

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 1, to Saturday September 5, 1789.

Whitehall, September 5.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Hon. William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the several Clergymen now residing in your Majesty's most loyal and ancient Colony of Barbadoes.

MAY it please your Sacred Majesty favourably to accept this Tribute of our unfeigned Praise, sincere Congratulations, and ineffable Joy for the happy Recovery of your Majesty's Health.

When the melancholy Tidings of your Majesty's Indisposition reached this distant Part of your Dominions, your loyal Subjects were penetrated with every sympathetick and heartfelt Sensation of Grief, Anguish and Sorrow, and their Prayers in every Church and Place of Worship were cordially and fervently offered up to the Supreme and Merciful Ruler of the Universe, that your Majesty's Health might be speedily and happily reinstated.

That the Supplications of Millions in different Kingdoms have been heard at the Throne of Mercy, we now unite in Thanks with every grateful Praise, and concur in rejoicing with all the Inhabitants of this Island, that the wished-for Restoration has been most graciously and effectually accomplished.

And that the Almighty Disposer of all Events may be pleased to grant to your Majesty a long and uninterrupted Series of Health and every other Felicity, is, and will always be, the ardent Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and faithful Subjects and Servants.

Bridge Town, May 20, 1789.

[Transmitted by David Parry, Esq; Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council and Assembly of your Islands of St. Vincent and such of the Grenadines as lie to the Northward of Carriacou in America, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations upon the happy Re establishment of your Health.

Sensible as we are of the many Blessings we have enjoyed since we have been restored to your Majesty's mild and benign Government, after having laboured under the Pressure of a most arbitrary one for the Space of near Five Years, it was with the deepest Concern we heard of the alarming Indisposition of our Sovereign.

Animated not less by a sincere Love of the Constitution than the heartfelt Regard due to your Majesty's Person, we return our Thanks to Almighty God for the Restoration of that Health with which the Happiness of your Subjects, however remote or distant from your Throne, is so intimately connected.

That your Majesty may enjoy perfect Health to see many and happy Anniversaries of this your Natal Day, and long to reign over a grateful and affectionate People, is our earnest Prayer.

St. Vincent, June 4, 1789.

[Transmitted by James Seton, Esq; Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Orkney, embrace this Opportunity of our first Meeting to join the Nation in approaching your Majesty's Throne with Hearts full of the sincerest Affection to your Majesty, and of the warmest Gratitude to Almighty God for recovering the Guardian of our Laws and the Father of His People from His late alarming Indisposition.

From the long Experience we have had of your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, from our sincere Attachment to your Person, and from our just Esteem of your many eminent Virtues, we felt the deepest Affliction on Account of your Majesty's Illness. The merciful Interposition of Providence, therefore, which, in Answer to the united Prayers of a great and happy Nation, restored your Majesty's Health, raised in our Hearts, and in the Hearts of the People under our Care, the most unfeigned Joy for such a Deliverance, and the most fervent Gratitude to Heaven for such a signal Blessing.

That that God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, may long preserve your Majesty to be the Guardian of the British Constitution; that He may continue to bless you with the Affections of a free and happy People; that He may long preserve in Life and Health your Royal Consort the Queen; that He may train up his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, and all the other Branches of your illustrious Family, in the Exercise of those Talents and Virtues which can add Lustre to Royalty; and that a numerous Race of Kings may spring from your Majesty,