The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of this your Majesty's antient City of Exeter, beg Leave to pay our Duty to your Majesty, on your Arrival in this Part of your Kingdom, and to express our humble Thanks for your Majesty's gracious Condescension, in honoring this City with your Presence.

Your Majesty's faithful Citizens of Exeter have eagerly embraced every Opportunity of standing forward, and giving every Proof of their Loyalty and of their Zeal in Support of your Majesty's Government; but it is peculiarly grateful to them to be permitted to approach your Royal Person, and in this august Presence to testify their Duty and their Loyalty to your Majesty, their firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's most illustrious Family, and their Veneration for those Virtues, which add Lustre and Dignity to the most exalted Station.

Your Majesty will, here, as in every other Part of your Majesty's Dominions, perceive, that there is but one Mind amongst all Ranks of your Subjects. The earnest Wishes of the Nation are united, and they are all directed, to the Support of the Honor of your Crown, the Preservation of your Majesty's Life and Health, and to your Attainment of every public and domestic Happiness, as your Majesty's gracious Endeavours are, and always have been, directed to the Liberty, the Security, and the Prosperity of your People.

The many essential Advantages we derive and daily experience from the Administration of your Majesty's auspicious Government, cannot but make us anxious for the Continuance of it. We are thankful for the great Blessing, which, under Divine Providence, we have lately received; and rejoice in the present happy Prospect, that your Majesty's Life may be lengthened for many Years to come; and that the favoured People of this Nation will long possess the Happiness and Advantage of contemplating your Majesty's illustrious Character, which, as it is the highest in Rank and Dignity, is also the first in affording to the World an eminent Example of all the Duties and Virtues of public and private Life.

present Prosperity and the principal Source from whence it is derived. May your Majesty long live to partake of the blessings we enjoy, and may you continue to possess the Affection of our Sovereign and of His People, and obtain every Reward of public and domestic Felicity which such Excellence deserves.

Such Certificate must be filed at the Office of the Auditor of the Exchequer, and will be a sufficient Warrant for the Payment of the said Annuity; or, instead of said Affidavit or Affirmation, it will be sufficient if a true Copy of the Register of the Birth of the said Nominee (being of the Age of Twenty Years or upwards) is produced, under the Hands of the Minister, Church-Wardens, Overseers, or other principal Inhabitants of the Parish where such Register shall have been kept, or any Two of them, attested by Two or more credible Witnesses who shall have seen the same duly executed.

27. If any Nominee or Nominees be resident in Ireland when Application shall be made for the Payment of his, her or their Annuity, Certificates must be produced, under the Hand of One or more of the Barons of the Exchequer in that Kingdom, that, upon Proof to him or them made upon Oath, it doth seem probable to him or them that said Nominee or Nominees are living at the Time of such Examination; and in Case any Nominee shall, at the Times of such Demand, be resident in any Parts of His Majesty's Dominions beyond Sea, Certificates of the Life of such Nominee must be produced, under the Hand of the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Settlement where such Nominees shall be living, on the Day when such Half-yearly Payment shall become due; or if such Nominee shall be resident in any Foreign Country in Amity with His Majesty, then the Certificate must be under the Hand of the British Minister resident at the Place where such Nominee shall then be; or if any Nominee shall be resident in any other Foreign Country where there is no British Minister, then the Certificate of the Life of such Nominee must be under the Hand of the Chief Magistrate of the Place or Province where such Nominee shall then be living.

29. Any Person knowingly receiving any Annuity on the Life of any Nominee after the Decease of said Nominee, over and above what was due to such Nominee at the Time of his or her Decease, is to forfeit treble the Value of the Sum so unjustly received, and also the further Sum of Five Hundred Pounds.

30. All Proprietors of One or more Shares in the Tontine are required to give Notice to the Auditor of the Exchequer of the Death of his or her Nominee or Nominees, within One Month after the same shall have come to their Knowledge, under a Penalty of Ten Pounds.

31. Annuities arising from the Tontine to be paid free of all Taxes whatever, and are to be considered as Personal Property.

32. If any Subscriber shall neglect to demand his or her Annuity or Annuities till within Forty Days of Two Years after the same shall have become due, the said Annuity or Annuities so left undemanded will be forfeited, and will thenceforth be divided amongst the Class to which the same shall belong: But if such Nominee shall afterwards appear to be living, he or she shall be entitled to receive the same in future, on making a Demand in due Time.

33. An Account to be made up Half-yearly at the Exchequer, of the Nominees who have died, and of Persons who have not demanded their Annuities for Two Years, in order that the Annuities annexed to such Persons may be divided amongst the Survivors of the respective Classes to which they shall have belonged.

34. Any Subscriber however making Oath before one or more Barons of the Exchequer, that although the proper Proofs are not then produced of the Life of his or her Nominee, there is strong Reason to believe such Nominee to be still living beyond Seas, the Auditor of the Exchequer may suspend the Division of the said Annuity for such Time as shall appear to said Baron or Barons sufficient for the procuring the necessary Certificates; and if they shall not be produced within the Time so allowed by the Auditor, then the same will be divided amongst the Survivors in the Class to which the said Nominee belonged.

35. In Case any Order or Orders, issued by the Treasury for the Payment of the Annuities, shall be lost, burnt or destroyed, or worn out, the Lords of the Treasury are empowered to issue fresh Orders in Lieu thereof.

36. Persons forging or altering Registers or Certificates, or assisting in doing so, to suffer Death as Felons; and any Person counterfeiting or personating any Nominee, with Intent to defraud, to suffer Death as Felons.

37. Lists of the Nominees still living will be annually published by the Lords of the Treasury, and distributed amongst the Persons entitled to Annuities, gratis.

38. Any Officer of the Exchequer taking any Fee for transacting any Business respecting the Tontine is to forfeit Twenty Pounds.

THIS is the Substance of the Act for establishing the British Tontine, by which it appears that every Precaution has been and will be taken to protect the Property of all Persons purchasing any Share or Shares thereof. All Parents, Guardians and Trustees, therefore, may look forward to the ultimate as well as present Advantage to be derived by the Infants whose Lives they may nominate, as being amply secured to them by the Government of Great Britain.
