THE King has been pleased to grant to Samuel Bentham, Esq; Colonel of the Regiment of Rajsk, in the Service of her Imperial Majesty of all the Russias, His Royal Licence and Permission to accept and wear (in his own Country) the Cross of the Military Order of St. George, conferred on him by her said Imperial Majesty, in Testimony of her most gracious Approbation of his Conduct; and also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

The following Addresses having been transmitted or delivered to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in general Annual Convention assembled, embrace this first Opportunity to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of sincere Congratulation on your Recovery from the severe Indisposition with which you have been afflicted.

Our Joy in the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health is a natural Effect of that Personal Attachment which your Subjects feel from their Experience of the Virtues by which you have adorned the Throne of these Kingdoms.

On this Occasion we reflect with high Satisfaction and Gratitude on the Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Reign; the Protection of Religion and of our Liberties; the Encouragement of Manufactures and useful Arts; the Extension of our Commerce, and the Rank, which, through your Majesty's wife Councils, Great Britain holds among the Nations of Europe.

May Heaven grant to your Majesty long Life and Health to sway the Sceptre over a free and happy People; and may succeeding Generations, under Princes of your Illustrious Line, enjoy such National Felicity as we experience under your Majesty's Government. These are the earnest Wishes of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Commissioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in General Annual Convention assembled.
