of your Island of Dominica:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects, the Representatives of the People of the Island of Dominica, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and with Hearts full of Gratitude to the beneficent and protecting Care of Heaven, we congratulate our Country and every Branch of your Majesty's most Illustrious Family on the happy Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

Far removed from the Country that is blessed with your Majesty's Presence, we are not less attached to your Majesty's Person, nor less grateful for the Benefits we enjoy under the mild and just Government of our most valuable Constitution; and through the Bounty of Divine Providence, manifested in your Majesty's Recovery, we are now enabled to contemplate with the most heartfelt Solicitude, a long, very long, Duration to your Majesty's Reign, a Life full of Years and Glory, the bright Example of which will we hope continue to bless us in your Majesty's Illustrious Descendants till Time shall be no more.

May the same kind Providence that has granted our Prayers for the Recovery of your Majesty's Health continue to shower down its Blessings on your Majesty, your Royal Comfort our most amiable Queen, and every Branch of your Illustrious Family.

John Gillon, Speaker pro Tempore.

House of Assembly, May 7, 1789.

[Delivered by George Rose, Esq; Agent.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Society of Writers to your Signet in Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Society of Writers to your Signet in Scotland, beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of our first General Meeting after your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late severe and dangerous Indisposition to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most sincere Loyalty and Affection, and to congratulate your Majesty upon the complete Re-establishment of your Health.

That the Divine Providence may be pleased long to preserve the Life and Happiness of that Sovereign who has declared it to be His Glory to make the Laws the only Rule of His Government, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
The Society of Writers to your Signet
in Scotland.

John Davidson, D. K.
by Appointment of the General Meeting of the Society.

Ships of the Fleet, which is detained by a Change of the Wind near the Entrance of this Channel.

Paris, July 12.

His Most Christian Majesty has appointed the Baron de Breteuil to be President of the Council of Finances, in the Room of M. Necker; the Duke de la Vauguyon, Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs, in the Room of M. de Montmorin; and the Marshal de Broglie, to be Minister for the War Department.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday the 28th Day of June last, between Nine and Ten o'Clock at Night, George Taylor, Servant to the Right Honourable Edmund Burke, being on his Return from Woolwich to London, in a Coach, in Company with another Man and a Woman, was stopped on the Highway between Woolwich and Charlton, by Four Persons on Foot, unknown, armed with Hangers, who robbed the said George Taylor of Two Seals set in Metal; that on meeting with Resistance from the said George Taylor and his Companions, one of the Footpads struck him on the Face several Times with his Hanger, whilst he remained in the Coach; that upon the said George Taylor's afterwards getting out of the Coach, he was again attacked by the same Footpad and Two others with their Hangers, and having received from them Twenty-five Wounds, Two of which, it is feared, are dangerous, they being alarmed, desisted from any further

further Attempts, and, as is supposed, crossed the River to the Red House on the other Side.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Assault and Robbery abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who first wounded the said George Taylor in the Coach as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Edmund Burke doth hereby offer a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me

Ed. Burke.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of the 16th Day of June last, the Opera House in the Hay-Market, in the City of Westminster, was discovered to be on Fire, by which the same was nearly consumed, together with the greatest Part of the Scenes, Decorations, Wardrobe and Furniture therein, to a very considerable Amount; and that there is great Reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Premises, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me

J. A. Gallini.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Tuesday the 23d Day of December last, between the Hours of Five and Six of the Clock in the Morning, a most inhuman Murder was committed on the Body of John Matthewman, as he was going from his Dwelling-house at Griggleson Cliff to Hollingthorp, both in the Parish of Sandal Magna, in the County of York; and that all Endeavours to discover the Person or Persons who committed the said Murder have hitherto proved ineffectual.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the inhuman Murder abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, to be paid at the Register Office at Wakefield, by Mr. Timothy Topham, Deputy Register, and an additional Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS, by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, Lord of the Manor of Wakefield, to any Person making such Discovery as abovementioned (except as is before excepted) to be paid respectively upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a certain Order for Payment of Money, dated the 22d Day of September, 1788, with the Name of John Moore thereto subscribed, purporting to have been signed by John Moore, of London, Refiner, and directed to George Prescott, Esq; and others, of London, Bankers and Partners, by the Names and Descriptions of Mess. Prescotts and Co. for the Payment of the Sum of 700l. has been forged and counterfeited by some Person or Persons unknown; and that for uttering the said Order Jacob Canter has been tried and convicted:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Forgery, and also except the abovementioned Jacob Canter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Association of Bankers for discovering and prosecuting Forgeries, and other Frauds, do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me,

William Culverden,
Chairman of the Association.

John Newby, Sec.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich.

July 14, 1789.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters Hall in London, on Wednesday the 20th Day of January next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned Farms will be let on Leases for Twenty-one Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May next, viz. Salmon Field Farm, in the Parish of Hexham, and High Field East Farm, in the Parish of Bywell Saint Peter, both in the County of Northumberland.

All Persons, who may be desirous to take either of the said Farms, are requested to deliver, or send, their Proposals

Proposals in Writing to John Ibbetson, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, London, at any Time before the last mentioned Day; or, on that Day, between the Hours of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon and One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Salters Hall aforesaid: And, for Particulars of the said Farms, to apply to Messrs. Walton and Turner, Receivers of the said Hospital, or to the Bailiffs in their respective Districts.

N. B. No Proposals received after the last mentioned Hour will be attended to.

To the Creditors of James Moore, late Banker and Underwriter in Glasgow.

JAMES HILL, Writer in Glasgow, Trustee on the Estate of the said James Moore, having already made two Dividends among the Creditors of the Bankrupt who proved their Debts of the Funds collected, one of Ten Shillings, and the other of Two Shillings and Six-pence Sterling per Pound; and having now recovered the whole Funds of the said James Moore in this Country that can be made effectual, hereby gives Notice, that on the 1st Day of August, 1789, he will make a Dividend of the Funds of the Bankrupt in his Hands among the Creditors; and as this will in all Probability be the last Division of Mr. Moore's Estate that will be made, the Trustee requests that such of the Creditors who have not already drawn Dividends will lodge their Claims and Grounds of Debt, with Affidavits to the Verity thereof, in his Hands, before the said 1st Day of August, with Certification that if they fail they will be deprived of any Share of the said Estate.

Lieutenant Richmond Fowke Griffith Webb.

IF Mr. Richmond Fowke Griffith Webb, who in the Year 1777 was the First Lieutenant of His Majesty's 40th Regiment of Foot, then serving in America, the only Son of the late Lieutenant Colonel Richmond Webb, be alive, his anxious Family most earnestly request his Presence on Affairs of Importance to himself and to them all; or if any Officer of the 40th Regiment, or any other Gentleman, can give any Information of Mr. Webb, so that his Family may be able to obtain Intercourse with him, it will render them great Comfort, and they will consider themselves under particular Obligations. His Health obliged Lieutenant Webb to quit his Regiment at New York, and he sailed from Kingston in Jamaica in June 1777 for Montego Bay. His Father, Colonel Webb, died the 27th of May, 1785, and Mrs. Webb, his Mother, on the 8th of June instant. Mess. William Thackeray and Peter Moore, of Hadley, near Barnet, Middlesex, two of the Executors of the late Mrs. Webb, will regard themselves particularly indebted for any Communication of or from Mr. Webb.

WILLIAM M. THACKERAY, } Executors.
