Weymouth, September 13.

THE King was this Day pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Andrew Snape Douglas, Esq; Captain in His Majesty's Navy.

Tottenham Park, September 17.

Their Majesties, with their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, set out from Weymouth on Monday Morning last, at Nine o'Clock, and at Six in the Evening arrived at Longleat, the Seat of the Marquis of Bath, from whence they departed Yesterday Morning, at Eleven o'Clock, and arrived at this Place at Four in the Afternoon.

The following Addresses of the Mayor and Burgeses of Marlborough have been presented to Their Majesties by the Mayor, attended by the Rest of the Corporation, being introduced by the Earl of Ailebury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household: Which Addresses Their Majesties were pleased to receive very graciously, and they all had the Honour to kiss their Majesties Hands.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Mayor and Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Marlborough, deeply sensible of the distinguished Honour allowed them of approaching your Sacred Person, presume to offer their most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty. Warmly interested with the Nation in general, in whatever may contribute to the Happiness of your Majesty, they behold with Pleasure the salutary Effects of a Tour which has tended to establish the Health of their Gracious Sovereign, under whose mild and benevolent Sway his grateful Subjects experience every Blessing, and who is justly stiled the Father of a loyal and united People.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

MADAM!

THE Mayor and Burgeses of Marlborough humbly offer the Tribute of Applause and Veneration, in an eminent Degree so justly due, to your Majesty!

While we are thankful to Providence for the great National Blessing which we have so lately received, we are constantly impressed with Admiration of the Attention and Affection displayed by your Majesty to our gracious Sovereign, united and endeared to your Majesty by the tenderest Ties of conjugal Affection, and whose unremitted Labours have been ever employed to promote the Happiness of his faithful People.

Windfor, September 18.

Their Majesties and their Royal Highnesses the Princess Royal, Princess Augusta, and Princess Elizabeth, set out from Tottenham Park at Ten o'Clock this Morning, and arrived here at Three this Afternoon, in perfect Health.

Whitehall, September 19.

The King has been pleased to grant to the Right Honourable Thomas Charles Tracy, Viscount and Baron Tracy, of Rathcoole in the County of Dublin, in the Kingdom of Ireland, and his Issue, His Royal Licence and Authority to assume and take the Surname and Arms of Leigh only; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office:

The King has also been pleased to grant to Henry William Mason, of Hatton-street, in the Parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, in the City of London, Esq; and his Issue, His Royal Licence and Authority to assume the Name and bear the Arms of Pomeroy only, pursuant to the last Will of Jane Pomeroy, late of Abingdon-street, in the Parish of St. John the Evangelist, in the Liberty of Westminster, deceased, Widow of Henry Pomeroy, Esq; Grandfather of the said Henry William Mason; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office:

And also to order that these His Majesty's several Concessions and Declarations be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 19.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His

His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the General Assembly
of the Bahama Islands.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the General Assembly of your Bahama Islands, with Hearts replete with the most inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and with the most fervent and sincere Gratitude to the Almighty Dispenser of Events for your Majesty's Recovery, humbly beg Leave to pour forth at the Foot of your Throne our most ardent and unfeigned Congratulations upon that important and auspicious Event.

Sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Protection and Government, your faithful Subjects of the Bahamas would regard your Loss as the severest and most poignant of Misfortunes; and they now hail your Majesty's Restoration to Health as the most signal Instance of Divine Favour and Mercy extended to a faithful and affectionate People.

May that Beneficent and Supreme Being, whose all-powerful Arm raised your Majesty from the Bed of Sickness to be again the Guardian and Protector of your Subjects, render additionally complete the Work of His Divine Providence, by continuing to us the most ineffimable of all Blessings, a patriot King.

By Order of the House,
Thomas Roker, Speaker.

New Providence,
June 9, 1789.

[ Transmitted by the Earl of Dunmore, Governor. ]

The following Address having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to the Queen: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the General Assembly
of the Bahama Islands.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the General Assembly of the Bahama Islands, impressed with the deepest Sense of Respect to your Majesty and Attachment to your Royal Consort's Person and Government, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the happy Event of our Royal Sovereign's Recovery.

If the Satisfaction we experience upon a Circumstance so highly auspicious and important to the Empire in general could receive any possible Addition, it would be in the Reflection that your Majesty's eminent Virtues and conjugal Affection must be amply rewarded in the Restoration of your Royal Consort's Health, the long Continuance of which, and the Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty, are the sincere and fervent Wishes of the General Assembly of the Bahama Islands.

By Order of the House,
Thomas Roker, Speaker.

New Providence,
June 9, 1789.

[ Transmitted by the Earl of Dunmore, Governor. ]

York House, December 18, 1788.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York has been pleased to appoint Mr. Mather Brown, of Cavendish Square, to be Portrait Painter to his Royal Highness.

Dublin Castle, September 12, 1789.

The King, by His Royal Letters, having appointed John Armstrong and John Agar, Esqrs. to be of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council of Ireland, they this Day in Council took the usual Oaths and their Places at the Board accordingly.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a certain Order for Payment of Money, dated the 22d Day of September, 1788, with the Name of John Moore thereto subscribed, purporting to have been signed by John Moore, of London, Refiner, and directed to George Prescott, Esq; and others, of London, Bankers and Partners, by the Names and Descriptions of Mess. Prescotts and Co. for the Payment of the Sum of 700l. has been forged and counterfeited by some Person or Persons unknown; and that for uttering the said Order Jacob Canter has been tried and convicted:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Forgery, and also except the abovementioned Jacob Canter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Association of Bankers for discovering and prosecuting Forgeries, and other Frauds, do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (excepted as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me,

William Culverden,
Chairman of the Association.

Whitehall, August 24, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that various Riots and Disturbances broke out on or about the 29th Day of July last, and continued for several successive Days, in the Town and Neighbourhood neighbourhood of Wrexham, in the County of Denbigh; in the Course of which several Waggon's were stopped and plundered, Boats destroyed, and Corn forcibly taken and sold for less than the current Price, by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the unlawful Proceedings abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof:

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

Whitehall, September 5, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Dwelling-house of Mr. Richard Saumarez, at Newington Butts, in the County of Surrey, was feloniously and burglariously broke and entered in the Night of the 24th of August last, by Three Men unknown, who were discovered by James Bonner, a Watchman, whom they cruelly and inhumanly beat, cut and wounded, so that he languished till Saturday Evening last, and then died.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Burglary and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually gave the Blow which caused the Death of the said James Bonner,) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, we the Church-Wardens of the Parish of St. Mary Newington aforesaid, do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as abovementioned, to be paid by us on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
