

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 1, to Tuesday August 4, 1789

Whitehall, August 4.

THE following Address of the Consul and Members of the British Factory at Leghorn having been transmitted by the Right Honourable Lord Hervey, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Florence, to his Grace the Duke of Leeds, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Consul and Members of the British Factory at Leghorn.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Consul and Members of this British Factory, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from so alarming an Indisposition.

Happy in the Blessings we enjoy in our Commerce, at this Distance, under your Majesty's Protection and mild Government, our Joy at the Continuance thereof, through the Intervention of Providence, can only equal our Alarm and Grief when threatened with the Privation thereof.

That your Majesty may long, very long, live to complete the Felicity of a Nation exulting under so mild and auspicious a Government, and in the Hearts of your loving Subjects wherever dispersed, is our constant and most fervent Prayer.

John Udny, Consul,
For himself, and in the Name of the other Members.

Leghorn, July 16, 1789.

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Hon. William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of the Island of Antigua.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Members of your Majesty's Council and the Assembly of the Island of Antigua, impressed with the most sincere Sentiments of Respect and Attachment to your Royal Person, beg Leave to unite with the Rest of your faithful People in declaring the Happiness we feel, that it has pleased Divine Providence to raise you from the severe Indisposition with which you have been afflicted, and to enable you to reassume the executive Functions of your Government.

While we thus, from this remote Part of your Majesty's Dominions, offer our Congratulations upon an Event so highly interesting to us, and to all who have equally experienced the Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, we cannot but receive additional Satisfaction, when we reflect upon the Happiness of your Royal Consort our amiable and most beloved Queen, and that of your Illustrious Family, who have had the best of Husbands and Fathers restored to them.

We trust, most fervently, that your Majesty may long live their Pride and Comfort, and that you may continue to reign in the Hearts of the Subjects of your extensive Empire, who cannot but look forward with Hope and Gratitude to a Monarch, who has always made His Happiness consist in that of His People, by an inviolable Attachment to the Principles of our excellent Constitution.

Edward Byam, President.
Tho. Freeman, Speaker.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Governor Nugent.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Council of Dominica.

Most Gracious Sir!

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Dominica, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to offer our humble Congratulation on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery; and to assure your Majesty, that during the distressful Interval of your Majesty's Indisposition no Class or Description of your Subjects felt more Sorrow, or on your Majesty's Recovery more real Joy, than the Council of this Island.

Conscious of the Blessings all your Majesty's Subjects derive from a benevolent and a patriot Sovereign, we congratulate your Majesty on being again enabled to resume your personal Attention to the public Concerns of your Kingdoms, and on the Wisdom of your Parliament, manifested by the Measure they had taken for the Honor and Interests of your Crown, and the Security and good Government of your Majesty's Dominions.

We cannot omit to express our humble Acknowledgements of the Goodness of the Almighty in restoring your Majesty to the anxious Wishes of your loyal Subjects; and we shall offer our Prayers for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Health, as the Source of domestic Comfort to your Royal Family, and of universal Happiness to all your Subjects.

Alex. Stewart, President of the Council.

Council Chamber, Dominica,
May 6, 1789.

[Transmitted by John Orde, Esq; Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of His Majesty's Council of the Bahama Islands.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, your Majesty's Council of the Bahama Islands, presume, with all Humility, to approach your Majesty,