

In this Hour of universal Exultation, we join the general Voice of Praise to the Almighty, that He hath hearkened to the Prayers of our Affliction; that His Mercy hath alleviated our Distress; and that we behold, in the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, the Vigour of the Political Constitution of England restored.

Distant as we are from your Royal Throne, and unblest with a Participation in that Happiness which your Majesty's Royal Presence, the Image of Domestic and National Prosperity, communicates to your more favoured Subjects, we rejoice in the more extensive Influence of your Majesty's auspicious Government; the Preservation of National Tranquillity; the Extension, through your Majesty's Care, of the Commerce and Credit of the British Empire; and the Experience of every Civil and Religious Enjoyment under the Protection of the Laws: These, Sire, are the Blessings that describe your Majesty's Reign to the remotest Corners of your Dominions.

May God long preserve your Majesty in that Health which His Providence has restored; that you may long live to His Glory, our great Guardian and Protector in the Personal Exercise of the Royal Functions you have resumed, and the best Security for that general Happiness of which you reign the Author in the Hearts of an affectionate, dutiful and loyal People!

Passed the Council the 29th Day of May, 1789.

Will. Dunlop, Cl. Conc.

[ Transmitted by Lieutenant Governor Clarke. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Council and Assembly
of the Island of Montserrat.

May it please your Majesty!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subject, the Members of the Council and Assembly of your Majesty's Island of Montserrat, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

We acknowledge, with sincere Gratitude, the Goodness of the Supreme Disposer of Events, in attending to the Prayers of your loyal and affectionate People, and in restoring your Majesty to the ardent Wishes of your faithful Subjects in every Part of your extensive Empire.

Long may your Majesty continue the faithful Guardian of the Rights of a loyal and united People; and we fervently pray that the Period may be far distant when your Majesty shall be called from the Possession of a Temporal, to the Enjoyment of an Eternal Crown.

Alex. Gordon, President of the Council.

Thomas Harcum, Speaker of the Assembly.

[ Transmitted by the President and Speaker. ]

Montserrat, April 30, 1789.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Council and Assembly
of the Island of Grenada, and the Grenadines dependent thereon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Members of Council, and Representatives of the People in General Assembly of Grenada, ever sensible of the Happiness they enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Care and Protection, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most steady Loyalty, and of the warmest Attachment to your Royal Person.

They had long been accustomed to consider the Increase of either as an Impossibility, but the Emotions they now experience point out their Error, and convince them that the deepest Losses most powerfully tend to enhance the Value of Re-enjoyment. From your Majesty's Indisposition was apprehended the Privation of their first and greatest Blessing. The Return of Health to their beloved Monarch removes their Anxiety and Distress, and gives Birth to Sensations of such a Nature as Language can but poorly express.

To the Almighty Disposer of all Events they lift their Hearts with Gratitude for the Happiness thus bestowed upon all your joyful Subjects. To your Majesty they request Permission to offer the most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Recovery, and upon your being again able to resume the Exercise of your Royal Authority; and at the same Time they with infinite Pleasure seize this Opportunity of expressing their fervent Wishes that uninterrupted Health and Felicity may ever be the Portion of their Sovereign; and that through Life your Majesty may uniformly enjoy that highest human Happiness, the Bliss of Blessing others.

By Command,

Ben. Webster, Clerk of the Council.

David C. Lunie, Clerk of the Assembly.

[ Transmitted by Samuel Williams, Esq; ]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg, met in Synod for the first Time since your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late alarming Illness, beg Leave to join with our most unfeigned Congratulations the other Societies of our Fellow-Subjects, whose Hearts overflowing with Gratitude to the King of Kings for His gracious Mercy to the Nation, have prompted them to crowd around the Throne, echoing their Acclamations of Joy, in a Manner, no Doubt, painful to that amiable Sensibility which adorns the many Graces of your Majesty's Character, but sufficient to convince the Kings of the Earth, that a Sovereign formed on your Example will ever be esteemed as the Father, and cared for as the Darling of His People.

In this remote Corner of the Land, where Disaffection was once thought to prevail, your Majesty's public and private Virtues, and the Attention paid during the whole of your Majesty's beneficent Reign to the Civil and Religious Interests of the Country, had entirely conciliated the Minds of every Denomination of Men.

The Continuance of the Royal Bounty for Reformation of the Highlands and Islands, the lenient Intention of Government in restoring the forfeited Estates, the additional Appointment of Judges and Magistrates for the legal Administration of Justice, your Majesty's paternal Goodness in supplying the Poor with Bread in Seasons of Scarcity, and the Exertions made by patriotic Men under your Majesty's Auspices to promote a Spirit of Industry and Improvement among the Inhabitants of this Coast,

will