Weymouth, September 13.

THE King was this Day pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Andrew Snape Douglas, Esq; Captain in His Majesty's Navy.

Tottenham Park, September 17.

Their Majesties, with their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, set out from Weymouth on Monday Morning last, at Nine o'Clock, and at Six in the Evening arrived at Longleat, the Seat of the Marquis of Bath, from whence they departed Yesterday Morning, at Eleven o'Clock, and arrived at this Place at Four in the Afternoon.

The following Addresses of the Mayor and Burgeses of Marlborough have been presented to Their Majesties by the Mayor, attended by the Rest of the Corporation, being introduced by the Earl of Ailebury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household: Which Addresses Their Majesties were pleased to receive very graciously, and they all had the Honour to kiss their Majesties Hands.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Mayor and Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Marlborough, deeply sensible of the distinguished Honour allowed them of approaching your Sacred Person, presume to offer their most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty. Warmly interested with the Nation in general, in whatever may contribute to the Happiness of your Majesty, they behold with Pleasure the salutary Effects of a Tour which has tended to establish the Health of their Gracious Sovereign, under whose mild and benevolent Sway his grateful Subjects experience every Blessing, and who is justly stiled the Father of a loyal and united People.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

MADAM!

THE Mayor and Burgeses of Marlborough humbly offer the Tribute of Applause and Veneration, in an eminent Degree so justly due, to your Majesty!

While we are thankful to Providence for the great National Blessing which we have so lately received, we are constantly impressed with Admiration of the Attention and Affection displayed by your Majesty to our gracious Sovereign, united and endeared to your Majesty by the tenderest Ties of conjugal Affection, and whose unremitted Labours have been ever employed to promote the Happiness of his faithful People.

Windfor, September 18.

Their Majesties and their Royal Highnesses the Princess Royal, Princess Augusta, and Princess Elizabeth, set out from Tottenham Park at Ten o'Clock this Morning, and arrived here at Three this Afternoon, in perfect Health.

Whitehall, September 19.

The King has been pleased to grant to the Right Honourable Thomas Charles Tracy, Viscount and Baron Tracy, of Rathcoole in the County of Dublin, in the Kingdom of Ireland, and his Issue, His Royal Licence and Authority to assume and take the Surname and Arms of Leigh only; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office:

The King has also been pleased to grant to Henry William Mason, of Hatton-street, in the Parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, in the City of London, Esq; and his Issue, His Royal Licence and Authority to assume the Name and bear the Arms of Pomeroy only, pursuant to the last Will of Jane Pomeroy, late of Abingdon-street, in the Parish of St. John the Evangelist, in the Liberty of Westminster, deceased, Widow of Henry Pomeroy, Esq; Grandfather of the said Henry William Mason; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office:

And also to order that these His Majesty's several Concessions and Declarations be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 19.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His
