THE King has been pleased to grant to Samuel Bentham, Esq; Colonel of the Regiment of Rajsk, in the Service of her Imperial Majesty of all the Russias, His Royal Licence and Permission to accept and wear (in his own Country) the Cross of the Military Order of St. George, conferred on him by her said Imperial Majesty, in Testimony of her most gracious Approbation of his Conduct; and also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

The following Addresses having been transmitted or delivered to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in general Annual Convention assembled, embrace this first Opportunity to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of sincere Congratulation on your Recovery from the severe Indisposition with which you have been afflicted.

Our Joy in the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health is a natural Effect of that Personal Attachment which your Subjects feel from their Experience of the Virtues by which you have adorned the Throne of these Kingdoms.

On this Occasion we reflect with high Satisfaction and Gratitude on the Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Reign; the Protection of Religion and of our Liberties; the Encouragement of Manufactures and useful Arts; the Extension of our Commerce, and the Rank, which, through your Majesty's wife Councils, Great Britain holds among the Nations of Europe.

May Heaven grant to your Majesty long Life and Health to sway the Sceptre over a free and happy People; and may succeeding Generations, under Princes of your Illustrious Line, enjoy such National Felicity as we experience under your Majesty's Government. These are the earnest Wishes of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Commissioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in General Annual Convention assembled.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Custos, Magistrates, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Kingston, in the Island of Jamaica.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Custos, Magistrates, Merchants and other Inhabitants of the Town of Kingston, in your Majesty's Island of Jamaica, impressed with the liveliest Sense of Gratitude to Divine Providence for the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Assurances of our Loyalty, Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.

We participate in the general Joy with the Rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects on this auspicious Event.

May your Majesty's Reign be long, prosperous and happy, a Blessing to all your People; and may there never be wanting in the Illustrious House of Brunswick, Princes to fill the British Throne to the latest Posterity.

[ Transmitted by Lieutenant Governor Clarke. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council of Jamaica.
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Jamaica, impressed with an Anxiety which nothing but the Occasion that urges us could raise, beg Leave to testify, though in Terms inadequate to our Feelings, our Joy at your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

In

In this Hour of universal Exultation, we join the general Voice of Praise to the Almighty, that He hath bearkened to the Prayers of our Affliction; that His Mercy hath alleviated our Distress; and that we behold, in the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, the Vigour of the Political Constitution of England restored.

Distant as we are from your Royal Throne, and unblest with a Participation in that Happiness which your Majesty's Royal Presence, the Image of Domestic and National Prosperity, communicates to your more favoured Subjects, we rejoice in the more extensive Influence of your Majesty's auspicious Government; the Preservation of National Tranquillity; the Extension, through your Majesty's Care, of the Commerce and Credit of the British Empire; and the Experience of every Civil and Religious Enjoyment under the Protection of the Laws: These, Sire, are the Blessings that describe your Majesty's Reign to the remotest Corners of your Dominions.

May God long preserve your Majesty in that Health which His Providence has restored; that you may long live to His Glory, our great Guardian and Protector in the Personal Exercise of the Royal Functions you have resumed, and the best Security for that general Happiness of which you reign the Author in the Hearts of an affectionate, dutiful and loyal People!

Passed the Council the 29th Day of May, 1789.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Council and Assembly
of the Island of Montserrat.

May it please your Majesty!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subject, the Members of the Council and Assembly of your Majesty's Island of Montserrat, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

We acknowledge, with sincere Gratitude, the Goodness of the Supreme Disposer of Events, in attending to the Prayers of your loyal and affectionate People, and in restoring your Majesty to the ardent Wishes of your faithful Subjects in every Part of your extensive Empire.

Long may your Majesty continue the faithful Guardian of the Rights of a loyal and united People; and we fervently pray that the Period may be far distant when your Majesty shall be called from the Possession of a Temporal, to the Enjoyment of an Eternal Crown.

Montserrat, April 30, 1789.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Council and Assembly
of the Island of Grenada, and the Grenadines dependent thereon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Members of Council, and Representatives of the People in General Assembly of Grenada, ever sensible of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Care and Protection, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most steady Loyalty, and of the warmest Attachment to your Royal Person.

They had long been accustomed to consider the Increase of either as an Impossibility, but the Emotions they now experience point out their Error, and convince them that the deepest Losses most powerfully tend to enhance the Value of Re-enjoyment. From your Majesty's Indisposition was apprehended the Privation of their first and greatest Blessing. The Return of Health to their beloved Monarch removes their Anxiety and Distress, and gives Birth to Sensations of such a Nature as Language can but poorly express.

To the Almighty Disposer of all Events they lift their Hearts with Gratitude for the Happiness thus bestowed upon all your joyful Subjects. To your Majesty they request Permission to offer the most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Recovery, and upon your being again able to resume the Exercise of your Royal Authority; and at the same Time they with infinite Pleasure seize this Opportunity of expressing their fervent Wishes that uninterrupted Health and Felicity may ever be the Portion of their Sovereign; and that through Life your Majesty may uniformly enjoy that highest human Happiness, the Bliss of Blessing others.

By Command,

Ben. Webster, Clerk of the Council.

David C. Lunie, Clerk of the Assembly.

[ Transmitted by Samuel Williams, Esq; ]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg, met in Synod for the first Time since your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late alarming Illness, beg Leave to join with our most unfeigned Congratulations the other Societies of our Fellow-Subjects, whose Hearts overflowing with Gratitude to the King of Kings for His gracious Mercy to the Nation, have prompted them to crowd around the Throne, echoing their Acclamations of Joy, in a Manner, no Doubt, painful to that amiable Sensibility which adorns the many Graces of your Majesty's Character, but sufficient to convince the Kings of the Earth, that a Sovereign formed on your Example will ever be esteemed as the Father, and carested as the Darling of His People.

In this remote Corner of the Land, where Disaffection was once thought to prevail, your Majesty's public and private Virtues, and the Attention paid during the whole of your Majesty's beneficent Reign to the Civil and Religious Interests of the Country, had entirely conciliated the Minds of every Denomination of Men.

The Continuance of the Royal Bounty for Reformation of the Highlands and Islands, the lenient Intention of Government in restoring the forfeited Estates, the additional Appointment of Judges and Magistrates for the legal Administration of Justice, your Majesty's paternal Goodness in supplying the Poor with Bread in Seasons of Scarcity, and the Exertions made by patriotic Men under your Majesty's Auspices to promote a Spirit of Industry and Improvement among the Inhabitants of this Coast, will

will be for ever acknowledged with the liveliest Sense of Gratitude.

During the Gloom which lately overspread the Minds of all your Majesty's loving Subjects, permit us, Sir, to assure you, that in no Part of your Majesty's Dominions was more anxious Concern felt than within the Bounds of this Synod.

And when the blessed Tidings were announced of that seasonable Interposition of Divine Providence, which restored the best and most beloved of Sovereigns to the united Prayers of a great and happy People, and to the generous Wishes of neighbouring Nations, who have rejoiced with this rejoicing Land, those Expressions of Gladness, which your Majesty witnessed in the Seat of Government, were no less sincere and ardent in the remotest of the British Isles. It shall be our constant Labour and Study to cherish those Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government among the People committed to our Care. And

That God, by whom Kings reign, may long preserve your Majesty's Life, to be a Blessing to this Nation; that He may bless your Royal Consort our most gracious and amiable Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all the Princes and Princesses of your illustrious House; that you may behold the increasing Prosperity and Happiness of your Family and Kingdoms, till, full of Years and good Works, you resign an earthly for an heavenly Crown; and that the Descendants of your Royal Body, inheriting your Majesty's Virtues, may sit on the Throne of these Realms to the End of Time, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful,
most affectionate, most devoted Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg.

Murdoch Mac Iver, Moderator.

[ Delivered by Sir Archibald Macdonald, His Majesty's Attorney-General. ]

The following Address having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has been by him presented to the Queen: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Q U E E N.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Commissioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in General Annual Convention assembled, beg Leave to congratulate our Gracious Queen on the Recovery of our Sovereign from His late Indisposition.

While we rejoice in this Event as a Public Blessing to the Nation, we take a grateful Interest in the Feelings of your Majesty on an Occasion so immediately connected with your Happiness. The Respect and Affection with which we and all our Fellow Subjects look up to your Majesty as an illustrious Pattern of those Virtues which give Dignity to Greatness, render us happy in an Opportunity of expressing to you our Sentiments of Joy on a Subject so near to your Majesty's Heart.

That God may long preserve our King and Queen, and that every Comfort and Blessing may attend your Majesty through Life, are the Wishes and Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
The Commissioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in General Annual Convention assembled.

Stockholm, June 30.

Intelligence has been received here that, on the 15th Instant, a Russian Corps, under the Command of General Michelson, attacked the Swedish Troops at St. Michel, commanded by Colonel Steding. The Action began at Midnight, in which the Swedes kept their Ground, and fought very bravely for several Hours; but Colonel Steding, perceiving that the Enemy must at Length succeed in turning his Front, and attacking him in the Flank, thought it prudent, in order to save his Men and Artillery, to evacuate St. Michel, and retreat to Jockas; which he effected with a very trifling Loss, having saved all his Baggage and Stores, except the Powder Magazine, which he blew up, to prevent its falling into the Hands of the Enemy. In consequence of this Retreat, the Russians have entered into Sawolax. On the other Hand, the King, at the Head of a Corps of about 5000 Men, with Fifty Pieces of Cannon, has passed the River Kymene, and made an Irruption, near Keltys, into Russian Finland.

A Courier who arrived Yesterday Morning with Letters from the King to the Queen, the Prince Royal and Baron Armfelt, brought the first News of an Action between the Troops under his Majesty's Command and a Corps of Russians, whom he met on the 28th inst within Two Miles of Davidstat. His Majesty mentions no Particulars in his Letters, only that he had defeated the Enemy, without receiving any Hurt himself: But the Courier reports that the King, with only 2,000 of his Troops, which composed the Van Guard, without waiting for the Rest of his Army, advanced to charge the Enemy, who amounted to about 5,600 Men: That the Russians stood the Fire of the Swedes, with great Intrepidity, for a considerable Time, and in their Turn attacked the Swedes with Bayonets fixed, which occasioned the latter to retreat about Twenty Paces; but that being instantly rallied by his Majesty, who alighted from his Horse, and encouraged them in Person, they returned to the Charge, and put the Enemy to Flight: That the Russians in their Retreat having passed a Defile, the Swedes in the Pursuit discovered another Body of the Enemy, drawn up in a Line, at the opposite Extremity; which Situation not permitting an Attack with any Prospect of Success, the Swedes desisted; but that, making a circular March through a Wood, they charged the Russians in Flank, and entirely routed them. The Loss on the Side of the Swedes is reported to be Three Officers and about 150 Men killed, and Three Officers and nearly 100 Men wounded. The Loss of the Enemy cannot be ascertained, as they carried off their Dead.

Paris, July 20.

Every Thing is now quiet in this Capital. The Militia perform the Duty of the Police so effectually as to prevent every Species of Robbery and Pillage. The Troops are moving away as fast as possible, and there are no Soldiers in the Neighbourhood of Paris, except the French and Swiss Regiments. The Duc de Chatelet has resigned the Command of the French Guards. The King has restored M. de Montmorin to the Department of Foreign Affairs, from which he had been removed, and has appointed M. de St. Priest Secretary of State for the Home Department, in the Room of M. de Villedeuil. The Duc de Liancourt is chosen President of the National Assembly, in the Room of the Archbishop of Vienne, whose Time was expired. M. Necker is not yet arrived.
