WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Saturday the 17th Instant, about Midnight, the Dwelling-House of General Charles

Vernon, situated at Hampstead, in the County of Middlesex, was burglariously attempted to be broke into and entered, by some evil-disposed Persons unknown, armed with Pistols and Bludgeons, who actually stole a Quantity of Plate through a Casement, but were deterred from proceeding in the Robbery by the Noise they made alarming one of the Servants of the said General Vernon, who discharged a Blunderbuss in the Midst of the said Villains, by which one of them was very much wounded, as appeared by the Quantity of Blood discovered in the Track by which they made their Escape; that in their Flight they left behind them the Plate they had stolen, together with a Horse Pistol loaded with Slugs, mounted with Brass, and a Bludgeon stained with Blood; and further, that on Monday Evening the 19th Instant, soon after the Return of the said General Vernon in his Carriage from Town, as one of the Footmen who attended him, (being the Servant who discharged the Blunderbuss at the Thieves as above mentioned) was passing from one of the back Offices towards the said Dwelling-House, he was fired at with a Pistol (as supposed by the Report) loaded with Ball, by some Person unknown, but fortunately escaped unhurt, and two of the Balls entered the Door of the said Dwelling-House.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the several felonious Offences above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually fired at the Footman as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
