From Saturday November 7, to Tuesday November 10, 1789.

Whitehall, November 10.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Most Sacred Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Officers Civil and Military, Ministers and Inhabitants of the Island of Cape-Breton and its Dependencies.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

UNITING in one Mind, and in one Sentiment, we humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's most Sacred Person, to offer our joyful Congratulations, and pour out the warmest Effusions of our grateful Hearts to the Almighty God, for your Majesty's Restoration to Health, and to the wonted lenient and just Exercise of the Government and Protection of a loyal and affectionate People.

The Influence of this happy Event failed not to reach even this abstracted and immatured Settlement, and pervades our Hearts with Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment, not inferior to what is expressed and felt in the most refined Parts of your Majesty's Dominions.

While we testify our Gratitude and Thankfulness to the Divine Being for your Majesty's Recovery, we fervently implore and supplicate that your Majesty's Health and Life may long be preserved Blessings of inestimable Value to every Part of your Majesty's wide and extensive Empire.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Governor Macarmick.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, November 9, 1789.

Notice is hereby given, That His Majesty will have a Levee at St. James's on Wednesday next the 11th Instant.

London, November 10.

On Sunday last William Pickett, Esq; Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall, when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

Yesterday the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, many of the Aldermen, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in their Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pendants, to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed; and, having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Friars, and from thence in Coaches, with the usual Solemnity, to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present the Foreign Ministers, the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and many other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

Dublin-Castle, November 5.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of glorious Memory, in the Morning the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower; at Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle to compliment their Excellencies the Lords Justices; after which their Excellencies, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a Squadron of Horse, went in Procession round the Statue of King William. On their Excellencies Return to the Castle the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in College Green; and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Vienna, October 28.

A Courier who returned some Days ago from the Army of Marshal de Saxe-Cobourg brought the News of the Russians having taken the Port of Akerman, on the Black Sea, and made Fifteen Hundred Prisoners there.

Whitehall, October 31, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a forged Guinea Note, in Imitation of that of the Paisley Banking Company, dated the 3d of October, 1785, was offered for Payment at Ayr, on the 17th Instant; and that another forged Note of the same Kind has since been discovered at the same Place:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them) except the Person who actually made and uttered the said Notes) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Paisley Banking Company do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS to any Person making such Discovery as above mentioned, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

For the Paisley Banking Company,
James Hog.

DESCRIPTION of the FORGED NOTES.

The Engraving in general is not so well executed, nor the Letters so clean and regular as in the genuine Note.

The Cups in the Shield at the Bottom of the Device are considerably smaller than in the real Note.

The Roman Letter at the N^o appears to be inserted with a Printing Type, and is large and coarse, nor has any Resemblance to the Letter in the real Note.

The Engraver's Name Kirkwood is printed Kirkwoob.

The Subscriptions are so badly imitated, that the Imposition is observable on a very slight Inspection. But besides other Differences, which are unnecessary to mention, the Forgery is on common Paper, so that by holding it up to the Light, it may at once be detected by its wanting the Water Mark of

Paisley
Banking Company.

Whitehall, October 26, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Saturday the 17th Instant, about Midnight, the Dwelling-House of General Charles Vernon, situate at Hampstead, in the County of Middlesex, was burglariously attempted to be broke into and entered, by some evil-disposed Persons unknown, armed with Pistols and Bludgons, who actually stole a Quanti y

a Quantity of Plate through a Casement, but were deterred from proceeding in the Robbery by the Noise they made alarming one of the Servants of the said General Vernon, who discharged a Blunderbuss in the Midst of the said Villains, by which one of them was very much wounded, as appeared by the Quantity of Blood discovered in the Track by which they made their Escape; that in their Flight they left behind them the Plate they had stolen, together with a Horse Pistol loaded with Slugs, mounted with Brass, and a Bludgeon stained with Blood; and further, that on Monday Evening the 19th Instant, soon after the Return of the said General Vernon in his Carriage from Town, as one of the Footmen who attended him, (being the Servant who discharged the Blunderbuss at the Thieves as above mentioned) was passing from one of the back Offices towards the said Dwelling-House, he was fired at with a Pistol (as supposed by the Report) loaded with Ball, by some Person unknown, but fortunately escaped unhurt, and two of the Balls entered the Door of the said Dwelling-House.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the several felonious Offences above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually fired at the Footman as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said General Vernon doth hereby offer a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted;) and the Trustees for Watching and Lighting the said Parish of Hampstead do hereby in like Manner offer the additional Reward of FIFTY POUNDS; the said several Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders: And in Case the Person who fired at the Servant as above mentioned should happen to be convicted, the said General Vernon doth hereby promise to augment the Reward above offered by him to the Sum of FORTY POUNDS.

Cha. Vernon.

N. B. All Informations on the above Subject are desired to be addressed, as speedily as possible, to the Permanent Committee appointed by the Vestry, at Hampstead, for the Purpose of protecting the Persons and Property of the Inhabitants of that Neighbourhood.
