Whitehall, July 18.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and Council of your Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia, in Behalf of themselves and the other Inhabitants of said Province, most humbly offer our sincere and warm Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late Indisposition, and the Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

We are deeply impressed with a lively and most grateful Sense of the Goodness of Almighty God on this Occasion; and we are joyfully thankful that He hath been pleased to listen to and to grant the Prayers and Petitions, which have been so ardently offered up by your Majesty's Subjects.

Duly sensible of the many Blessings flowing from the Wisdom and Beneficence of your Majesty's Government, we earnestly supplicate the Divine Being, that He will be graciously pleased to grant unto your Majesty Length of Days and a happy Reign over a dutiful and grateful People.

J. Parr.

By the Lords Justices General and General Governors of IRELAND,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

FITZ-GIBBON, C. JOHN FOSTER.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified His Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Monday the Twenty-seventh Day of July instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-ninth Day of September next; We do therefore publish and declare, that the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-ninth Day of September next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 11th Day of July, 1789.

By their Excellencies Command,
Alexander Mangin.

GOD Save the KING.

Dublin Castle, July 6.

Letters Patent have been passed under the Great Seal of this Kingdom, containing a Grant unto the Right Honourable John Fitzgibbon, Chancellor of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, and the Heirs Male of his Body, of the Dignity of a Baron, by the Name, Stile and Title of Baron Fitzgibbon, of Lower Connello, in the County of Limerick.

St. Petersburg, June 23.

Count Goltz, who succeeds Baron Keller as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Prussia, had Yesterday the Honour of delivering his Credentials to her Imperial Majesty at Czarico-Zeloe; and on the same Day he had his first Audiences of the Great Duke and Great Dutchess, and the Rest of the Imperial Family.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday the 28th Day of June last, between Nine and Ten o'Clock at Night, George Taylor, Serjeant to the Right Honourable Edmund Burke, being on his Return from Woolwich to London, in a Coach, in Company with another Man and a Woman, was stopped on the Highway between Woolwich and Charlton, by Four Persons on Foot, unknown, armed with Hangers, who robbed the said George Taylor of Two Seals set in Metal; that on meeting with Resistance from the said George Taylor and his Companions, one of the Footpads struck him on the Face several Times with his Hanger, whilst he remained in the Coach; that upon the said George Taylor's afterwards getting out of the Coach, he was again attacked by the same Footpad and Two others with their Hangers, and having received from them Twenty-five Wounds, Two of which, it is feared, are dangerous, they being alarmed, desisted from any further Attempts, and, as is supposed, crossed the River to the Red House on the other Side.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Assault and Robbery abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who first wounded the said George Taylor in the Coach as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Edmund Burke doth hereby offer a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me

Ed. Burke.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of the 16th Day of June last, the Opera House in the Hay-Market, in the City of Westminster, was discovered to be on Fire, by which the same was nearly consumed, together with the greatest Part of the Scenes, Decorations, Wardrobe and Furniture therein, to a very considerable Amount; and that there is great Reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Premises, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me

J. A. Gallini.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Tuesday the 23d Day of December last, between the Hours of Five and Six of the Clock in the Morning, a most inhuman Murder was committed on the Body of John Matthewman, as he was going from his Dwelling-house at Criggleston Cliff to Hollingthorp, both in the Parish of Sandal Magna, in the County of York; and that all Endeavours to discover the Person or Persons who committed the said Murder have hitherto proved ineffectual.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the inhuman Murder abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, to be paid at the Register Office at Wakefield, by Mr. Timothy Topham, Deputy Register, and an additional Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS, by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, Lord of the Manor of Wakefield, to any Person making such Discovery as abovementioned (except as is before excepted) to be paid respectively upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a certain Order for Payment of Money, dated the 22d Day of September, 1788, with the Name of John Moore thereto subscribed, purporting to have been signed by John Moore, of London, Refiner, and directed to George Prescott, Esq; and others, of London, Bankers and Partners, by the Names and Descriptions of Mess. Prescotts and Co. for the Payment of the Sum of 700l. has been forged and counterfeited by some Person or Persons unknown; and that for uttering the said Order Jacob Canter has been tried and convicted.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Forgery, and also except the abovementioned Jacob Canter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Association of Bankers for discovering and prosecuting Forgeries, and other Frauds, do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me,

William Culverden,
Chairman of the Association.

Office for Auditing the Public Accounts,
Somerset Place, July 4, 1789.

WHEREAS divers Persons, to whom Money has been issued for Public Services, have neglected to deliver into this Office the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, in the Manner, and within the Time prescribed by the Act for better examining and Auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts have directed that Copies of the following Sections of the said Act be inserted in the London Gazette, in order that all Persons to whom Public Money has been, or shall be, so issued, may be informed of the Consequences of such Neglect.

Philip Deare,
John Wigglesworth,
Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniences have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted, That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as is now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Accountant shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-Accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof, in the Manner and within the Times abovementioned; unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money as aforesaid.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the abovementioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners of Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich;
July 14, 1789.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters Hall in London, on Wednesday the 20th Day of January next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned Farms will be let on Leases for Twenty-one Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May next, viz. Salmon Field Farm, in the Parish of Hexham, and High Field East Farm, in the Parish of Bywell Saint Peter, both in the County of Northumberland.

All Persons, who may be desirous to take either of the said Farms, are requested to deliver, or send, their Proposals in Writing to John Ibbetson, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, London, at any Time before the last mentioned Day; or, on that Day, between the Hours of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon and One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Salters Hall aforesaid: And, for Particulars of the said Farms, to apply to Messrs. Walton and Turner, Receivers of the said Hospitals, or to the Bailiffs in their respective Districts.

N. B. No Proposals received after the last mentioned Hour will be attended to.

London, July 16, 1789.

NOTICE is hereby given, That Warrants for the Dividend declared on the Nominal Capital Stock of the Governor and Company for working of Mines,

Mines, Minerals and Metals in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, will be ready to be delivered to the Proprietors, on Thursday the 23d Instant, and every Thursday thereafter till the Whole is paid, at the Sun Fire-Office, in Bank-street, Cornhill; and that the Transfer Books which are now shut, will be opened again on Thursday the said 23d of this instant July.

Exchequer Bill-Office, July 18, 1789.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have given Directions for paying off Exchequer Bills issued pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for raising a further Sum of Money by Loans or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year 1788, and charged on the Aids of the present Year, and that the Principal and Interest on such Bills shall be paid at the Exchequer Bill Office in St. Margaret's-street, between the two Palace-Yards, Westminster, on Thursday the 6th Day of August next; and Attendance will be given on Thursday next, the 23d instant, and every succeeding Day, until the 3d Day of August next inclusive, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon (Sundays and Holidays excepted) for that Purpose: And for the greater Dispatch, the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring Lists thereof, containing the Numbers, Times of Commencement of Interest, with the Principal Sum and Interest due on such Bills, to be computed at Two Pence Halfpenny by the Day on every Hundred Pounds, from the Time of Commencement to the said 6th Day of August, 1789; on which Day the Interest on the said Exchequer Bills will cease: And they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and erase their Names on the Backs of the said Bills: And such Persons as are desirous of having new Exchequer Bills of the present Year in Part of Payment, upon mentioning the same at the Foot of their Lists delivered on or before Monday the 3d Day of August, 1789, will be accommodated with new Bills of 100l. each, carrying an Interest of Two-pence Halfpenny a Day to the Amount of the Principal of the Bills by them delivered up; which new Bills will bear Date the said 6th of August, 1789, and will be delivered on the 13th of August next, and on the following Days, at the said Office.

SURREY and SUSSEX TURNPIKES.

Notice is hereby given, That the Tolls arising at the following Toll Gates, upon the said Turnpike Roads (weighing Engines excepted) called or known by the Name of Newington Gate, Camberwell Gate, Kennington-Common Gate, Vauxhall Gate, Kingston Gate, and Croydon Gate, all in the County of Surrey, will be let by Auction, in Lease, for the Term of Three Years, from the 29th of September next, to the best Bidder, at the House of Mr. Darke, the Sign of the Greyhound, at Croydon, on Saturday the 22d of August next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two, in the Manner directed by the Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, "For regulating the Turnpike Roads;" which Tolls produced last Year the Sum of 6400l. above the Expenses of collecting them, and will be put up at that Sum.

Whoever happens to be the best Bidder, must, at the same Time, give Security, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Trustees of the said Turnpike Roads, for Payment of the Rent agreed for, viz. the said Rent to be paid by equal Monthly Payments, and One Month's Payment to be advanced and paid to the Treasurer at executing the Lease, and to continue the Treasurer One Month's Payment advanced in Hand till the Expiration of the said Lease. At the same Time the Trustees will proceed to the Choice of other Trustees, in the Room of those deceased, removed, or refusing to act, and on other Affairs relating to the Trust.

N. B. An Application will be then made for an occasional extra Sum to be laid out on the Road from Hazard's Bridge to the White Horse at Brixton Causeway, for the Purpose of correcting the Principle of the said Road.

George Theakston,

Clerk to the Trustees of the said Turnpike Roads.

* * For Particulars relating to the Lease enquire of Mr. Theakston, at his House, Christ Church, near Black-Friars Bridge, Surrey.

IRISH LIFE ANNUITIES, With Benefit of Survivorship.

THE Subscribers to the Life Annuities, which commenced the 25th of March, 1778, according to a Resolution of the House of Commons of Ireland, Session 1777, and provided for by an Act of Parliament Session 1779, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due at Midsummer last, at Messrs Bolderos, Adey, Lushington and Bolderos, Bankers, No. 30, Cornhill, in the following Manner, viz.

The first Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Forty Years, and upwards) from the 21st Instant to the 24th ditto, both Days inclusive, from Ten in the Forenoon, until Two in the Afternoon.

The second Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Twenty Years, and upwards, but under Forty) from the 28th instant to the 31st ditto, both Days inclusive.

The third Class in each (consisting of Nominees under the Age of Twenty Years) from the 4th of August to the 7th ditto, both Days inclusive, and from the 11th of August to the 14th ditto, both Days inclusive.

Those of each Class remaining unpaid will be paid every Tuesday and Thursday following, during the same Hours.

The Debentures to be produced, and a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance will be required; and it is particularly requested, upon the Demise of a Nominee, that the Debentures may be delivered in as above, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class; and as the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences which affect a Reversionary Property, wherein so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of any Person, who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to the Deputy Vice-Treasurer, Treasury Chamber, Dublin, or to Messrs. Bolderos, Adey, Lushington and Bolderos.

The Publick are requested to attend on the Days allotted for the Payment of the different Classes, and to take Notice, that in case any Person, who, by the Intent of the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, shall neglect to demand the same for the Space of Three Years from the Receipt of their last Dividend, he or she shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominee had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

NOTICE is hereby given, That the Partnership between Edmund Slade and James Slade, of the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Haberdashers, was, by mutual Consent, dissolved on the 24th Day of June last; and all Demands on the said Partnership will be paid by the said Edmund Slade, of the Borough aforesaid; and all Debts owing to the said Partnership are to be received and paid to the said Edmund Slade, by whom the Trade will be carried on in future; as witnesses our Hands this 16th Day of July, 1789.
