

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 29, to Saturday October 3, 1789.

St. James's, September 30.

THIS Day M. Lavezzari, Resident from the Republick of Venice, had his first private Audience of His Majesty, to deliver his Credentials:

To which he was introduced by His Grace the Duke of Leeds, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, October 3.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Spiridion Foresti, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul at Zante, in the Room of Peter Sargint, Esq; deceased: And William England, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul at Malta.

Whitehall, October 3.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Delegates of the Established Schoolmasters of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Delegates of the Established Schoolmasters of Scotland, beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of our first General Meeting after your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late severe Indisposition to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the warmest Loyalty and Affection, and most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the Re-establishment of your Health.

As we are certain nothing can give our beloved Sovereign greater Pleasure than the Welfare of His People, and the proper Education of their Children, our utmost Endeavours shall be continued to train up the Youth committed to our Care in Learning, Virtue and Loyalty, that they may become good Subjects and useful Members of Society.

That Almighty God may long preserve the Life and Happiness of our King, who is the Patron of Learning and Virtue; and that His Posterity, following His Example, may sway the British Sceptre to the latest Ages, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Delegates of the Established
Schoolmasters of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and at our Appointment, by John Wilson, Preses.

AS several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have from Time to Time gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Lawes of these Kingdoms; the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliamen. of their late Majesties, King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them.—And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brasses, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries, out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof upon Indictment or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted, shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades
