Vienna, August 15.

His Imperial Majesty, as a Mark of his Approbation, has conferred on the Prince of Saxe-Cobourg the Great Cross of the Military Order of Maria Theresia, has sent a Snuff-Box, richly ornamented with Diamonds, to the Russian General Sutarow, and has promoted several of the Officers who had distinguished themselves in the late Action.

Hague, August 21.

Accounts have been received here from Liege that, on the 18th Instant, a tumultuous Assembly of the Inhabitants of that City, and its District, had surrounded the Palace of the Prince Bishop, and extorted his Assent to different Demands; one of which was that the States General of that Principality should be forthwith assembled.

An Express arrived here also this Morning from Maestricht, with Intelligence that a Body of several Thousand Rioters had assembled in the Neighbourhood of Veniers, and had committed various Outrages; but it does not appear what was the immediate Motive or Pretext for this Insurrection.
