Vienna, September 12.

The Emperor, perceiving his Recovery to be confirmed by the progressive Amendment in his Health, has now dismissed his medical Attendants, after rewarding them in the most liberal Manner. Baron Storck, his first Physician, and M. Brambilla, his principal Surgeon, have received the Sum of One Thousand Sovereigns each, and a Ring of the Value of One Thousand Ducats. The inferior Physicians and Surgeons, and all the Domesticks of every Description that have been about his Majesty's Person at Luxembourg, have been also rewarded in Proportion to their Rank and Services. Since his Removal to Hetzendorff his Majesty has made several Excursions in the Environs of that Place, and Yesterday Morning he took an Airing on Horseback, as far as to the Lines of this City.

Marshal Haddick returned hither on Thursday Evening much recovered. On the 3d of this Month Marshal Laudohn returned to Semlin, and on the next Day the Archduke arrived at that Place. Marshal Pellegrini is still at Peterwaradin.
