Weymouth, August 29.

THEIR Majesties, with their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, having left Saltram on Thursday Morning last, arrived at Exeter at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, where they passed the Night. They set out from thence at Eight o'Clock Yesterday Morning, and returned hither at Four in the Afternoon, in perfect Health.

Whitehall, September 1.

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Hon. William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most affectionate Subjects, the Delegates from the Burghesses of the Royal Boroughs in Scotland, associated to endeavour by the most constitutional Means to obtain a Reform in the internal Government of these Boroughs, feel ourselves impelled to embrace this the earliest Opportunity which our Situation has afforded us of approaching your Royal Person, with Sentiments of the truest and most unfeigned Congratulation on Account of your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late alarming Indisposition.

We felt, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, that deep Distress with which your Majesty's Indisposition had affected the Nation at large, and therefore we could not but sincerely rejoice in an Event which restored the Energy of Government, and with it the Public Happiness and Tranquillity. In the Midst of that National Affliction which your Majesty's Illness naturally produced, your Subjects received Consolation when they beheld in your eldest Son, the Heir of your Crown and of your Illustrious House, a Prince distinguished by Virtues and Talents which rendered him the fit Representative of your Royal Person, in exercising the Functions of Government; and it is our earnest Wish that there may never be wanting Princes of the August House of Brunswick to sway the British Sceptre, and to continue for ever, as they have hitherto done, the illustrious Guardians and Protectors of National Felicity, and Public Liberty.

That your Majesty may long reign in Health and Happiness over the freest and the happiest People in the World, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment,
by

A la Très Excellente Majesté du ROI;

Humble Adresse des Citoyens de la Ville et District de Montreal dans la Province de Quebec.

Très Gracieux Souverain,

NOUS les loyaux et fideles, anciens et nouveaux Sujets de votre Majesté, Citoyens de la Ville et District de Montreal dans votre Province de Quebec, prenons la Liberté d'offrir à votre Majesté nos plus vives et plus sinceres Congratulations pour les Graces aux quelles il a plu à la Divine Providence de nous faire participer, en commun avec le reste de vos loyaux Sujets, en delivrant votre Majesté de l'Indisposition allarmante dont elle a été dernièrement frappée, et en la rendant à l'Exercice personnelle de votre Autorité Royale.

Penetrés du Bonheur dont nous jouissons sous le Gouvernement doux et sage de votre Majesté, nous ne pouvons qu'être sensiblement affectés à la moindre Apparence d'Interruption des Soins paternels de votre Majesté; mais maintenant que le triste Préage de nos Calamités est dissipé, et que la Santé et le Bonheur domestique sont repandus de nouveau dans le Sein de notre bien aimé Souverain, nous ressentons particulièrement les Bienfaits du Tout-Puissant d'avoir daigné écouter les Prieres d'un Peuple affligé, et d'avoir exaucé ses Vœux les plus ardents.

Nous osons humblement assurer votre Majesté que nous ne cesserons d'adresser nos plus ferventes Prieres au Très-Haut, afin qu'Il accorde à votre Majesté un Regne long et heureux, et que les Privileges précieux dont vos fideles Sujets ont joui d'une Maniere si distinguée, sous les Auspices de votre Majesté, soient à jamais conservés dans votre illustre Famille jusqu'à la Posterité la plus reculée.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and District of Montreal in the Province of Quebec.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal, your old and new Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and District of Montreal in your Province of Quebec, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations for the Blessings which it hath pleased Divine Providence to vouchsafe to us, in common with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, in recovering your Majesty from your late severe Indisposition, and restoring you to the personal Exercise of your Royal Authority.

Sensible of the Happiness which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we cannot but be truly affected by any Circumstance which which may interrupt the Exercise of your Majesty's paternal Concern for the Interests of all your Dominions; but at the present Juncture, when the Gloom of National Calamity is dispelled, and we again behold our beloved Sovereign in the full Possession of Health and domestic Happiness, we are peculiarly impressed with a deep Sense of the Goodness of Almighty God in having listened to the Prayers of an afflicted People, and restored him to their most ardent Wishes.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall not cease to offer up our most earnest Supplications to Heaven, that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign, and that those invaluable Privileges, which your faithful Subjects so eminently enjoy under your Majesty's Auspices, may be preserved in your Illustrious Line to the latest Posterity.

Montreal, June 16, 1789.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Lord Derchesfer, Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the Island Saint John, assembled at Charlotte Town upon Trinity Term.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of your Majesty's Island of Saint John, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to join our feeble but affectionate Voice to that of the rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects in joyful Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late afflicting Indisposition.

Situated as we are in a distant Part of your Majesty's Dominions, and far from the Happiness of your Majesty's Presence, we are equally sensible with any of our Fellow Subjects of the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign, and humbly and dutifully assure your Majesty, that none of your faithful People feel more sincere Joy, or are more grateful to the Divine Being for restoring to their Prayers their beloved Sovereign.

That your Majesty may long and happily continue to hold up to the World a bright Example of a just and equitable Rule, as your Majesty equally does of every domestic and private Virtue, is the sincere and ardent Prayers of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

James Curtis, High Sheriff.
