Whitehall, September 5.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Hon. William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the several Clergymen now residing in your Majesty's most loyal and ancient Colony of Barbadoes.

MAY it please your Sacred Majesty favourably to accept this Tribute of our unfeigned Praise, sincere Congratulations, and ineffable Joy for the happy Recovery of your Majesty's Health.

When the melancholy Tidings of your Majesty's Indisposition reached this distant Part of your Dominions, your loyal Subjects were penetrated with every sympathetick and heartfelt Sensation of Grief, Anguish and Sorrow, and their Prayers in every Church and Place of Worship were cordially and fervently offered up to the Supreme and Merciful Ruler of the Universe, that your Majesty's Health might be speedily and happily reinstated.

That the Supplications of Millions in different Kingdoms have been heard at the Throne of Mercy, we now unite in Thanks with every grateful Praise, and concur in rejoicing with all the Inhabitants of this Island, that the wished-for Restoration has been most graciously and effectually accomplished.

And that the Almighty Disposer of all Events may be pleased to grant to your Majesty a long and uninterrupted Series of Health and every other Felicity, is, and will always be, the ardent Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and faithful Subjects and Servants.

Bridge Town, May 20, 1789.

[Transmitted by David Parry, Esq; Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council and Assembly of your Islands of St. Vincent and such of the Grenadines as lie to the Northward of Carriacou in America, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations upon the happy Re establishment of your Health.

Sensible as we are of the many Blessings we have enjoyed since we have been restored to your Majesty's mild and benign Government, after having laboured under the Pressure of a most arbitrary one for the Space of near Five Years, it was with the deepest Concern we heard of the alarming Indisposition of our Sovereign.

Animated not less by a sincere Love of the Constitution than the heartfelt Regard due to your Majesty's Person, we return our Thanks to Almighty God for the Restoration of that Health with which the Happiness of your Subjects, however remote or distant from your Throne, is so intimately connected.

That your Majesty may enjoy perfect Health to see many and happy Anniversaries of this your Natal Day, and long to reign over a grateful and affectionate People, is our earnest Prayer.

St. Vincent, June 4, 1789.

[Transmitted by James Seton, Esq; Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Orkney, embrace this Opportunity of our first Meeting to join the Nation in approaching your Majesty's Throne with Hearts full of the sincerest Affection to your Majesty, and of the warmest Gratitude to Almighty God for recovering the Guardian of our Laws and the Father of His People from His late alarming Indisposition.

From the long Experience we have had of your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, from our sincere Attachment to your Person, and from our just Esteem of your many eminent Virtues, we felt the deepest Affliction on Account of your Majesty's Illness. The merciful Interposition of Providence, therefore, which, in Answer to the united Prayers of a great and happy Nation, restored your Majesty's Health, raised in our Hearts, and in the Hearts of the People under our Care, the most unfeigned Joy for such a Deliverance, and the most fervent Gratitude to Heaven for such a signal Blessing.

That that God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, may long preserve your Majesty to be the Guardian of the British Constitution; that He may continue to bless you with the Affections of a free and happy People; that He may long preserve in Life and Health your Royal Consort the Queen; that He may train up his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, and all the other Branches of your illustrious Family, in the Exercise of those Talents and Virtues which can add Lustre to Royalty; and that a numerous Race of Kings may spring from your Majesty, Majesty, to inherit not only your Crown but your Virtues, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient and loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Oikney.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, this 13th Day of August,
One thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine,
at Kirkwall, by

James Leslie, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Reverend George Barry, Minister of Kirkwall.]

The following Address having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to the Queen: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Governor, Council and Assembly of the Island of St. Vincent and its Dependencies, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with a Tender of our most sincere Congratulations on the Re-establishment of His Majesty's Health.

The Pleasure we feel from this joyful Event is increased by considering the Happiness which your Majesty must have experienced on our gracious Sovereign's being restored to you, and to the Wishes of His affectionate and loyal People.

His Majesty's faithful Subjects, however remote and distant from the Royal Presence, Madam, are no Strangers to, and have long admired and revered your Majesty's many and exalted Virtues; and it will be their earnest Prayer that His Majesty may enjoy Health to see many happy Anniversaries of this Day, and continue a Blessing to you and his People.

TO THE MANUFACTURERS OF BRITISH GOODS WOVE IN THE LOOM.

AN Act having passed both Houses of Parliament, which exempts every Species of British Goods wove in the Loom from the Auction Tax, when sold by public Sale, for Account of the Manufacturer, or for Account of the first Purchaser from the Manufacturer, we take the earliest Opportunity to offer you our Services.

From our old Establishment in this Line, and the Assistance which we have, as to the Knowledge of the true Interest of the Manufacturers, together with the liberal Funds and ample Security which we can at all Times command, we flatter ourselves, that nothing will be wanting on our Part to render this Mode of Sale equally convenient and beneficial to the Manufacturers and wholesale Dealers in general.

As the Exemption from the Tax takes Place the 1st of October, our first Sale for Account of the Manufacturers, will be early in that Month; and in Addition to a very considerable Quantity of Goods which are already come forward, we hope for the general Attention and Support of those Manufacturers who approve the Plan.
