And to Thirteen Private Bills.

Whitehall, July 14.

The following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council of Dominica.

Most Gracious Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Dominica, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to offer our humble Congratulation on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery, and to assure your Majesty, that during the distressful Interval of your Majesty's Indisposition no Class or Description of your Subjects felt more Sorrow, or on your Majesty's Recovery, more real Joy, than the Council of this Island.

Conscious of the Blessings all your Majesty's Subjects derive from a benevolent and patriot Sovereign, we congratulate your Majesty on being again enabled to resume your personal Attention to the public Concerns of your Kingdoms, and on the Wisdom of your Parliament, manifested by the Measures they had taken for the Honor and Interests of your Crown, and the Security and good Government of your Majesty's Dominions.

We cannot omit to express our humble Acknowledgments of the Goodness of the Almighty in restoring your Majesty to the anxious Wishes of your loyal Subjects; and we shall offer our Prayers for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Health, as the Source of domestic Comfort to your Royal Family and of universal Happiness to all your Subjects.

Alex. Stewart, President of the Council.

Council Chamber, Dominica,
